REVIEW OF THE REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE OF THE RAILWAY BRANCH OF THE PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT FOR 1895-96.

No. 306-A. R., dated Simla, the 1st June, 1897.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

READ—

Note by A. R. Becher, Esq., Officiating Accountant General, Public Works Department, on the Capital and Revenue Accounts of Railways in India for 1895-96, No. 89R., dated 16th February 1897.

RESOLUTION.—The note by the Accountant General, copy of which is appended, exhibits the transactions of the Public Works Department with regard to railways during the year 1895-96, and shows the financial results to the State of the working of State and Guaranteed railways.

2. During the year under review, 575½ additional miles of railway were opened for traffic, and the further capital outlay incurred was as under :—

	Miles.	Capital outlay.
		Rx.
State Railways—
Productive	414½	3,400,484
Defensive	524,271
Total State railways	414½	3,924,755	...
Guaranteed railways	318,249
State lines leased to Companies	160½	...	783,734
	575½	3,924,755	1,101,983

The mileage open at the end of the year aggregated 17,308 miles exclusive of 2,377½ miles of lines belonging to Native States and other bodies, with which the Government of India have no financial concern.

The capital outlay incurred on construction of State and Guaranteed railways to the end of 1895-96 stood as under :—

	Rx.	£
(i) On State lines—
Direct capital outlay including outlay incurred from debentures raised by the East Indian Railway Company	89,420,028	...
Redemption of liabilities	33,553,451
(ii) On State lines leased to Companies	25,521,568
(iii) On Guaranteed railways	45,912,510
	89,420,028	104,987,529

3. The gross revenue for the year showed an increase of Rx. 521,067 over that of the previous year, bringing the total up to Rx. 24,839,082, derived as under :—

1894-95. Rx.		1895-96. Rx.
18,152,155	State railways	18,558,699
6,124,166	Guaranteed railways	6,255,131
41,694	Subsidised railways (repayment of advances of interest)	25,252
24,318,015	GRAND TOTAL	24,839,082

The gross charges for the year showed a decrease of Rx. 207,154 bringing the total expended down to Rx. 26,459,350 as under :—

1894-95. Rx.		1895-96. Rx.
11,405,777	Working expenses	11,578,792
1,059,804	Surplus profits, share of net earnings, etc.	943,444
5,634,056	Interest on sterling outlay, including interest paid to Guaranteed Companies	5,426,318
5,299,011	Interest on rupee outlay	5,390,984
3,119,261	Terminable annuities issued for purchase of railways	3,001,104
148,595	Other charges	118,708
26,666,504	GRAND TOTAL	26,459,350

The transactions thus recorded result in a net charge to the State of Rx. 1,620,268, as compared with a net charge of Rx. 2,348,489 in the preceding year. In paragraph 7 of the Accountant General's note, the charge for the year will be seen to have been distributed as follows :—

1894-95. Rx.		1895-96. Rx.
— 737,450	State railways	— 493,868
— 1,535,679	Guaranteed railways	— 1,061,752
+ 25,000	Subsidised Companies	+ 7,001
— 100,360	Miscellaneous	— 71,649
— 2,348,489	Net charge	— 1,620,268

The transactions of the principal lines working up to the above result were as follows:—

RAILWAY.	CHARGES.
	Gross Traffic earnings.	Working expenses including Companies' share of surplus profits, etc.	Interest and annuities.	Charges for land and cost of controlling establishments, etc.	Total charges.	Gain or loss + or —

The traffic during the year was considerably greater than that of previous years, and the charge for interest and annuities was smaller owing to the rate of exchange that obtained during the year being somewhat higher. In return for the charge of 1,620,268 the State receives all the indirect benefits arising from a railway system of 17,308 miles open.

4. The net receipts accruing to Government from all State lines, after deducting the payments made to working Companies in respect of surplus profits or share of net earnings, amounted to Rx. 9,517,863 (paragraph 11 of Accountant-General's note), which gives a return of 6·11 per cent. on the total capital outlay actually incurred by the State as entered in rupees in the Government Accounts. This capital outlay does not, however, include that portion of the purchase price of the East Indian, the Sind Punjab and Delhi and the Eastern Bengal railways, which is being redeemed by the payment, from current revenues, of terminable annuities. If, however, in the case of the Guaranteed railways that have been purchased by Government the amounts of capital expended by the several companies prior to their purchase by the State plus the capital outlay since incurred by the State, be taken in lieu of the figures now appearing in the Government Accounts, which, as explained above, are not complete, the return given by the net receipts (Rx. 9,517,863) is 5·12 per cent., as shown in paragraph 15 of the Accountant-General's note. These percentages indicate a satisfactory return on the capital expended, and the fact that there was a net charge to the State of Rx. 493,868 in respect of the State railways, as shown in paragraph 3 above, is due partly to the loss by exchange on the payments in England of the annuities and interest on the sterling portion of the capital, and partly to the fact that the annuities that are charged against the net revenues cover the enhanced value at which the capital of the several companies was taken over by Government and include also sinking fund charges for the redemption of the capital.*

5. The working of the three Guaranteed railways during the year is reviewed in paragraphs 57 to 60 of the note. Including charges for land and supervision, the result has been a loss to the State of Rx. 1,061,752. The Great Indian Peninsula, and the Madras railways entailed a loss of Rx. 745,583, and Rx. 367,762 respectively; while the Bombay, Baroda and Central India railway was worked at a gain of Rx. 51,593.

On the other hand, however, although the result of working the Guaranteed railways has been a net loss to the State of Rx. 1,061,752, the companies received during the year from Government a total sum of Rx. 479,750 as their share of surplus profits, which are, under the terms of the contracts, declared half-yearly the sterling interest being converted for the purpose of this division at the fixed contract rate of 1s. 10d. against 1s. 1'63814874d. the rate adopted in the Government Accounts of the year under review. The unfavourable effects of this provision in the contracts with regard to each line are brought out in paragraph 58 of the Accountant General's note.

The Governments of Madras and Bombay (Railway), Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the Punjab and Burma.

The Chief Commissioners of the Central Provinces and Assam.

ORDER.—Ordered, that the foregoing, with a copy of the note referred to, be forwarded to the Local Governments and Administrations noted on the margin, for information.

Ordered also, that a copy of the resolution and note be forwarded to the Department of Finance and Commerce and that the papers be published in the Gazette of India.

W. S. S. BISSET, Colonel, R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Documents accompanying.

Note by the Account General, Public Works Department, No. 89-R., dated 16th February 1897.

* There is, however, another way in which the return from State railways, including the lines taken over from companies may be stated. The capital involved in the purchase of the East Indian railway, the Eastern Bengal railway, the Sind Punjab and Delhi railway, the Oudh and Rohilkhand railway and the South Indian railway is stated partly in sterling and partly in rupees.

From the rupee earnings on these railways, on other State railways whose entire capital is stated in rupees, and on the State lines leased to companies, remittances have to be made yearly to pay the sterling interest upon a sum of £93,762,025 which is the amount of the sterling capital while rupee interest is paid in India upon Rx. 93,510,690 which is the amount of the Rupee Capital involved.

The effect as regards dividend to a shareholder is the same as if the sterling sum of £93,762,025 were converted into rupee capital at the rate of exchange for the year and the resulting rupees added to the rupee capital of Rx. 93,510,690 to form the total upon which the shareholder's return is based. Stated in this way the capital outlay on these lines is equivalent to Rx. 258,510,254, and the net earnings of Rx. 9,724,959 give a return of 3'76 per cent. thereon.

This method is not accurate as portions of the capital are being redeemed yearly by annuities forming a charge against current revenues.

In the case of the East Indian railway the net return on the capital stated in this way is 5'42 per cent. and this is practically what the East Indian railway deferred annuity holder, as partner with Government, receives.

8. From the foregoing statement it will be seen that after meeting all charges for annuities and interest (including interest on capital expended on lines not opened for traffic), charges for land for Companies' lines and miscellaneous expenditure on surveys, etc., the result of the year is a net charge to the State of Rx. 1,620,268. The traffic during the year considerably exceeded that of previous years, and the charge for interest and annuities was smaller owing to the rate of exchange that obtained during the year being somewhat higher, the net charge of Rx. 1,620,268 is consequently less than in the previous year when it amounted to Rx. 2,348,489. The loss in this as in previous years may, however, be directly attributed to the low exchange prevailing. The interest and annuities paid in England amounted to £5,747,782 which, at the exchange of 13·63814874d. the rupee, aggregated Rx. 10,114,771, the difference between this and the old par of exchange being no less than Rx. 4,366,989.

* These annuities are terminable between the years 1953 and 1958.

† Includes Rx. 19,415 and Rx. 14,528 on account of interest paid in India on Capital deposited by the Bengal-Nagpur and Rohilkhand and Kumaon Railway Companies respectively.

‡ Includes Rx. 315 and Rx. 182 on account of interest on rupee advances made in India for the extensions of the Bengal-Nagpur and Indian Midland Railways, respectively.

‡ Includes Bengal and North-Western Railway

 For goods traffic.

} Both these railways are the property of Companies, but for convenience are classified as State Railways.

These figures give a total open mileage of 14,721½ miles at end of the year, and allowing for corrections in mileages, the mileage open on 31st March 1896 was 14,721* miles. The mileage of Railways classed respectively as Imperial and Provincial was as under :—

	Miles.
Imperial	13,859½†
Provincial	861½
TOTAL	14,721

11. The gross receipts of the year amounted to Rx. 18,558,699, the working expenses to Rx. 8,598,899; the share of net earnings, surplus profits, and contributions to Provident Funds paid to Companies to Rx. 441,937, raising the total charges to Rx. 9,040,836, and leaving Rx. 9,517,863 as the net receipts accruing to Government from all the State lines during 1895-96. This result is better than that of 1894-95 by Rx. 156,739.

12. The Capital expenditure incurred by, or on the direct responsibility of, the State, including the Capital charge involved by incurring a specific amount of debt in purchase or redemption of liabilities in connection with lines formerly belonging to Guaranteed Companies and acquired by the State, is as under :—

	Rx.	£
(i) On State lines—
(a) Direct Capital outlay	89,148,330	...
(b) Redemption of liabilities	33,553,451
(ii) On State lines leased to Companies (Capital raised wholly or in part by Companies under guarantee)	32,882,977†	...
(iii) Expenditure incurred from debentures raised by the East Indian Railway Company	271,698	...
* TOTAL	122,303,005	33,553,451

13. This sum, however, includes expenditure on lines not opened for traffic at the close of the year under review, on materials held in reserve on the North-West Frontier and with Store-keepers at ports, on projects abandoned or in abeyance, and inefficient expenditure incurred in connection with lines transferred to Companies, aggregating Rx. 4,942,252 (vide Schedule H). Excluding such expenditure, the open line Capital outlay at the close of 1895-96 may be stated at Rx. 150,914,204 (vide Schedule A).

14. The net receipts accruing to Government for the year, Rx. 9,517,863, give a return on the total Capital outlay at the close of the year at the rate of 6·11 per cent. and on the open line Capital outlay at the rate of 6·31 per cent.

15. The above results, although representing correctly the return on the Capital outlay actually incurred by the State, cannot be taken as giving the true returns from the State Railways on the actual money expended upon the various undertakings. Those of the old Guaranteed Railways, which have been purchased by the State, were for the most part acquired by the payment of annuities, including the establishment of sinking funds which will redeem the capital at the expiry of the periods for which the annuities are to run. These charges are met from current revenues, and in respect of the capital thus to be redeemed, no charge appears in the Government account of Capital outlay. On the other hand, in the case of the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway, which was purchased outright, the outlay, as shown in the Government books, includes the premium paid on the Company's share Capital. The actual outlay incurred on the State Railways—taking, in the case of the Guaranteed Railways purchased by Government, the amounts expended by the several Companies plus the expenditure since incurred on construction—may* be stated at Rx. 185,855,588,† and on open lines at Rx. 180,913,281, on which amounts the net receipts for 1895-96 give a return at the rate of 5·12 and 5·26 per cent., respectively.

16. The receipts and charges, the Capital outlay, and the return per cent. on Capital outlay, of each line, will be found in the statement attached to this review as Schedule A. The following is a general summary :—

	Receipts.	Expendi- ture.	Net receipts.	PERCENTAGE OF WORKING EX- PENSES ON RE- CEIPTS.		Capital outlay to 31st March 1896.	Percentage of net receipts on Capital out- lay to 31st March 1896.

17. It will be seen from the above that the railways classed as Imperial yielded a return of 6·34 per cent. on the Capital outlay as recorded in the Government accounts, while those classed as Provincial yielded a return of 5·41 per cent.

18. The net receipts from the following Railways exceeded the interest charges for the year :—

19. The net receipts of the North-Western Railway fell short of the interest and annuity charges by Rx. 655,428, and were sufficient to give a return of only 3.68 per cent. on the actual capital outlay. This is due to the unfavourable results on the Frontier section and to the heavy charge for exchange on the sterling payments of interest and annuities.

20. The financial results to the State of the working of the Companies' lines, classed as State Railways, are shown more fully in Schedule I.

Comparison with Actuals during 1894-95 and Budget and Revised Estimates.

Receipts.

22. With Actuals of 1894-95.—The receipts are more than the actuals of the previous year by Rx. 406,544, the increase being due chiefly to traffic in connection with the Chitral Expedition, to the general development of coaching traffic, to improvement in coal traffic and to festivals. The additional open mileage also contributed to the increase. The largest increases are on the East Indian Railway (Rx. 245,285) and North Western Railway (Rx. 231,504), but there are also increases on the Burma (Rx. 59,757), South Indian (Rx. 72,168), East Coast (Rx. 53,571), Mysore (Rx. 14,365) and Southern Mahratta Railways (Rx. 69,778), while the following lines show decreases :—

Rajputana-Malwa (Rx. 162,299), Bengal-Nagpur (Rx. 21,290), Oudh and Rohilkhand (Rx. 130,820), Indian Midland (Rx. 73,191) and Lucknow-Bareilly Railways (Rx. 17,370).

The large increase of Rx. 245,285 on the East Indian Railway occurred partly under coaching and partly under goods traffic. The increase under coaching traffic was due to steady development of ordinary traffic, a small portion only being due to abnormal causes, such as pilgrim traffic. The increase under goods traffic is attributed chiefly to improvement in coal traffic. There was a decrease under other goods traffic owing to a falling off in the traffic in edible grains, wheat and rice.

The large increase of Rx. 231,504 on the North Western Railway occurred chiefly under coaching traffic due to the movement of troops for the Chitral Expedition and the opening of about 100 miles of the Wazirabad-Lyallpur Railway. There was also an increase under goods traffic due to large bookings of wheat to Kurrachee in May and June 1895. The large outstandings against the Military Department at the end of 1894-95 were also recovered during the year under review. On the other hand the earnings from sundries were much smaller; this is due to large amounts having been received in the previous year under this head for mileage and demurrage of stock which travelled over the East Indian and Oudh and Rohilkhand Railways in connection with heavy grain booking from the Rajpura-Bhatinda Railway.

The increase on the Burma Railway occurred under coaching and goods traffic, due to the development of traffic and to better trade.

The increase on the South Indian Railway was due chiefly to a general development of traffic. The increase under Coaching is also attributed to well attended festivals at Srirangam and Chidambaram and to the festivals at Mailam, Teruvallur and Pulni having occurred twice during the year, viz., once in April 1895, and again in March 1896. The increase under Goods is partly accounted for by the terminal charges, which were introduced on 1st January 1895, having been in operation throughout the year against 3 months only in the previous year.

The increase on the East Coast Railway is attributed to additional mileage having been opened during the year and to development of traffic.

The increase on the Mysore State Railway was due to the diversion of traffic from the Great Indian Peninsula Railway in the latter half of 1895; to the booking of race horses via Bangalore; to improved receipts in jawar, grain, pulse and salt and to the carriage of pipes from Bombay for the Water-works at Bangalore.

The increase on the Southern Mahratta Railway occurred both under Coaching and Goods traffic and is attributed partly to the general development of traffic and partly to the diversion of traffic from the Great Indian Peninsula Railway to the Southern Mahratta Railway Company's system consequent on the breaches on the former line during the heavy rains in the latter part of 1895. The increase under Goods traffic was also to some extent due to heavier bookings of coal from the Nizam's Guaranteed Railway to Dharmavaram for the South Indian Railway and to Goribidnur for Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co. There was also a considerable improvement in the traffic in salt, wheat, rice and til seeds, while on the other hand the traffic in castor seeds, chillies and earthnuts shewed a falling off. Under Sundries there was an increase due to the recovery of certain arrear charges for rent; of commission for stores purchased in England for the Kolhapur State Railway and of interest charges on the customs shed and sidings at Castle Road for the period ended 31st December 1895.

The decrease on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway occurred chiefly under Goods traffic and was due to a falling off of traffic in grains, oil-seeds and salt to the extent of over 32 lakhs. The traffic in raw cotton and general merchandise was, however, favourable as well as the passenger traffic which showed an increase of over 6½ lakhs, due partly to ordinary fluctuations and partly to the development of traffic on the Godhra-Rutlam Railway.

The decrease on the Bengal Nagpur Railway occurred chiefly under Goods traffic and was due to dullness of business both in Calcutta and Bombay, to bad linseed and wheat crops and specially to a very poor rice crop. There was also a decrease in the traffic under Sundries due to the East Indian Railway not having hired vehicles as in the previous year and to the receipts under mileage and demurrage of vehicles having fallen off owing to the decline in goods traffic. The coaching traffic, however, improved during the year owing to the pilgrim traffic to Allahabad and Benares; to despatches of emigrants; to the running of a new local train and of more special trains and to an increase in the receipts from parcels traffic.

The large decrease on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway is attributable entirely to a fall in goods traffic. The earnings from this traffic in the previous year were exceptionally favourable owing to abnormally large imports of wheat, gram and other grains into the North-Western Provinces and Oudh consequent on unsatisfactory local spring crops and damage to other crops by floods during the monsoon and later rains. The earnings from Coaching traffic and Sundries shewed increases, that under the former being due to the passenger traffic in the previous year having been unfavourable. The movement of troops in connection with the Chitral Expedition contributed partly to the increase and the earnings were further favourably influenced by an important fair having been held in the last week of March instead of, as usually in April. The increase under Sundries was due to the receipts for the year having exceeded the payments for mileage of foreign stock owing to a light import traffic, whereas in the previous year the payments exceeded the receipts.

The large decrease on the Indian Midland and Bhopal Railways occurred almost entirely under Goods traffic and was due chiefly to there having been an abnormal import traffic of wheat and food-grains in the previous year in consequence of the failure of crops in certain districts when the great scarcity which prevailed was met by heavy imports from the Punjab and locally from districts where the crops had been good. The traffic in oil-seeds also shewed a heavy decrease due to poor crops and small demand for exports. The earnings in the previous year were also further augmented by the carriage of heavy consignments of permanent-way material and bridgework for the Bina-Guna and Bhopal-Ujjain Railways which were then under construction. On the other hand there were increases under Cotton due to the season's crop having been an early one, and the outturn much above the average, while the demand in the Bombay market for export and local consumption was brisk; under Sugar and jagree a considerable quantity of which was carried in the latter half of the year; also under Coaching traffic due to larger receipts from ordinary passenger traffic and from other Military traffic in consequence of the Chitral Expedition; and under Sundries—due to receipts from the Bina-Guna and Bhopal-Ujjain Railways for the hire of rolling stock.

The decrease on the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway was due to general dullness of passenger traffic at all stations on the Railway; to the falling off in pilgrim traffic and to the fact that in the previous year some of the traffic of the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway was diverted and carried viâ the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway in consequence of a breach on the former line near Shahjehanpur.

23. With Budget Estimates.—The actuals were more than the Budget Estimate by Rx. 556,799; this increase being due to much the same causes as mentioned above with regard to the increase over the actuals of the previous year.

The large increase of Rx. 248,389 on the East Indian Railway was due principally to causes mentioned in para. 22 above.

The increase on the Burma State Railway is attributed to the development of traffic and to better trade.

The increase on the Assam-Bengal Railway is explained by no reliable data having been available at the time of the preparation of the Budget Estimate.

The large increase on the Eastern Bengal State Railway was due to a favourable jute crop.

The increase on the Bengal Central Railway was due to a more favourable jute and passenger traffic,

The increase on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway occurred under both Coaching and Goods traffic. The passenger traffic proved very favourable during the year, and the movements in connection with the Chitral Expedition helped to swell the receipts from this source. The spring crops having proved less favourable than was anticipated led to a fairly heavy import of food-grains from the Punjab, and the improvement in goods traffic may be generally attributed to this import traffic and to the earnings from the carriage of stores in connection with the Chitral Expedition.

The very large increase of Rx. 835,691 on the North Western Railway is attributed to the Chitral Expedition; to the opening of the Wazirabad Lyallpur Railway and to the recovery from the Commissariat Department of amounts outstanding at end of 1894-95.

The increase on the South Indian Railway is attributed to both the coaching and goods traffic having been considerably more favourable than was anticipated. The general improvement in traffic and the occurrence of certain festivals twice during the year, vide paragraph 22 above, account mainly for the increase.

The increase on the Mysore Railway is attributed to the goods earnings having been considerably more than was anticipated; the traffic improved steadily, and the breaks on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and the consequent diversion of traffic on to the Southern Mahratta Railway and on to this line, account for the better results obtained.

The increase on the Southern Mahratta Railway was due partly to the traffic of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway having been diverted on to this line in consequence of breaches on the latter Railway; partly to the carriage of troops and baggage for the Chitral Expedition and partly to improvement in traffic.

The decrease on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway was due chiefly to a heavy falling off of traffic in grain and oil-seeds—the decrease in goods traffic amounting to over 27 lakhs. The passenger traffic throughout the year was more favourable than was anticipated, the result being an increase of over 6½ lakhs.

The decrease on the Umaria Colliery was due partly to the rate of large coal sold to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and other customers having been reduced and partly to a smaller output of coal than was anticipated when the Budget Estimate was framed.

The decrease on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway occurred chiefly under Goods traffic owing to the rice and wheat crops in the Central Provinces having suffered greatly from want of rain. The decrease in this traffic also caused a falling off under Sundries due to smaller receipts for mileage and demurrage of vehicles and to vehicles not having been hired by the East Indian Railway to the same extent as in the previous year. The passenger traffic was, however, more favourable than was anticipated in the Budget Estimate and resulted in a large increase. This was due chiefly to despatches of cooly emigrants to Assam for tea plantations and to the passenger traffic towards Allahabad and Benares during the last quarter having considerably increased in consequence of special concessions having been allowed to pilgrims from the Nagpur-Sambalpur section.

The large decrease on the Indian Midland and Bhopal Railways was due to a heavy falling off in goods traffic, the estimate having been framed on a higher train-mileage than that actually run.

The decrease on the East Coast Railway was due to stoppage of traffic in consequence of breaches caused by floods in September 1895.

24. With Revised Estimates.—The actual receipts were more than the Revised Estimate by Rx. 183,599, the principal increases being on the Rajputana-Malwa, Eastern Bengal, North Western and East Coast Railways. The increase was due chiefly to the passenger and goods traffic having proved favourable and to a revival of the jute traffic during the last quarter of the year.

The increase on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway arose chiefly from passenger traffic and was due partly to ordinary fluctuations and partly to development of traffic on the Godhra-Rutlam Railway. The traffic in goods shewed a falling off due to the estimate of earnings for the last quarter, based on the transactions of previous years, not having been realised. The receipts under Sundries shewed an increase due chiefly to the adjustment of supervision charges on construction works on the Nagda-Ujjain Railway and of charges in connection with the hire of rolling stock lent to the Rutlam-Nagda and Oodeypore-Chittore Railways.

The increase on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway is attributed to considerable cooly traffic for the plantations and pilgrim traffic to Allahabad and Benares during the last quarter of the year; to the running of a new local train; to the carriage of stores for construction purposes and to the net receipts from mileage and demurrage of stock having been larger than was anticipated.

The increase on the Eastern Bengal State Railway is attributed to larger jute traffic during the last quarter of the year than anticipated.

The increase on the Bengal and North-Western and Tirhoot Railways was due to the receipts from passenger, goods and steam boat traffic having been better than was anticipated and to fluctuations under Suspense.

The increase on the North Western Railway was due to improvement in goods traffic.

The increase on the East Coast Railway was attributed mainly to the opening of the section from Rambha to Khurda road in March 1896.

The increase on the Southern Mahratta Railway was due to the receipts for the closing months of the year having proved better than was anticipated and to the adjustment of bills due by Government for carriage of troops and baggage in connection with the Chitral Expedition.

The decrease on the Burma State Railway was due to the Revised Estimate having been placed at too high a figure.

The decrease on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway is attributed chiefly to a falling off in goods traffic. The early cessation of the monsoon and the entire failure of the usual winter rains led to great uncertainty as to the outturn of the spring crops of wheat and seeds, and traffic fell off very considerably during the latter weeks of the year.

The decrease on the Indian Midland Railway was due entirely to the continued falling off in goods traffic in which, on account of the scarcity and the expected import traffic in food-grain, it was anticipated there would be some improvement.

Working Expenses.

25. With Actuals of 1894-95.—The increase of Rx. 249,805 in working expenses as compared with the actuals of the previous year may be attributed to renewals, both special and ordinary, and to the larger traffic worked. The increase in working expenses absorbs about 61 per cent. of the increased earnings.

The increase on the East Indian Railway occurred chiefly under Locomotive and Traffic expenses and General charges. The increase under Locomotive expenses was due to the higher price of coal; to greater consumption of coal and stores owing to increased train-mileage and to engine renewals. The increase under Traffic expenses is attributed to the growth of traffic and to the payment of 15 per cent. of salary in lieu of exchange compensation allowance to train and station staff which was not sanctioned in the previous year. That under General charges was due to the accounts of the previous year having included a special credit of Rx. 43,176 on account of rebate from the Government Telegraph Department. On the other hand there was a decrease under Special and Miscellaneous expenditure due to less payments to other lines for hire of vehicles, for mileage and demurrage of foreign stock, and to fluctuations due to variations in exchange on Home payments to servants, etc.

A portion of the Assam-Bengal Railway was opened to traffic during the course of the year under review.

The increase on the Bengal and North-Western and Tirhoot Railways was due chiefly to relaying work; to the erection of goods wagons having been carried out during the year under review; to the price of coal having risen; to fluctuations in suspense and to a larger payment on account of Company's share of net earnings.

The increase on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway is attributed mainly to heavier expenditure on special renewals of permanent way, of girders and of wagon stock. On the other hand there was a decrease under Locomotive expenses due to the smaller traffic worked during the year, and under Special and Miscellaneous expenditure consequent on reduced payments for mileage of foreign stock owing to the reduced import traffic.

The increase on the South Indian Railway is attributed to a greater length of line having been renewed with 50lb rails; to an increase in fuel consumption consequent on the increased train miles run; to an increase in the carriage of revenue stores, owing to coal having been delivered at Dharmavaram and Madras and trained thence to depôts along the line; to the payment of gratuity and furlough allowances to Mr. W. S. Betts, late Agent, and to a larger payment on account of additional contribution to the Provident Fund and Company's share of net receipts in consequence of the increased earnings.

The increase on the Southern Mahratta Railway was due to the larger train mileage run and heavier repairs to engines and wagons; to the entertainment of additional station staff; to the grant of mileage allowance to guards instead of batta; to additional outlay on oil and miscellaneous stores for the running of night trains; to the provisional adjustment on account of pontage charges for the Krishna bridge traffic for the four half-years ended 31st December 1895 and to a larger payment on account of the Company's share of net earnings. There was, however, a decrease under Maintenance of way and works due to the special renewal of sleepers having been less extensive than in the previous year.

The increase on the East Coast Railway was due to the longer length of line worked during the year.

The decrease on the Warora Colliery was due to reduction in establishment; to reduction in the rate of issue, and decrease in the quantity, of coal consumed by Revenue; to less repairs and renewals of machinery, and to a charge, during the previous year, to revenue, loss on stores, of the value of three warren girders transferred to the Assam-Bengal Railway.

The decrease on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway occurred chiefly under Maintenance of way, works and stations, and was due to reduction in wages of permanent-way gangs; to credits for materials returned from Katni-Umaria section; to a special credit for stores found in excess on verification of Engineers' reserve stock of the Bilaspur District; and to heavy repairs having been carried out to staff quarters, and larger charges for ballast trains, during the previous year.

The decrease on the Eastern Bengal State Railway was due to the transfer of the Goalundo-Narayangunj steamer service to the India General Steam Navigation Company with effect from the 1st July 1895.

The decrease on the Indian Midland Railway occurred chiefly under Maintenance of way and was due to decreased expenditure on extraordinary renewals of permanent-way and painting and re-timbering bridges. Decreases also occurred under Traffic expenses due to considerable saving having been effected in station and train staff consequent on the lighter traffic dealt with and the decreased train mileage run; also in expenses at joint stations, for which heavy charges were incurred in the previous year, and under General charges, chiefly in the cost of audit and accounts staff.

The decrease on the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway was due mainly to decreased train service in consequence of there not having been any of the special diverted traffic referred to in para. 22 above, and to a smaller payment of surplus profits to the Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway Company owing to the decrease in earnings.

The decrease on the North-Western Railway occurred principally under Maintenance, the charges for renewals, flood damages and strengthening bridges not being so heavy as in the preceding year. There was also a decrease under Carriage and Wagon expenses, mainly in repairs and renewals of stock. Increases occurred under Locomotive and Traffic expenses owing to heavier traffic.

26. With Budget Estimates.—The actual working expenses exceeded the Budget Estimate by Rx. 343,836. The more important variations in line estimates are as under.

The excess on the East Indian Railway was due to charges in connection with supervising the improvements of fencing and strengthening bridges having been higher; to larger debits on account of carriage of revenue stores; to the work of renovating coaching stock having been more extensive than was anticipated; to the replacement of wheels for increasing the carrying capacity of stock; to the causes enumerated in para. 25 above; and to a larger payment on account of Company's share of surplus profits owing to the increased earnings. There was a saving under General charges due chiefly to a credit for a re-adjustment of the charges by the Government Telegraph Department for rent, maintenance, etc.

The excess on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway was due to larger expenditure than was anticipated on maintenance of way, works and stations; to short provision under Fuel, Maintenance and renewals of locomotive engines and machinery, General superintendence, Station staff, Lighting, Water and general stores, and Printing, stationery and tickets. There was a decrease in the amount of the surplus profits paid to the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company which was due to the net result of the year's working not having proved as satisfactory as was anticipated at the time the Budget Estimate was prepared.

The excess on the Burma State Railway occurred chiefly under Locomotive expenses, and was due to sufficient provision not having been made in the Budget Estimate.

The excess on the Bengal and North-Western and Tirhoot Railways was due to work in connection with relaying 110 miles and erecting the Gogra temporary pile bridge not having been anticipated; to the price of coal having risen; to expenditure incurred on the erection of 60 iron covered goods wagons in replacement of old wooden ones not having been anticipated; to an under-estimate of Home Engineering charges; to an under-estimate of working expenses and fuel; to law expenses incurred in connection with the Bunwar Chak embankment case, and to a larger payment on account of Company's share of net earnings than was provided for in the Budget Estimate.

The large excess on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway was due to the grant sanctioned having proved inadequate to meet the requirements of the year, especially in connection with special renewals of permanent way, repairs of bridges, and repairs and renewals of vehicles which were carried out with the sanction of Government.

The excess on the North Western Railway was due to fluctuations in suspense balances.

The excess on the East Coast Railway is attributed to large issues of materials for repairs which were necessitated by the heavy floods in September 1895.

The excess on the Southern Mahratta Railway was due principally to a larger payment on account of the Company's share of net earnings.

The excess on the South Indian Railway was due to larger expenditure having been incurred under Locomotive expenses consequent on the increased earnings; to the payment of the gratuity to the late Agent referred to in para. 25 above and to a larger payment on account of Company's share of net receipts.

The lapse on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway occurred chiefly under Maintenance, owing to the relaying of 5 miles of the Katni-Umaria section not having been taken up during the year; to repairs to buildings having been less than was expected, and to a larger provision having been made for general superintendence than was found necessary.

The lapse on the Warora Colliery was due to an over-estimate of requirements in the Budget Estimate which was based on the actuals of the previous year.

The lapse on the Eastern Bengal State Railway was due to the transfer of the Goalundo-Narayangunj steamer service to the India General Steam Navigation Company.

The lapse on the Indian Midland Railway was due to the provision made for extraordinary renewals, fuel and station and train staff, having been in excess of actual requirements.

27. With Revised Estimates.—The actual working expenses compare very favourably with the Revised Estimate, the result being a small excess of Rx. 7,136. The more important variations on individual lines are explained below.

The excess on the East Indian Railway was due to the credits in respect of 75lb D. O. sleepers taken out in place of 85lb sleepers in the Howrah district having been over-estimated; to heavy repairs of stations and buildings; to larger debits on account of carriage of revenue stores, and to increased train-mileage, arrear repairs and freight on increased coal stocks.

The excess on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway was due chiefly to larger payments than were anticipated on amaintenance; to a larger payment on account of surplus profits to the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company, in consequence of the year's working having proved better than was expected, and to fluctuations in suspense.

The excess on the Burma State Railway occurred chiefly under Locomotive and is due to the cause mentioned in para. 26 above.

The excess on the East Coast Railway is attributed to the opening of the section from Rambha to Khurda Road.

The lapse on the Bengal and North-Western and Tirhoot Railways was due chiefly to a smaller payment on account of Company's share of net earnings owing to 25 per cent. of the gross earnings for February 1896 not having been paid to the Company during the year as provided for in the Revised Estimate.

The lapse on the Eastern Bengal State Railway was due chiefly to less issues of stores for revenue purposes by the Engineering and Locomotive Departments, and to savings under steam boat service.

The lapse on the Bengal Central Railway was due chiefly to 90 per cent. of the Company's share of net earnings for the half-year ended 31st December 1895 having been paid in April instead of in March as was anticipated in the Revised Estimate.

The lapse on the North Western Railway was due to less expenditure having been incurred on repairs to bridges; to smaller charges for fuel and to smaller repairs to goods vehicles.

The lapse on the Southern Mahratta Railway was due to less renewals having been carried out, owing to delay in the supply of sleepers by the Forest Department; to a credit for a large quantity of surplus materials, which were found in the carriage shop, and returned into stores; and to an over-estimate of the Company's share of net earnings.

(ii) Interest and Annuities.

28. The charges for interest and annuities on account of State Railways for 1895-96 amounted to Rx. 10,011,731 as under:—

	ENGLAND.		India.	Total.

29. Interest is charged in India at 4 per cent. per annum on debt incurred for direct outlay by the State, except on a loan of Rx. 1,000,000 from His Highness the Maharaja Holkar for the Holkar State Railway which bears interest at $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum.

30. The debt taken over or incurred in connection with lines acquired by the State from Companies is on account of the East Indian, Eastern Bengal, Sind, Punjab and Delhi (incorporated in the North Western Railway), Oudh and Rohilkhand and South Indian Railways, and consists of debentures and debenture stocks of the Companies, for which the State assumed the direct liability on the transfer of the lines to Government; of India stock issued in purchase of the Oudh and Rohilkhand and South Indian Railways; and of stock issued from time to time in redemption of portions of annuities or of debentures and debenture stock, which are bought up as opportunity offers.

The debentures discharged up to date are as under :—

Rx.

East Indian Railway, £2,950,000 or expressed in Rx., converted at the contract rates for the years in which discharged . 3,546,684
Eastern Bengal Railway, £612,850 or expressed in Rx., converted at the average rates for the years in which discharged . 815,670 and interest is calculated at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum on these sums as in the case of direct outlay by the State.

31. The details of the interest charges and the charge on account of each line are as follows :—

	East Indian.	Eastern Bengal.	Sind, Punjab and Delhi (North-Western).	Oudh and Rohilkhand.	South Indian.	TOTAL.

32. The East Indian, the Eastern Bengal, and the Sind, Punjab and Delhi Railways were purchased by annuities : the East Indian Railway annuity, terminating in 1953, at the rate of £5-12-6 for every £100 stock of the Company, the Eastern Bengal, terminating in 1957, at £6-3-4-79 per £100 stock, and the Sind, Punjab and Delhi, terminating in 1958, at the rate of £5-3-3-141 per £100 stock. In the case of the East Indian Railway a portion of the annuity equivalent to one-fifth of the commuted value of the capital stock, or £8,550,000, has been deferred, and on this sum interest at 4 per cent. is guaranteed. The holders of this portion of the stock participate in the surplus profits.

33. The charges in respect of each line were as follows :—

	East Indian.	Eastern Bengal.	Sind, Punjab and Delhi (North-Western).	TOTAL.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Annuity	1,408,490	205,096	653,496	2,352,082

TOTAL .	2,066,506	213,490	721,108	3,001,104

34. The charges under "Interest on capital deposited by Companies" and "Interest chargeable against Companies on advances" relate to the newer Companies, the lines undertaken by which are classed as State Railways. During later years, the funds required for additional capital works have been provided by advances made to the Companies from funds raised by the Secretary of State under the provisions of Act 51, Vict., Cap. 5. The charges for interest on these advances appear under the heading "Interest chargeable against Companies on advances." It has further been arranged that money required for Indian expenditure on the construction of the extensions of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway and the Saugor-Katni Extension of the Indian Midland Railway shall be advanced in India, the expenditure in England on account of these Railways being met by sterling borrowing. The interest chargeable against the Companies on the rupee advances appear under India under the same heading. The East Indian Railway Company have also been allowed to raise sterling debentures to meet the Capital expenditure on the main line and the extensions. The interest on these debentures is accounted for under the head "Interest on Capital deposited by Companies."

35. The charges incurred in connection with each line are given in the following table:—

* Including Mysore.

36. The charge in India against the Bengal-Nagpur Railway under "Interest on capital deposited by Companies" represents interest on capital expended by Government on the Katni-Umaria State Railway, which was subsequently taken over by the Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company as a part of its undertaking; this expenditure has not been refunded by the Company, but the State ranks as a shareholder to the extent of the capital contributed by it. The amount entered against the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway represents interest on money raised by the Rohilkhand and Kumaon Railway Company for capital expenditure on the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway, and interest on advances made to the Company in excess of the money raised.

SECTION B.

GUARANTEED RAILWAYS.

37. This section deals with (i) the revenue transactions of the Great Indian Peninsula, the Bombay, Baroda and Central India, and the Madras Railways; and (ii) the charges incurred by the State in the payment of surplus profits and contributions to Provident Funds; on land, which, under the several contracts, is supplied free of charge to the Companies; on Government controlling establishments; and on interest on capital. The Government controlling establishments also exercise, in some instances, supervision over State lines leased to Companies, and perform certain duties in connection with State Railways, but the entire cost is included under this head. Recoveries are, however, made from State lines leased to Companies on account of Government supervision, and the amount of such recoveries is credited to this head.

I.—REVENUE TRANSACTIONS.

* Administration Report on the Railways in India for 1895-96, Part I, Appendix C.

39. The net receipts of the Guaranteed Railways during 1895-96 amounted to Rx. 3,275,238. The transactions of each Railway for the year were as follows :—

	Great Indian Peninsula.	Bombay, Baroda and Central India.	Madras.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.

40. Taking the Capital expenditure as stated in rupees in the Indian Accounts (in which sterling figures have been converted at the fixed contract rate of 1s. 10d. the rupee), the return per cent. on Capital outlay incurred to the end of the year was as under:—

	Capital outlay to 31st March 1896.	Net Receipts, 1895-96.	Percentage on Capital outlay.
	Rs.	Rs.
Great Indian Peninsula	27,895,875	1,555,626	5.58
Bombay, Baroda and Central India	10,101,311	1,132,291	11.21
Madras	12,089,188	587,321	4.86

41. The traffic on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway was somewhat better than that of the previous year. The improvement was principally under Coaching owing to the development of the third class passenger traffic. Under Goods traffic there was a decrease of Rs. 71,455. The working expenses during the year under review were less than in 1894-95, due chiefly to reduced outlay on maintenance and carriage and wagon and traffic expenses. The decrease under Maintenance resulted from smaller issues of permanent-way materials, the more favourable rates of issues and the suspension of outlay on platelayers' huts. The reduction in the Carriage and Wagon Department was due mainly to curtailment of repairs to coaching and goods vehicles, to the lower price of new iron-work for renewals, to smaller issues of new materials, and to the use of second-hand materials as far as possible. The decrease in the Traffic Department is ascribed to reduction of station and train staff and to the absence of staff on compulsory leave.

42. On the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway the results were more favourable than in the preceding year, the earnings being larger by Rs. 14,36,697, while the increase in working expenses was only Rs. 5,72,248. There was an increase under coaching owing to the development of passenger traffic under all classes. The goods earnings also improved, principally under Cotton, Grain and pulse, Metals, Provisions, Timber and Coal both for the public and for the Locomotive Department. The increase would have been greater but for a slight fall in the traffic in oil-seeds and salt, and in the earnings under the head "Sundries" owing to the receipts from hire of engines having been credited to the Godhra-Rutlam Railway from the date of the through opening of that line. The increase in working expenses was due principally to heavy outlay in the Locomotive and Traffic Departments. The increase in the former is accounted for by increased consumption of coal per train mile owing to the larger use of country coal, increased train mileage and larger renewals and repairs of engines, and that in the latter is attributed to engagement of extra station staff to meet heavy traffic, to the supply of new wagon covers, to a heavier consumption of stores, and to the charges in 1894-95 having been reduced by a large credit for overcharges on oil in previous years.

43. On the Madras Railway there was an improvement in the coaching earnings due chiefly to the increase of the third class passenger fare from 1½ to 2 pies per mile. The result would have been better but for the serious breaches in September 1895 on the Great Indian Peninsula, Nizam's and East Coast Railways which led to the suspension of through booking over these lines for a period of nearly two months. The working expenses were less than in the previous year, due principally to short outlay in the Carriage and Wagon Department owing to repairs of vehicles having been less extensive than in 1894-95, to a large reduction in loss by exchange consequent on the smaller issues of English stores for repairs, and to the more favourable rate of exchange. The reduction in working expenses would have been larger but for the heavy outlay in the Locomotive Department in connection with the increase in cost of fuel, and the more extensive renewals and repairs of engines and machinery.

Comparison with Actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates.

44. A statement, attached to this review as Schedule B, compares in detail the transactions of the year with the Revised and Budget Estimates and the Actuals of 1894-95. The following is a summary of the net results:—

RAILWAYS.	NET RECEIPTS.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.		NET RECEIPTS.
	Actuals, 1895-96.	Estimate.	Actuals, more + or less —.	Estimate.	Actuals, more + or less —.	Actuals, 1894-95.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Great Indian Peninsula	1,555,626	1,600,000	—44,374	2,000,000	—444,374	1,502,384
Bombay, Baroda and Central India	1,132,291	1,097,500	+34,791	965,000	+167,291	1,033,825
Madras	587,321	572,500	+14,821	530,000	+57,321	514,102
TOTAL	3,275,238	3,270,000	+5,238	3,495,000	—219,762	3,050,311

45. The increase in the actuals over those of 1894-95 was due to the improvement of traffic, both passenger and goods, on the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway and of passenger traffic on the Madras and Great Indian Peninsula Railways. The decrease as compared with the Budget Estimate was due mainly to the provision for a revival of traffic on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway which was made in the estimate, not having been realised. The difference between the actuals and the Revised Estimate is comparatively small.

II.—SURPLUS PROFITS, ETC., LAND, SUPERVISION AND INTEREST.

Surplus Profits and Contributions to Provident Funds.

46. Under the contracts with the Guaranteed Railway Companies, a moiety of the excess of net earnings over interest charges for each half-year ending 30th June and 31st December, taken separately, is paid to the Companies; but in calculating the total surplus for division the Secretary of State is able to place against the net earnings stated in rupees, one rupee only for every 1s. 10d. of guaranteed interest which he has paid. The share falling to the Companies is, therefore, much in excess of a true moiety of the real surplus after meeting the sum which the Secretary of State actually pays as interest charges. In any half-year during which the net earnings fall short of the interest charges, the deficiency is borne wholly by Government.

47. A contribution from net earnings is made in aid of the Provident Funds established on the Great Indian Peninsula and Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railways, for the benefit of the Companies' employes, when the net earnings on capital give a return of more than 6 per cent. per annum on the Bombay, Baroda and Central India, and of 3 per cent. half-yearly on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway. A Provident Fund was established during 1891-92 on the Madras Railway, but on a different basis, a contribution equal to one-half of the obligatory subscriptions of the members during the half-year being given as a charge to Working Expenses, and a further contribution being made in half-years in which there are surplus profits, out of such surplus profits, and within certain prescribed limits.

48. The payments to the Companies during the year 1895-96 on account of Surplus Profits and Contributions to Provident Funds were as follows:—

	Surplus profits.	Contributions to Provident Funds.	TOTAL.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Great Indian Peninsula	161,973	9,757	171,730
Bombay, Baroda and Central India	312,600	11,048	323,648
Madras	5,177	952	6,129

Land.

49. The charges for land for Guaranteed Railways during the year were comparatively small. They were as follows :—

	Rx.
Great Indian Peninsula	—747
Bombay, Baroda and Central India	699
Madras	1,928

Supervision.

50. The charges falling under this head represent the cost of the establishments of the Consulting Engineers and Government Examiners employed on the supervision, audit and control of the transactions of Companies' lines, and a moiety of the cost of the office of the Director General of Railways. The amounts recovered from Railway Companies are credited to this head. The charges during the year under review were as follows :—

	Control. Rx.	Audit. Rx.
Bombay	11,616	11,474
Madras	7,631	5,118
Calcutta	10,509	6,456
North-Western Provinces and Oudh	10,965	6,285

Director General of Railways, etc. (share of office of)	16,577	...
	61,906	31,668
TOTAL	93,574
Less—Recoveries from Companies	66,646
NET CHARGE	26,928

51. The contributions for Government supervision, audit and control, recovered from the several Railway Companies, were as follows :—

	Rx.
East Indian	10,000
Rajputana-Malwa	14,314
Bengal and North-Western and Tirhoot	3,149
Bengal-Nagpur	7,515
Bengal Central	1,000
Indian Midland	5,419
Southern Mahratta (including Mysore)	10,704
Rohilkhand-Kumaon (including Lucknow-Bareilly)	1,140
South Indian	8,333
Assam-Bengal	5,072
TOTAL	66,646

52. The contribution payable from East Indian Railway revenues has been fixed under the contract at Rs. 50,000 half-yearly. With the exception of the Bengal and North-Western and the Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway Companies, the contributions paid by Railway Companies are calculated at the rate of Rs. 40 per half-year per mile of line constructed or under construction. The contributions by the Bengal and North-Western and Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway Companies are calculated at the rate of Rs. 20 per mile half-yearly.

53. No contribution is made by the old Guaranteed Railways towards the cost of Government audit and control.

Interest.

54. The charges for Interest during the year 1895-96 were as under:—

	On Capital held in England.		On Capital held in India.	On overdrawals on Capital Account.	TOTAL.
	Amount. £	Equivalent Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.

TOTAL	2,161,563	3,803,853	1,934	888	3,806,675

55. The foregoing figures represent the interest paid during the year, and not the liability for interest for the year 1895-96. No additional capital was raised during the year under review except a small sum of £21-12 on account of premium at £1-0-6 per cent. on £2,400 Debentures at 3 per cent. issued to replace the same amount falling due on 1st July 1895. The interest on overdrawn capital represents interest charged by Government at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum on advances to the Bombay, Baroda and Central India and Madras Railway Companies on Capital Account.

Comparison with Actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates.

56. In the statement attached to this review as Schedule C, a comparison in detail will be found of the actual charges for Surplus Profits, etc., Land and Supervision, and Interest, with the Revised and Budget Estimates and with the Actuals of 1894-95, of which the following is a summary:—

	Actuals, 1895-96.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.		Actuals, 1894-95.
		Estimate.	Actuals, more + or less —.	Estimate.	Actuals, more + or less —.
		Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Surplus profits, etc.	501,507	501,200	+ 307	585,000	— 83,493	600,695
Land and Supervision	28,808	31,100	— 2,292	33,000	— 4,192	31,541
Interest	3,806,675	3,794,600	+ 12,075	3,964,600	— 157,925	3,953,754
TOTAL	4,336,990	4,326,900	+ 10,090	4,582,600	— 245,610	4,585,990

The decrease in payments on account of surplus profits, etc., as compared with the actuals of the previous year and the Budget Estimate, was due to the traffic on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway having fallen short of expectations. The difference would have been larger but for the increase in the share of profits paid to the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company and the Madras Railway Company having earned surplus profits for the first time.

The decrease in Land and Supervision as compared with the actuals of the previous year was due chiefly to smaller payments for land for the railways in Bombay and Madras. The difference would have been greater but for the increased expenditure in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, due partly to the formation of new offices in connection with the Southern Punjab Railway and partly to fluctuations of salaries owing to change of officers. The lapse on the Budget and Revised Estimates was due principally to the demands against the grant for unforeseen charges for land for the railways in Bombay having fallen short of the provision.

The decrease in the interest charges as compared with the actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget Estimate was due to the more favourable rate of exchange.

Effect on State Revenues.

57. The following table shows the direct results to the State of the working of the Guaranteed Railways for the year :—

	Net Traffic Receipts.	CHARGES.				Gain or loss (+ or -).
		Interest.	Surplus Profits.	Contribution to Provident Funds.	TOTAL.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Great Indian Peninsula	1,555,626	2,116,829	161,973	9,757	2,288,559	—732,933
Bombay, Baroda and Central India	1,132,291	751,555	312,600	11,048	1,075,203	+ 57,088
Madras	587,321	938,291	5,177	952	944,420	—357,099

58. In addition to the above, the cost of land provided at the expense of the State and a proportionate share of the cost of the Government controlling establishments have to be taken into consideration, in order to arrive at the real financial results to the State of its connection with Guaranteed Railways. The above table, however, shows prominently the effects of the provision in the contracts under which surplus profits are declared half-yearly, and the sterling interest is converted for the purpose of this division at the fixed contract rate of 1s. 10d. (vide para. 46). Thus the Great Indian Peninsula Railway received as surplus profits during the year the sum of Rx. 161,973, while Government, although nominally entitled to share equally with the Company, sustained a loss of Rx. 732,933. During the second-half of 1895 the net earnings fell short of the guaranteed interest and Government had to make good the deficiency and to bear also the loss by exchange on interest paid in England. The Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company received Rx. 312,600 as surplus profits, while there was a gain to the State of Rx. 57,088 only. The Madras Railway, for the first time, received surplus profits of Rx. 5,177, while the loss to Government amounted to Rx. 357,099.

59. In the following statement the results to the State of the working of these railways for the last five years are exhibited :—

60. The following statement shows the total amount paid on account of guaranteed interest to each of the Guaranteed Railway Companies still in existence on 31st March 1896, the net Revenue of the several lines to the 31st of December 1895, appropriated towards the repayment of that amount, and the balance. For the purposes of this statement, the net revenue and the guaranteed interest paid in India are converted at the contract rates of exchange. The amounts shown as guaranteed interest paid in England represent true sterling :—

SECTION C.

SUBSIDIZED COMPANIES.

(Major Heads XXVIII and 40.)

61. The transactions in connection with subsidized railways which appear in the Government accounts under the heading Subsidized Companies, represent—

Under Revenue, Head XXVIII.—Repayments of advances of interest.

Under Expenditure, Head 40.—Cost of land supplied free, subsidies paid, and advances of interest.

(i) Repayments of Advances of Interest.

62. The amounts credited as Revenue under this head comprise repayments of advances of interest by the Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway Company and by the Mysore Durbar on account of the Mysore Railway.

63. In the case of the Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway, the State advanced interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum on the Company's share capital while the line was under construction. In consideration of this payment the State is entitled, under the terms of the contract, to a moiety of any surplus earnings, after meeting working expenses, interest on borrowed capital, if any, and a sum sufficient to pay a dividend at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum on the Company's share capital, until such time as the interest advanced by the Secretary of State, together with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, shall have been repaid. The following is a summary of the advances and repayments of interest :—

YEAR.	Advances.	REPAYMENTS.

1891-92		1,427	...
TOTAL	13,085	2,493	151

64. The payment by the Mysore Durbar on account of the Mysore State Railway represents the net charge for interest paid by Government to the Southern Mahratta Railway Company in connection with the Mysore Railway. The Secretary of State, acting on behalf of the Mysore State, has guaranteed the interest on the capital raised by the Southern Mahratta Railway Company for the construction of the Mysore Railway, and the Durbar makes good the excess of interest over net revenue, and will receive any excess of net revenue over interest charges. The receipts and working expenses and interest charges of the Mysore Railway are recorded in the Government accounts under their respective Railway heads, and the recovery from the Mysore Durbar of the net amount of interest only (i.e., interest on capital expended minus net receipts) is credited under this head.

* Interest (£295) realised from investment of funds deposited by the Company for a fixed period taken in reduction of advances of interest.

65. The amount recovered from the Mysore Durbar during 1895-96 was Rs. 25,252, arrived at as under:—

	Rx.
Interest on capital	84,469
Less—Charge borne by Government for interest on the unex- pended balance of the capital retained in their hands	7,881
Remainder .	76,588
Net receipts	51,386

„ „ 1890-91	30,505

(ii) Land, Subsidies, and Advances of Interest.

66. The charges for land, subsidies and advances of interest are borne partly by Imperial and partly by Provincial Revenues. The items falling on the Imperial Government are charges for land provided free of cost under the terms of the contracts, in connection with the South Behar, Bengal and North-Western, Delhi-Umballa-Kalka, Nilgiri and Ahmedabad-Parantij Railways. The Nilgiri Railway was also entitled, under the terms of its contract, to interest at 3 per cent. on its capital deposited in a Government treasury for three years, or until the line was opened throughout for traffic, if earlier. The three years expired on the 30th September 1893.

67. The charges debited to Imperial Funds during 1895-96 on account of subsidized railways were—

	Rx.
South Behar Railway (Land charges)	82
Bengal and North-Western Railway („)	6,589
Delhi-Umballa-Kalka Railway („)	613
Nilgiri Railway („)	850
Ahmedabad-Parantij Railway („)	—
TOTAL .	8,134

68. The charges borne by the Provincial Governments in connection with subsidized railways are—

Assam.—An annual subsidy, payable to the Assam Railways and Trading Company, Limited, on account of the Dibru-Sadiya Railway, of such amount—subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,00,000—as, together with the net earnings of the Railway, shall be sufficient to yield a return of 5 per cent. per annum on Capital outlay; and a share of the pay and allowances of the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Assam.

Bengal.—Charges for land which, under the terms of the contracts, has to be provided free of cost to the Tarkessur, Dooars, and Deoghur Railways.

69. The amounts, debited against Provincial Revenues during 1895-96 were—

	Rx.
Dibru-Sadiya Railway (Subsidy and audit)	10,061
Dooars Railway (Land)	56
TOTAL	10,117

70. The total charges in connection with each line to the close of 1895-96 will be found in the statement attached to this note as Schedule D.

Comparison with Actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates.

71. The actual receipts during the year under head XXVIII compare with the actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates as under :—

	Actuals, 1895-96.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.		Actuals, 1894-95.
		Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.	Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.

TOTAL .	25,252	29,200	—3,948	39,900	—14,648	41,694

No provision was made in the estimates on account of the Government share of surplus earnings of the Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway for the year 1894 owing to there being unsettled questions as to the amount of that share.

The difference between actuals and the Revised and Budget Estimates of the repayment by the Mysore Durbar was due to the net revenue of the railway having been more than estimated for.

72. The actual expenditure during the year under head 40 compares with the actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates as under :—

	Actuals, 1895-96.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.		Actuals, 1894-95.
		Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.	Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.

TOTAL	18,251	25,500	—7,249	30,100	—11,849	16,694

73. The lapse under Imperial as compared with the Budget Estimate was due to short payments on the Bengal and North-Western Railway of compensation charges in the districts of Gonda, Bahraich and Barabanki for land acquired for the Gogra Bridge and approaches and for the Gonda-Bulrampur and Tulsipur Branch, and to smaller outlay on land for the Nilgiri Railway owing to the liquidation of the Company. The expenditure relating to the Delhi-Umballa-Kalka Railway exceeded the Budget Estimate owing to a greater portion of the work, which was expected to be finished in the previous year when the original estimate was framed, having to be taken up and completed during the year under review. The lapse as compared with the Revised Estimate occurred principally on the Bengal and North Western and Ahmedabad-Parantij Railways. The lapse on the Bengal and North-Western Railway was due to the cause mentioned above; that on the Ahmedabad-Parantij Railway was due to payments for land not having been made during the year.

SECTION D.

41.—MISCELLANEOUS RAILWAY EXPENDITURE.

74. The following expenditure is recorded under this head :—

- (a) Outlay on surveys.
- (b) Surplus Establishment and Miscellaneous charges.
- (c) Director General of Railways' Establishment (share of).
- (d) Port Storekeeper's Establishment.
- (e) Abt material and engine suspense account.
- (f) Land charges in connection with Native States Railways.
- (g) Watch and ward charges in connection with the Frontier Railway Reserve material.

75. At the commencement of the year 1895-96 the following surveys were in hand :—

Imperial.

Chambal-Muttra.
 Shadipalli-Balotra.
 Saugor-Katni.
 Assam-Burma Railway Connection.
 Chittagong-Akyab-Minhla.
 Mogaung-Myitkyina.
 Khaguria-Katihar.
 Northern Bengal-Assam Connection.
 Tochi Pass.
 Kalka-Simla.
 Bhatinda-Samasata.
 Madura-Paumben.
 Arsikere-Mangalore.
 Shoranur-Cochin.
 Cannanore-Calicut.
 Vizianagram-Parvatipur.

76. The expenditure incurred by Government in surveying the Nagda-Ujjain section of the Rutlam-Ujjain Railway has been recovered from the Gwalior Durbar, as the construction of this section is being carried out from funds provided by that Durbar. The expenditure incurred by Government in surveying the Saugor-Katni extension to end of 1894-95 was refunded by the Indian Midland Railway Company in terms of clause 6 of the Contract with that Company.

77. During the course of the year the undermentioned surveys were undertaken by the Imperial Government :—

Sambalpur-Khurda Survey.—A further investigation of the proposed site for a bridge over the Mahanadi near Sambalpur in connection with the Sambalpur-Cuttack Project, at an estimated cost of Rs. 1,416.

Assam-Bengal-Lakhimpur Survey.—A reconnaissance survey from Tipumia to Tinsukia (23 miles), and from Tipumia via Jaipur to Margherita (30 miles) with the object of ascertaining which route was the more favourable and suitable for connecting the Dibru-Sadiya Railway with the Assam-Bengal Railway, at an estimated cost of Rs. 4,200.

Ghaziabad-Moradabad Railway.—A preliminary survey of this line was made in 1893-94, including a branch line from Gajrala, a station on the east bank of the Ganges river, to Chandausi station on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway. During 1895-96 orders were issued for a detailed survey of the main line from Ghaziabad to Moradabad, a distance of 83 miles, with a branch line to Meerut. The detailed survey is estimated to cost Rs. 58,184.

Bogra-Kaligunge Survey.—A survey for an alternative branch line to the Eastern Bengal State Railway from Sultanpur via Bogra to Kaligunge, 60 miles, at an estimated cost of Rs. 8,400.

Cooch Behar-Santrabari Survey.—A survey of the extension of the Cooch Behar Railway from Cooch Behar to Santrabari, a distance of 36 miles, at an estimated cost of Rs. 4,378. The expenditure on this survey is, for the present, being met from funds supplied by Government.

Eastern Bengal State Railway Extensions and Branches.—Surveys for the following lines in connection with the Eastern Bengal State Railway at an estimated cost of Rs. 20,420.

Standard Gauge.

	Miles.
From Rajbari to Faridpur	20

Metre Gauge.

From Lalmanirhat to Teesta (near Jalpaiguri)	68
From Saidpur to Titalya	68

Hoshiarpur-Jullundur-Kapurthala.—A detailed survey for a feeder line from Hoshiarpur via Jullundur to Kapurthala, a distance of 38 miles, at an estimated cost of Rs. 7,000.

78. Surveys were not undertaken by Local Governments during the year under review, but the Local Administration of Burma sanctioned a sum of Rs. 500 to meet the cost of completing and tracing the plans of the project for a line from Henzada to Bassein. The actual expenditure incurred amounted to Rs. 256. The survey for this line was carried out in 1885.

79. The expenditure incurred during the year 1895-96 amounted to Rs. 71,649 as under:—

	Rx.
Imperial	71,623
Provincial	26
	71,649

The Imperial outlay includes the following:—

	Rx.
Outlay on surveys	49,517
Surplus Establishment and Miscellaneous charges	2,063
Director General of Railways' Establishment (share of)	16,577
Port Storekeeper's Establishment	2,438
Land charges in connection with Native States Railways	207
Watch and ward charges in connection with the Frontier Railway Reserve material	725
Abt material and engine suspense account	96
TOTAL	71,623

80. The details of outlay on surveys will be found in the statement attached to this review as Schedule E.

81. The items debited during 1895-96 under "Surplus Establishment and Miscellaneous charges" were:—

	Rx.
Leave allowances (other than privilege leave) of pensionable employés of the Rajputana-Malwa Railway	859
Leave allowances of the following:—
B. A. Maine, Sub-Engineer	33
Sheik Mohamed Abdulla, Accountant	90

Expenditure incurred for assembling a Committee at Lahore for testing the signalling arrangements on the Eastern Bengal, North-Western, and Oudh and Rohilkhand Railways	49
Petty items	5
TOTAL	2,063

82. The amount debited to this head on account of the establishment of the Director General of Railways represents half the fixed monthly charge of Rs. 21,000 debited by the Civil Department, under the authority of Public Works Department Resolution No. 6125, dated 9th November 1888, and half the actual salary and travelling allowances of the Consulting Engineer to the Government of India for State Railways. The other moiety of these charges is debited to the Major head "39.—Guaranteed Companies—Land and Supervision."

83. The amount shown under Port Storekeeper's Establishment represents—

	Rx.
(1) The cost of the Port Storekeeper's Office at Calcutta	2,234
(2) Establishment entertained by the Marine Storekeeper, Bombay, in connection with the local purchase of stores for State Railways	204
TOTAL	2,438

Comparison with Actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates.

84. The actual outlay during the year under "41.—Miscellaneous Railway Expenditure" compares with the actuals of 1894-95 and with the Budget and Revised Estimates as under :—

HEAD OF ACCOUNT.	Actuals, 1895-96.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.		Actuals, 1894-95.

85. The lapse under Imperial as compared with the Budget Estimate was due to the refunds referred to in para. 76 above of the expenditure incurred in surveying the Nagda-Ujjain Section of the Rutlam-Ujjain Railway and the Saugor-Katni extension, and to the amount set aside to meet expenditure on surveys likely to be undertaken during the course of the year not having been fully utilised.

SECTION E.

STATE RAILWAYS—CONSTRUCTION EXPENDITURE.

Major heads 34, 37, 48 and 50.

86. At the beginning of the year under review the following railways or sections were under construction from funds provided by the State:—

By State Agency—	Miles.
East Coast Railway, Palasa to Naraj near Cuttack and the Puri branch	192½
Wazirabad-Lyallpur	95½
Kotri-Rohri (chord line)	182½

92. The Revised Estimate was submitted for Rx. 4,166,700, or for Rx. 468,500 less than the amount of the grant available. This lapse occurred as under :—

	Rx.
On lines classed as 37—Construction of Railways	1,400
On the Assam-Bengal Railway under 48—State Railways—Construction	467,100
	468,500

The lapse on the Assam-Bengal Railway was surrendered in accordance with paragraph 3 of Public Works Department Resolution No. 303 A.—R., dated 26th June 1895, as it was not available for any other purpose. It was anticipated that the Secretary of State would not expend the whole of the moneys placed at his disposal for stores to be purchased in England, but it was expected that, by the more vigorous prosecution of work in India, the Revised Estimate would, with the exception of a small amount of Rx. 36,600 which remained unallotted, be worked up to. The results show a lapse of Rx. 241,945 which occurred principally on the East Indian and Assam-Bengal Railways, and the circumstances which led to the lapses on these Railways are explained further on.

93. The amount of the Revised Estimate, viz., Rx. 4,166,700, was provided as follows :—

	Rx.
34.—Construction of Protective Railways	534,500
37.—Construction of Railways (charged against Revenue in addition to that under Famine Insurance)	9,700
48.—State Railways—Construction	3,622,200
TOTAL	4,166,700

and was distributed for expenditure as under :—

	Rx.
For outlay in England	704,500
„ „ India	2,931,000
For Exchange	531,200
TOTAL	4,166,700

94. The actual outlay amounted to Rx. 3,924,755 as under :—

	Rx.
In England	679,562
„ India	2,728,382
Exchange	516,811
TOTAL	3,924,755

resulting in an excess of Rx. 215,355 on the Budget Estimate and a lapse of Rx. 241,945 on the Revised Estimate of the year. Compared with the Revised Estimate, the actuals in India and in England are as follows :—

	Revised Estimate.	Actuals.	ACTUALS.
			More.	Less.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
England	704,500	679,562	...	24,938
India	2,931,000	2,728,382	...	202,618
Exchange	531,200	516,811	...	14,389
TOTAL	4,166,700	3,924,755	..	241,945

95. The distribution of the outlay of the year by finance heads is as under :—

	Rx.
34.—Construction of Protective Railways	529,367
37.—Construction of Railways (charged against Revenue in addition to that under Famine Insurance)	7,661
48.—State Railways—Construction	3,387,227
TOTAL	3,924,755

96. No expenditure was incurred during the year in connection with the redemption of liabilities.

Comparison with the Budget and Revised Estimates.

97. In the statement attached to this review as Schedule F will be found full details of the expenditure of the year compared with the Budget and Revised Estimates, and showing the details of classification by Fund heads. The following is a general abstract :—

BUDGET ESTIMATE.

98. The more important variations from the Budget Estimate are explained below :—

State Agency.

Open lines.—The actuals fell short of the Budget Estimate by Rx. 19,060, the principal variations being as follows :—

A lapse of Rx. 26,561 on the Warora Colliery, due chiefly to the abandonment of work in connection with the proposed new Pits Nos. 7 and 8 and to the provision made for the purchase of machines in England for these pits, not having been utilised.

A lapse of Rx. 41,924 on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway, due chiefly to certain works, provision for which was made in the estimate, having been deferred or abandoned; to savings on the provision for some other works; to credit for value of an engine transferred to the North Western Railway and to sales of surplus plant and stores. The savings referred to above were to some extent utilised on the Najibabad-Kotdwara branch, the construction of which was sanctioned during the year.

An excess of Rx. 22,528 on the Eastern Bengal State Railway, due chiefly to provision not having been made in the Budget Estimate for doubling the line from Ranaghat to Poradaha and for the purchase of sleepers.

An excess of Rx. 23,686 on the North-Western Railway, due to larger expenditure having been incurred on doubling the line between Kurrachee and Kotri; to the transfer of an engine from the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway; to the adjustment with the Mushkaf-Bolan Railway of the cost of works on the Kolepur-Quetta section and with the Forest Department of the cost of fuel supplied in excess of contract quantity.

Lines under construction.—The actuals exceeded the Budget Estimate by Rx. 355,494. The excess was partly due to funds not having been provided in the Budget Estimate for the Mandalay-Kunlon, Rai Bareli-Benares and Bez-wada-Madras Railways, the construction of which was commenced during the course of the year when the necessary allotments of funds were made. There were also excesses on the provisions for most of the other lines, the causes being detailed below. These excesses were to a considerable extent counter-balanced by a large lapse under Stores transactions, but for which the total excess would have been much greater.

The excess on the Gradient Improvement Works, North Western Railway, was due to more work having been done than was provided for in the Budget Estimate on earthwork, Bakrala and Sehala projects, and on bridges over the rivers Ling, Kurring and Sohan.

The excesses on the Kotri-Rohri and Mari-Attock Railways were due to greater progress having been made in construction than was contemplated in the Budget Estimate.

The excess on the Wazirabad-Lyallpur Railway was due chiefly to the erection of rolling stock, provision for which was not made in the Budget Estimate.

The excess on the East Coast Railway was attributed to the provision made in Budget orders having been found inadequate to cover the heavy expenditure, which was incurred under Formation, Ballast, Bridgework and Ferries.

The lapse on the Mu Valley State Railway was due to less work having been carried out on bridges than was provided for; to the transfer of the cost of plant for the Ywatoung workshop to the Burma State Railway, and to fluctuations in suspense accounts.

The lapse on the Mushkaf-Bolan Railway was due to the provision made in the Budget Estimate for English stores for doubling the line not having been utilised, as stores for a single line only were eventually obtained, and to larger sales of materials to other lines than were contemplated when the Budget Estimate was framed.

The lapse on the Cawnpore-Gogra Railway was due to the Budget Estimate having been based on the original project estimate which was subsequently very considerably modified and reduced. Considerable savings were also effected on several items in the final estimate, more particularly under permanent way, the actual rates for both new and second-hand material being below estimated rates.

Companies' Agency.

Open lines.—The actuals fell short of the Budget Estimate by Rx. 125,230. The principal variations on individual lines are as under :—

On the East Indian Railway the funds for Capital expenditure during 1895-96 were provided from two sources, viz., from a grant under head 48 and from the equivalent of £150,000 debentures which were raised by the Company during the course of the year. In the Budget Estimate an allotment of Rx. 310,000 was made under head 48, and when the debentures were raised a further grant of Rx. 245,000 was provided under the head Capital of Indian Railway Companies, thus raising the total grant for expenditure to Rx. 555,000. The expenditure during the year amounted to Rx. 521,114, and, in accordance with orders received subsequently from the Secretary of State, Rx. 271,698, representing in Indian currency the equivalent of the whole of the £150,000 debentures raised, has been deducted from the total expenditure incurred, and the balance, Rx. 249,416, charged to 48.—State Railways—Construction. The lapse of Rx. 60,584, as compared with the provision of Rx. 310,000 made in the Budget Estimate, was the result of this procedure.

The lapse on the Palanpur-Deesa Railway was attributed to several works provided for in the Budget Estimate not having been undertaken.

The lapse on the Wardha Coal State Railway was due to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company not having been able to utilise the full provision made in the Budget Estimate for bridgework.

The lapse on the Tirhoot Railway was due to short outlay under bridgework in connection with the changing of girders over the Boor Gunduck, Kosi and Bagmatti rivers and of other bridges on the Eastern Branch, and to larger issues of stores to Revenue than were provided for in the Budget Estimate.

The lapse on the South Indian Railway was due to the postponement of several large works, provision for which was made in the Budget Estimate, and to smaller outlay on English stores.

The lapse on the Dhond and Manmad Railway occurred chiefly under bridgework, fencing and stations and buildings. The short outlay under bridgework is due to a saving in the estimated cost of girders required for the replacement of 7 spans of warren girders and to the late arrival of these girders from England, in consequence of which the work could not be completed before the end of the year. The saving under Fencing was due to the cost of the English material for fencing 25½ miles not having been charged to the work and to the Company's workshops not having been able, through pressure of work, to complete the level crossing and wicket gates before the close of the year. The short outlay under Stations and buildings was due partly to a saving in the estimated cost of the signals received from England and partly to most of the available labour having, through urgency, to be employed on bridgework.

The excess on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway was due to increase in the suspense balances, owing chiefly to the cost of works at Ujjain having remained unadjusted in the miscellaneous advance account, to increased purchases of coal and to smaller issues of stores to Revenue.

Lines under construction.—The actuals fell short of the Budget Estimate by Rx. 195,849. The more important variations are as under :—

The lapse on the Rutlam-Ujjain Railway was due principally to the Gwalior Durbar supplying the funds for the construction of the Nagda-Ujjain section. The lapse is also attributed partly to economical construction.

The lapse on the Godhra-Rutlam Railway is explained to be due to the fact that when the Budget Estimate was framed, it was expected that the stores suspense accounts of this line would be closed in 1894-95. Owing, however, to delays the clearance credit fell in the year under review.

The large lapse on the provision made for land for the Assam-Bengal Railway was due to the Land Acquisition officers having greatly over-estimated their actual requirements and to a write-back to Part II—Construction—of the value of buildings and land taken up for manufacturing operations charged in previous years to Part I—Land.

In the Budget Estimate a sum of Rx. 305,000 was provided from Government funds for the Assam-Bengal Railway in accordance with clause 43 of the contract to meet the probable expenditure on construction during the year in excess of paid up capital. The amount actually charged against Imperial funds is Rx. 320,437, and the deviations from the amounts provided in the estimate both from Company's Capital and Imperial funds are reviewed in section G—Capital of Indian Railway Companies.

The excess on the Ennore section of the Bezwada-Madras Railway was due to larger expenditure having been incurred than was anticipated at the time the Budget Estimate was framed in consequence of the expenditure during the preceding year having fallen short of anticipations.

REVISED ESTIMATE.

99. Compared with the Revised Estimate, the principal variations and the reasons assigned for them are briefly as follows:—

State Agency.

Open lines.—The actuals approximate closely to the Revised Estimate, the result being a small excess of Rx. 3,540. The more important variations on individual lines are as under:—

An excess of Rx. 14,986 on the North Western Railway which is attributed to the adjustment with the Mushkaf-Bolan Railway of the cost of works on the Kolepur-Quetta section and with the Forest Department for fuel supplied in excess of contract quantity and to smaller issues of stores to Revenue.

A lapse of Rx. 13,524 on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway, due chiefly to short outlay on the Najibabad-Kotdwara branch and to sales and transfers of surplus plant which were arranged for towards the close of the year.

Lines under construction.—The actuals are less than the Revised Estimate by Rx. 60,006.

The principal lapses were:—

On the Mu Valley State Railway, due to the cost of the plant for the Insein workshops, provision for which was made in the Revised Estimate of the Mu Valley State Railway, having been charged to the Burma State Railway in accordance with the orders of the Government of India, and to the transfer of stores to the Mandalay-Kunlon Railway, for which allowance was not made in the estimate.

On the Kotri-Rohri Railway, due chiefly to an over-estimate of Indian charges on English stores and to short receipts of English stores.

On the Wazirabad-Lyallpur Railway, due to the write-back to the North Western Railway of certain freight charges on permanent-way material. These charges were debited to the Wazirabad-Lyallpur Railway in the previous year.

On the Mushkaf-Bolan Railway, due to short outlay on works owing principally to non-completion of stations and buildings and non-receipt of points and crossings from England and to larger sales of stores than were anticipated.

On the Cawnpore-Gogra Railway, due to smaller payments for land than were anticipated; to provision made for an overbridge at Cawnpore not having been utilised owing to delay in the settlement of the design, and to certain works at Cawnpore, for which provision was made in the estimate, not having been carried out under orders received from the Director General of Railways.

Under Stores transactions, due chiefly to smaller expenditure on stores in England than was anticipated.

The principal excesses were:—

On the Mandalay-Kunlon Railway, due to provision for stores taken over from the Burma and Mu Valley Railways, not having been made in the Revised Estimate, as it was anticipated that their value would not be debited in transfer during the year under review.

On the Mari-Attock Railway, due chiefly to the transfer of stores from the Gradient Improvement works, North Western Railway, and of new sleepers from the North Western Railway, and to debits by that Railway for freight on stores and hire of engines. Provision for these charges was not made in the Revised Estimate.

On the East Coast Railway, due chiefly to an unexpected debit from the Civil Department for land and to heavy construction train bills.

Companies' Agency.

Open lines.—The actuals fell short of the Revised Estimate by Rx. 89,830. The lapse has occurred chiefly on the East Indian Railway, the cause being that explained in para. 98 above. There were also lapses on the following lines:—

On the Tirhoot Railway, due chiefly to larger issues of stores to Revenue than were provided for in the Revised Estimate.

On the South Indian Railway, due to allowance not having been made in the Revised Estimate for the transfer to Revenue during the year of certain charges in connection with the reconstruction of 25 third class carriages. It was originally intended to collect all the charges on this account in the Capital Account and to make the necessary transfer to Revenue in the accounts for the ensuing year, but this was subsequently considered incorrect. The lapse was further due to contractors' bills for buildings at Pakala having been received too late for payment before the close of the year and to larger sales of stores than were provided for.

On the Dhond and Manmad State Railway due to the causes mentioned in para. 98 above.

Lines under construction.—The actuals fell short of the Revised Estimates by Rx. 59,049. Lapses occurred principally on the Assam-Bengal Railway. The lapse on the provision made for land for the Assam-Bengal Railway was due to the expenditure by Land Acquisition officers not having been as heavy as was anticipated. The lapse under Part II—Construction is explained in Section G,—Capital of Indian Railway Companies.

The excess on the Rutlam-Nagda Railway occurred under Suspense and was due to the issues of stores to the Nagda-Ujjain section, which is being constructed from funds supplied by the Gwalior Durbar, having been over-estimated.

100. Total Capital Outlay.—The total outlay incurred on State Railways up to the end of the year has amounted to Rx. 122,701,781 as under:—

	Rx.
Indian outlay	67,313,030
Debits to the Indian books by credits to "Expenditure in England" for value of English stores received and other items charged off in England	55,388,751
TOTAL	122,701,781

the distribution by finance heads being as follows:—

	Rx.
34.—Construction of Protective Railways	6,550,931
37.—Construction of Railways (charged against Revenue in addition to that under Famine Insurance)	6,505,704
48.—Capital expenditure on State Railways not charged against Revenue	76,091,695
50.—Capital charges involved in redemption of liabilities	33,553,451
TOTAL	122,701,781

101. Full details of the above will be found in the statement attached to this review as Schedule G.

SECTION F.

CAPITAL ACCOUNT OF GUARANTEED COMPANIES.

102. Each of the Guaranteed Railway Companies has a sterling Capital. Under the respective contracts entered upon many years ago, funds required to meet expenditure in India are advanced at the fixed rate of exchange of 1s. 10d. the rupee, and advances in England when converted into Indian currency are converted at the same rate of 1s. 10d. the rupee. The figures relating to Capital expenditure in this section, where stated in sterling, represent as regards withdrawals by the Companies in England true sterling, and as regards withdrawals in India the equivalent in rupees at the rate of 1s. 10d.; where stated in Rx., sterling has been converted into rupees at the same rate.

103. The following table shows the amount of Capital raised to the 31st March 1896:—

	SHARE CAPITAL.		DEBENTURES.		DEBENTURE STOCK.		CAPITAL NOT BEARING INTEREST.		TOTAL.
	India.	England.	Nominal amount.	Cash received.	Stock represented.	Cash received.	India.	England.

104. Interest on the Share Capital, Debentures, and Debenture Stock is guaranteed by the Secretary of State, the rates of interest being as under:—

	Great Indian Peninsula.	Bombay, Baroda and Central India.	Madras.	Total.
Share Capital at 5 per cent. .	20,000,000	7,550,300	8,757,670	36,307,970

TOTAL .	25,672,350	9,088,800	11,057,630	45,818,780

105. The average rate of interest payable in gold on the Capital of these Guaranteed Companies is a little over 4·71 per cent. Under the contracts, the State must continue to pay interest on the Share Capital at the rates guaranteed until the contracts terminate, and it is consequently unable to obtain any advantage from the increasingly easy condition of the money market. The State can now raise money at about $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., but it has to continue to pay 5 per cent. on the bulk of the Share Capital which, with the low exchange at the average rate for 1895-96, is equivalent to a payment of interest at a rate of about 8.29 per cent. on the sterling Capital converted at par.

106. The following table shows the amounts withdrawn by the several Companies on Capital account up to the 31st March 1896, and the balances of Capital at their credit or overdrawals at their debit on that date:—

or, as stated in the Indian accounts, sterling being converted into rupees at the contract rates of exchange, the figures stand as under:—

108. The large refunds in India represent chiefly the value of stores issued to Revenue for working and maintenance which, in the first instance, are paid for from Capital funds.

Comparison with Budget and Revised Estimates.

109. The following table compares the actual net withdrawals during the year, with the actuals of 1894-95, and with the Budget and Revised Estimates of 1895-96:—

110. The actuals of the year under review compare closely in totals with those of 1894-95, but taking the figures of the three lines separately there are large differences. The decrease on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway was due principally to smaller purchases of rolling stock, Pintsch's gas fitting apparatus, bridge, and station materials, coal and coke and sleepers. The increase on the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway is attributed to large purchases of permanent-way materials, wooden sleepers, bridge materials and locomotive and wagon iron work. The decrease as compared with the Budget Estimate in the case of all three lines was due partly to smaller outlay on stores in England, and partly to short outlay on works and to larger receipts in India from issues of stores to Revenue and from sales to outsiders. The difference between the Revised Estimate and the actuals was comparatively small.

SECTION G.

CAPITAL OF INDIAN RAILWAY COMPANIES.

(Exclusive of the old Guaranteed Companies.)

111. The accounts reviewed in this section represent the capital transactions of the following Railway Companies :—

Bengal Central.
 Bengal-Nagpur.
 Indian Midland.
 Southern Mahratta.
 Mysore.
 Rohilkhand-Kumaon (Lucknow-Bareilly undertaking).
 Assam-Bengal.
 Ahmedabad-Parantij.
 South Behar.

112. The capital of these Companies (excepting the Ahmedabad-Parantij and South Behar Railway Companies) consists partly of share capital and debentures raised by the Companies direct on guarantees by the Secretary of State, and partly of advances made by the Secretary of State from funds raised by him under the provisions of Act 51 Vict., Cap. 5. The sums thus raised and advanced to the Companies are considered as part of the Companies' capital. Interest on such advances is charged against the Railway Revenue Account and has to be met before surplus profits can be declared.

113. The financial terms of the contracts, the rates of interest guaranteed and the rates of exchange at which the capital is converted into Indian currency vary in each case. These points are briefly stated below.

114. Bengal Central Railway.—This line is the property of the Bengal Central Railway Company and is merely, as a matter of convenience, classed among State Railways. This Railway was originally constructed under a limited guarantee of interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum while the line was under construction, such interest, together with interest thereon, being repayable out of surplus profits. But a revised contract was entered into, with effect from the 1st July 1885, under which the Company receives a guarantee of $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on share capital and a quarter of net earnings paid half-yearly, the claim to the repayment of interest advanced under the original contract being at the same time waived. The capital of the Company on the 1st July 1885 amounted to £750,000. The whole of this amount was practically spent by the Company before Government took over the line, and its equivalent in Indian currency is held to be Rs. 90,82,343, the expenditure in rupees as exhibited by the Company's books. The balance of the Company's capital (including advances), viz., £250,000 when stated in Indian currency, is converted at the rate of 1s. 5.262d. the rupee.

115. Bengal-Nagpur Railway.—This Company receives a guarantee at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum on share capital, and is entitled to a quarter share of surplus profits,—i.e., of the excess of net earnings over interest—calculated annually. The rate of exchange for the conversion of sterling capital into Indian currency as regards the main line has hitherto been £1 = Rs. 13, but it has now been arranged that all further sterling capital raised for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway both for the main line and the extensions, including the sum of £500,000 raised by debentures in 1896, should be converted at the average rate obtained for bills during the half-year preceding that in which the capital is received.

116. Indian Midland Railway.—This Company also receives a guarantee of 4 per cent. per annum on its share capital, and is entitled to a quarter share of surplus profits calculated annually. The rate of exchange for the conversion of sterling capital into Indian currency as regards the main line is £1=Rs. 12½ and as regards the Saugor-Katni extension which is being constructed by the Company £1=Rs. 16½.

117. Southern Mahratta Railway.—This Company now receives a guarantee of 3½ per cent. (4 per cent. up to 31st December 1890) and a quarter of net earnings. The rates of exchange for the conversion of sterling capital into rupees are, as regards the capital (£530,957), specially raised for the completion of the Bellary-Kistna Railway, which was taken over by the Company, £1=Rs. 14, and for the remainder of the capital, £1=Rs. 12. The Company also gets the advantage of outlay by the State on the construction of the Bellary-Kistna Railway to the extent of Rx. 1,657,841 without any charge for interest.

118. Mysore Railway.—This line was completed and is worked by the Southern Mahratta Railway Company. That Company raised sufficient funds by the issue of debenture stock to repay to the Mysore Durbar the outlay previously incurred by that State and to complete the extension to link in with the Southern Mahratta system. Acting on behalf of the Mysore Durbar, the Secretary of State has guaranteed interest at 4 per cent. on the nominal amount of the debenture stock issued. The Southern Mahratta Railway Company also receives a quarter of net earnings. The rate of exchange for conversion of the sterling capital into Indian currency is 1s. 5·931d. the rupee.

119. Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway (Lucknow-Bareilly Section).—The Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway Company took over, with effect from the 1st January 1891, the Bareilly-Pilibhit and the Lucknow-Sitapur State Railways, undertaking to complete the link between these lines and to work the whole with their own line of Railway. The Company agreed to raise capital to the extent of £160,000 by the issue of debentures, with the power to discharge any portion of this obligation by the payment of rupees in India, the amount so paid being deemed the equivalent of sterling money at the average rate of exchange during the half-year immediately preceding the date of such payment. The Company subsequently issued sterling debentures for £147,000, which sold for Rs. 20,34,195. This sum was paid into the Calcutta treasury, and, at the rate fixed by the contract, is deemed to be equivalent to a sterling payment of £160,837. The debentures were issued under a guarantee of the Secretary of State at the rate of 3½ per cent. per annum. The previous outlay incurred by the State has not been refunded to Government, and it has been further agreed that any additional capital required shall be provided by the Secretary of State. Any surplus profits after paying the debenture interest and interest at 4 per cent. on the outlay by the State are to be divided between Government and the Company in the ratio of their respective shares of capital.

120. Assam-Bengal Railway.—This Company took over, in November 1892, the construction work in progress on the Gauhati-Lumding Section of the Railway which had been commenced by the State. The capital authorised to be raised by the Company is £1,500,000, and the rate of interest guaranteed is 3½ per cent. per annum up to the 1st July 1898, and after that date 3 per cent. The rate for the conversion of sterling capital into Indian currency is the average rate of exchange obtained by the Secretary of State for bills payable on demand drawn on India during the calendar half-year next preceding the time at which the conversion is required to be made under the terms of the contract.

121. Ahmedabad-Parantij and South Behar Railways.—The capital of these Companies is not guaranteed by the Secretary of State. These lines are being constructed by the Bombay, Baroda and Central India and East Indian Railway Companies, respectively, from funds paid into Indian Treasuries, and the element of exchange does not, therefore, enter into the accounts of these Railways. The Ahmedabad-Parantij Railway Company has an Indian domicile and a rupee capital. The South Behar Railway Company has an English domicile and a sterling capital. The transactions of the South Behar Railway that pass through the Government accounts are confined to the withdrawals against the amounts deposited in the Treasury for expenditure in India.

122. The following table shows the amount of capital raised to the 31st March 1896 :—

125. No advances were made from moneys raised under Act 51 Vict., Cap. 5, to any of these Companies during the year under review.

126. The following table shows the amounts of capital withdrawn by the several Companies up to the 31st March 1896, and the balances of capital at their credit, or the amounts of overdrafts, on that date. In this table the amounts shown as withdrawn in England represent true sterling, the amounts shown as withdrawn in India represent rupees converted at contract rates, and also take into account the differences between remittances from England converted at contract rates and the average rates of exchange at which they are incorporated in the Indian books.

127 The overdraft shown against the Bengal-Nagpur Railway is due to the inclusion in the Capital account of the sum of Rx. 485,383* expended by the State on the Katni-Umaria State Railway, which was subsequently taken over by the Company (vide para. 36 above), and to outlay in India on the extensions being met from rupee advances. A sum of Rx. 1,657,841 expended by Government on the Bellary-Kistna State Railway, now incorporated in the Southern Mahratta Railway system, has not been included in the foregoing tables of expenditure. Similarly, a sum of Rx. 512,114 expended by Govern-

Compared with actuals of previous year.

129. The increase of Rx. 395,376 in the expenditure during 1895-96 as compared with the outlay during 1894-95 was due chiefly to construction having been commenced on the extensions of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway and on the Ahmedabad-Parantij and South Behar Railways during the year under review and to a larger amount of the expenditure on the Assam-Bengal Railway having been met from capital raised by the Company.

The principal variations for individual lines between the outlay of the year and that of the previous year are explained as under:—

The increase on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway was due chiefly to construction having been started during the year on the Sini-Midnapur-Cuttack-Calcutta Extensions. There were also large increases under Ballast and Permanent-way and Rolling Stock on the main line, which are attributed to work in connection with the addition of two sāl sleepers to each rail throughout the line having been in progress during the year and to expenditure on six mail engines obtained from England. The transactions in connection with stores resulted, however, in a large decrease as compared with the transactions of the previous year due for the most part to the issue of stores to the Extensions.

The increase on the Mysore State Railway was due chiefly to the construction of a permanent station at Yeswantpur and of staff quarters at Bangalore and Davengere; and to additions to the Station Yard at Bangalore.

The increase on the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway occurred chiefly under Suspense and was due to a large balance, representing the value of sleepers manufactured for other Railways and the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway, having remained unadjusted at the end of the year in the Manufacture account.

The outlay on the main line of the Indian Midland Railway was Rx. 48,485 less than the outlay during the previous year, due to the completion of the workshops with the necessary plant and to decreased expenditure as the line becomes properly equipped with rolling stock. The construction of the Saugor-Katni extension was, however, commenced during the year, and including the expenditure incurred on the extension, together with the cost of the surveys undertaken prior to the date the work was taken over by the Company, the decrease amounts to Rx. 17,789.

The decrease on the Southern Mahratta Railway was due chiefly to the stores balances having been increased in the previous year by purchase of a large quantity of coal for consumption during the year under review.

The figures of expenditure on the Assam-Bengal Railway in the table in para. 128 show an increase over 1894-95, but comparing the total outlay on the Railway both from Company's capital and loan funds with the total expenditure in the previous year, the result is a decrease of Rx. 228,670, which is explained to be due to smaller expenditure having been incurred on the portions of the line opened for traffic.

Compared with Budget Estimate.

130. As compared with the Budget Estimate there was an excess of Rx. 171,413, due mainly to funds not having been provided in the Budget Estimate for the extensions of the Bengal-Nagpur and Indian Midland Railways and for the Ahmedabad-Parantij and South Behar Railways, the construction of which was commenced during the course of the year when the necessary allotments were made.

The excess on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway was due principally to construction having been started on the Sini-Midnapur-Cuttack-Calcutta Extensions during the course of the year. The Budget Estimate provided for expenditure on capital works on the main line only, and the actual expenditure resulted in a lapse of about Rx. 5,600. The lapse was due chiefly to the issue of stores to the extensions and to smaller purchases of English stores, but the saving due to these causes was to some extent counter-balanced by outlay for the supply of sal sleepers for re-sleepering the line, provision for which was not made in the Budget Estimate.

Funds were not provided in the Budget Estimate for the construction of the Saugor-Katni Extension of the Indian Midland Railway, and the excess on the Indian Midland Railway was due chiefly to this cause. Comparing the expenditure on the main line with the Budget Estimate, which provided for works on the main line only, the result was a lapse of Rx. 7,887. This lapse was due chiefly to the provision made for the improvement of permanent way on the Gwalior-Agra section having been found largely in excess of ultimate requirements; to large credits for materials returned from the Sheora Quarry siding and other works; to provision having been made in excess of requirements for additional staff quarters at Bina and for supplying condensers at the workshops; to the provision made for tanks and stand pipes at stations on the Eastern Section and for a goods shed at Mahoba not having been utilised as the works were not sanctioned; and to larger issues of stores to works on the Bhopal State Railway than were provided for. The provision made for Rolling Stock was, however, exceeded owing to larger expenditure than was anticipated having been incurred on the erection of additional coaching stock.

In the Budget Estimate of the Assam-Bengal Railway a total provision of Rx. 1,276,700 was made both from Company's capital and loan funds to meet the estimated outlay during the year. The actual expenditure incurred amounted to Rx. 1,311,163 or Rx. 34,463 in excess of the provision. The funds allotted in Budget Orders from Company's capital represented the total estimated balance available from this source; owing, however, to the restriction of the grant available from loan funds a sufficient amount could not at the time be allotted under the head 48.—State Railways, Construction—to cover the total estimated expenditure of the year. Additional funds were, however, subsequently sanctioned and the excess brought out above was therefore due to this cause.

The lapse on the Southern Mahratta Railway occurred chiefly on the provision made for expenditure in England in consequence of an indent for steel sleepers having been cancelled, and another for miscellaneous stores having been submitted for compliance during the ensuing year. The lapse under works was due to unavoidable delay in the completion of certain capital works.

Compared with the Revised Estimate.

131. Compared with the Revised Estimate there was a lapse of Rx. 129,987. Lapses occurred on nearly all the railways dealt with in this section, the more important of which are explained as follows:—

On the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, due to earthwork having been considerably interrupted by an epidemic of cholera on the extensions, and by the rice lands in some parts of the extensions having been water-logged in consequence of which work could not be started till January 1896; to the designs for large bridges on the extensions not having been finally approved by Government in sufficient time; to the work of collecting ballast for the extensions having been postponed as it was not considered advisable to put this work in hand until the districts had been more fully explored by the Engineers for the purpose of discovering the best sources of ballast supply; and to indents for pot sleepers, steel rails and steam hoists for the extensions not having been complied with to the extent expected.

On the Indian Midland Railway, due chiefly to short outlay on English stores; to smaller expenditure than anticipated on formation and bridgework owing to work on the Saugor-Katni Extension having been greatly retarded in consequence of sickness among the labourers; and to the work on the Scindia section of renewing timber sleepers with Indian Midland Railway pot sleepers having been delayed for want of sleepers.

On the Southern Mahratta Railway, due chiefly to expenditure on English stores having been smaller than was anticipated.

On the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway, due to permanent-way materials purchased from the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway not having been paid for owing to question of price being unsettled; to the cost of land taken up at Aishbagh and Daliganj not having been paid during the year; and to smaller purchases of English stores.

Comparing the total expenditure from Company's capital and Government funds with the Revised Estimate for the Assam-Bengal Railway, the result was a lapse of Rx. 42,137 which is attributed to smaller outlay on stores in England and to expenditure in some divisions having been over-estimated.

SECTION H.

NATIVE STATES RAILWAYS.

Capital and Revenue Transactions.

132. The accounts reviewed in this section represent the transactions of the following Railways belonging to Native States, the accounts of which are dealt with in this Department:—

Bhopal State Railway (Bhopal Section).

134. An officer of the Public Works Accounts Department is lent to the Native States for the purpose of keeping the accounts of the Bhavnagar-Gondal-Junagad-Porbundar and Rajkot-Jamnagar Railways, and the accounts of the lines marked with an asterisk are either kept or supervised by Public Works Accounts officers. The construction accounts of the Bina-Guna and Bhopal-Ujjain Railways are audited annually by a Public Works Accounts officer. Arrangements have also been made for the monthly audit of the construction accounts of the Guna-Bara Extension by the Government Examiner, Indian Midland Railway.

BHOPAL STATE RAILWAY.

135. Capital.—The Bhopal State Railway is the joint property of the Imperial Government and the Bhopal State. The line connects Itarsi, on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, with Bhopal, crossing the river Nerbudda in the neighbourhood of Hoshungabad. The line runs for 13 miles through British territory and for 44 miles through the Native State of Bhopal.

136. Funds for the construction of this line were at first provided as follows :—

	Rx.
By the British Government	125,000
„ Bhopal State	500,000

But as further moneys were required to meet the cost of additional works and alterations necessary to bring the line up to the required standard to carry the heavy traffic anticipated on the opening of the Indian Midland Railway, and as Her Highness the Begum of Bhopal was not prepared to advance more than the 50 lakhs, it was decided to provide the necessary money from Imperial resources. The contribution made by the Durbar had all been utilised before the end of 1890-91, so that the expenditure incurred subsequently was met from grants under the head “48.—State Railways—Construction,” and as such is reviewed in the section pertaining thereto.

137. The capital expended on the line to the close of 1895-96 amounted to Rx. 781,716 and has been found as follows :—

	Rx.
By the British Government	281,716
„ Bhopal State	500,000

138. Revenue.—The line is worked by the Indian Midland Railway on the following terms: on payment of such sum as shall bear the same rate per cent. to the gross receipts of the Bhopal State Railway for any half-year as the aggregate working expenses of the amalgamated undertaking bear to the aggregate gross receipts of the amalgamated undertaking for the same half-year, plus 5 per cent. of the gross earnings for supply of rolling-stock. The earnings and expenses are adjusted by the calendar half-year, and the amounts included in the accounts for the official year 1895-96 represent the results of working during the calendar year 1895.

139. The revenue receipts and charges of the year are, under the terms of the agreement with the Durbar, divided between the British Government and the Bhopal State in the proportion of the capital contributed by each, and on this basis the division of the transactions of the year 1895 was as shown in the following table :—

	Government.	Bhopal State.	Total.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Receipts	14,266	31,807	46,073
Expenditure	9,655	21,525	31,180
Net receipts	4,611	10,282	14,893

140. The Durbar share of the net earnings for the year is equivalent to a return of 2·06 per cent. per annum on the capital provided by the Durbar. The amount was paid to the Durbar under the instructions conveyed in Public Works Department letter No. 383 A.—R., dated 9th September 1889.

KHAMGAON AND AMRAOTI RAILWAYS.

141. Capital.—These railways have been constructed from funds provided from the surplus revenues of Berar. The Khamgaon Railway, 7½ miles in length, runs from Jalamb Station, on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, to Khamgaon; and the Amraoti Railway, 5½ miles in length, connects Budnera with Amraoti.

142. The capital expended on these lines to the end of 1895-96 is as under:—

	To end of 1894-95.	During 1895-96.	Total to date.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Khamgaon Railway	40,912	2,183	52,095
Amraoti „	44,899	100	44,999

143. Revenue.—Both these lines are worked by the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company on the following terms: the payment to the Company of the same percentage of the gross receipts of the State line that the working expenses of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and branch lines, taken together, bear to the earnings of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and branch lines, plus 5 per cent. of the gross receipts of the State lines for the use of rolling-stock. The transactions are adjusted by the calendar half-year, and the results incorporated in the accounts of the year 1895-96 represent the transactions of the calendar year 1895.

144. The receipts and charges of the year 1895 are shown in the following table:—

	Receipts.	Expenditure.	Net Receipts.
	Rx.	Rx.	Rx.
Khamgaon Railway	6,423	3,820	2,603
Amraoti „	9,782	5,957	3,825

145. The net receipts represent returns of 5·00 and 8·50 per cent. per annum on the total capital expended on the Khamgaon and Amraoti Railways, respectively.

Comparison with Budget and Revised Estimates.

146. The actual Capital outlay on the lines dealt with in this section compares with the Budget and Revised Estimates as under:—

RAILWAY.	Actuals, 1895-96.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.
		Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.	Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.
Khamgaon Railway	Rx. 2,183	Rx. 2,500	Rx. —317	Rx. 1,900	Rx. +283
TOTAL	2,283	2,700	—417	2,080	+203

The excess on the Khamgaon State Railway as compared with the Budget Estimate was due to more work having been done in the renewal of permanent-way with second class rails and pot sleepers than was contemplated in the estimate. The lapse on the Revised Estimate was due to less expenditure having been incurred than was provided for on additions and alterations to Khamgaon Station.

147. The actual revenue transactions compare with the actuals of 1894-95 and the Budget and Revised Estimates as under:—

	Actuals, 1895-96.	REVISED ESTIMATE.		BUDGET ESTIMATE.		Actuals, 1894-95.
		Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.	Estimate.	Actuals, more or less.

Net Receipts .	3,825	3,700	+ 125	4,700	— 875	4,191

148. The decrease under Receipts on the Bhopal State Railway as compared with the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year was due chiefly to a falling-off in goods traffic. The decrease under Expenditure was due in both instances to the lower train-mileage run.

149. The increase under Receipts on the Khamgaon State Railway as compared with the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year was due to an improvement in merchandise traffic, and the decrease on the Amraoti State Railway was due to a falling-off in that traffic. The increase under Expenditure on the Khamgaon State Railway as compared with the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year was due to the payment for working expenses to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company having been higher in consequence of the improvement in earnings.

* In the case of lines worked by Companies two percentages have been entered, the first including, and the second excluding, surplus profits and share of net earnings paid to the Companies.

(a) This figure represents the Capital outlay recorded in the Finance and Revenue Accounts of the Government of India. The actual rupee outlay, expressed in Rs., is as follows:—

By Company to date of purchase	Rx.
" Government after purchase	31,286,941
	4,469,109
	35,756,050 on which the net receipts would give a return of 9.45 per cent.

(b) This figure represents the Capital outlay recorded in the Finance and Revenue Accounts of the Government of India. The actual rupee outlay expressed in Rs. is as follows:—

By Company to date of purchase	Rx.
By Government after purchase	3,559,837
By Government after purchase and on other securities constructed by the State	7,379,561
	10,939,408 on which the net receipts (including the Provisional dividend) would give a return of 8.95 per cent.

(d) This figure represents the Capital outlay recorded in the Finance and Revenue Accounts of the Government of India, including the outlay on the Gradient Improvements and on the Wazirabad-Lyalpur Railway. Taking the actual rupee outlay on the old Sind, Punjab and Delhi Railway by the Company to date of purchase, the outlay is as follows:—

By Company to date of purchase	Rx.
By Government after purchase	19,086,927
By Government after purchase and on system before and after acquisition	31,652,544
	43,739,471 on which the net receipts would give a return of 3.68 per cent.

(e) This figure represents the Capital outlay recorded in the Finance and Revenue Accounts of the Government of India. The actual rupee outlay on the line is as follows:—

By Company to date of purchase	Rx.
By Government after purchase	4,075,512
	2,609,544
	7,685,056 on which the net receipts would give a return of 4.74 per cent.

(f) Includes outlay on the Bellary-Kiarna Railway amounting to Rs. 1,457,841.
(g) Capital expended on Tirhoot State Railway.
(h) Substituting the actual rupee outlay in the case of purchased lines, the net receipts, including the Eastern Bengal Railway, would give a return of 5.12 per cent.
(i) Percentages calculated on total net receipts, including Provincial share.

(k) The Provincial share of the Eastern Bengal Railway net receipts has been included in calculating these percentages.

The difference between the net receipts and interest on the actual Capital expenditure incurred on the line is recovered from the Mysore Durbar, and the balance, representing interest on the unexpended balance of capital retained in its hands, is borne by the State. The amounts so recovered from the Mysore Durbar are as follows :—

	Rx.		Rx.
1886-87	1,584	1891-92	31,567

Simla, the 18th June 1897.

SIR,

IN paragraph 6 of my letter No. $\frac{1621}{1624, 1625}$, dated the 1st June 1897, forwarding for the information of the Government of ^{Bombay}_{Madras}_{Bengal} a copy of a translation of the Convention framed at the Sanitary Conference recently held at Venice for the purpose of considering measures to prevent the spread of the plague, it was stated that the portion of the Convention containing the rules regarding pilgrim ships would be dealt with in a separate communication. I am now to address you both on this subject and on the subject of the general regulations controlling the pilgrim traffic laid down in the Paris Convention of 1894.

2. A copy of the Paris Convention was forwarded to the Government of ^{Bombay}_{Madras}_{Bengal} with my letter No. $\frac{201}{200, 202}$, dated the 9th October 1894, which discussed the terms of the Convention and explained the grave objections taken by the Government of India to several of its regulations. A long correspondence ensued between the Government of India and Her Majesty's Secretary of State and between the Government of India and the Maritime Local Governments. The outcome of this correspondence was that Her Majesty's Government postponed the ratification of the Convention and that the Pilgrim Ships Act, No. XIV of 1895, was passed by the Governor General in Council and a set of rules framed under the Act and published in the Notifications of the Government of India in the Home Department, Nos. 260—262, dated the 5th October 1896. These rules were framed so as to conform to the regulations of the Paris Convention except in the matters with regard to which the Secretary of State had agreed with the Government of India that they should not be enforced in the case of Indian pilgrims.

3. The Government of ^{Bombay}_{Madras}_{Bengal} are aware that when the plague epidemic became severe in Bombay the greatest anxiety was experienced in Europe and that the Continental Powers began to introduce restrictive regulations which threatened to have a most disastrous effect on Indian trade and to impose most serious obstacles to intercourse between India and Europe. About the time that the Conference assembled at Venice for the purpose of regulating these matters, the Austrian and French Governments urgently insisted that, in view of the danger to Europe caused by the existence of plague in India, Her Majesty's Government should ratify the Paris Convention.

This Her Majesty's Government decided to do subject, however, to three reservations, namely, (1) that Indian pilgrims should not be compelled to prove the possession of sufficient means for the pilgrimage and the return journey until, in the opinion of the Government of India, local circumstances permit; (2) that the minimum between-deck space for Indian pilgrims, whether adults or children, should be 16 square feet instead of two square metres; and (3) that the regulations regarding the Persian Gulf should not apply to the British and Indian Governments, nor to British and Indian vessels. A copy of the correspondence leading up to the ratification of the Convention is attached to this letter. The rules for the control of pilgrim traffic contained in the regulations to guard against the spread of plague framed by the recent Sanitary Conference held at Venice follow those of the Paris Convention, but modify them in the sense of the three reservations made by Her Majesty's Government in ratifying the Paris Convention, and also adopt the rules issued by the Government of India with respect to hospital accommodation on board pilgrim ships. Subsequent to the ratification by the English Government, the Turkish Government also consented to ratify the Convention, subject to four reservations, the details of which have not yet been communicated to the Government of India.

4. With this letter is forwarded a copy of a Notification publishing prior to their issue the modifications in the rules issued in Home Department Notifications Nos. 260—262, dated the 5th October 1896, necessitated by the ratification of the Convention. The effect of the amending Notifications is as follows:—

- (i) Sixteen superficial feet is substituted for twelve superficial feet as the minimum space to be made available for each pilgrim on the upper between-deck.
- (ii) Two children between the ages of one and twelve years may not be counted as one pilgrim in the computation of pilgrims for the purposes of the Act and Rules.
- (iii) Part B, section I, Article 3, of the first Annexe of the Convention requires every pilgrim ship on entering and leaving the Red Sea to conform to the provisions contained in the "Special Regulation applicable to the pilgrimage to the Hedjaz" published by the Constantinople Board of Health in accordance with the principles enunciated in the Convention. This Article of the Convention must be posted in the pilgrim ship.

5. In certain respects the rules have not as yet been modified in accordance with the Convention for the reasons explained below:—

- (i) Article 30 of Part B, section III, of the first Annexe of the Convention requires the Captain to pay the whole amount of the sanitary taxes, which are to be included in the price of the ticket. Rule 66 of the rules published in Home Department Notification No. 262, dated the 5th October 1896, states that the cost of the ticket shall not include any taxes other than the fixed dues leviable at Camaran and Jeddah. This rule cannot be modified until the Turkish Government recognizes the three-fold classification of ships and ceases to detain all Indian pilgrim ships for ten days' quarantine charging each pilgrim a fee of Rs. 12-8 for the period of detention.
- (ii) Article 24 of Part B, section III, of the first Annexe of the Convention prescribes space for hospital accommodation in excess of the space prescribed in Rule 53 (1) of the rules published in Home Department Notification No. 262, dated the 5th October 1896. The recent Venice Convention has, however, adopted the rule framed by the Government of India which need not therefore be altered.
- (iii) Article 9 (1) of Part B, section II, of the first Annexe of the Convention states that the Captain may not depart without a list indicating the names, sex, and total number of pilgrims he is authorized to embark. The second portion of Form VI appended to the rules issued in Home Department Notification No. 262, dated the 5th October 1896, which the master of the vessel is bound to cause to be prepared under rule 71, only requires the number and not the names of female pilgrims to be stated. It would not be possible to require Indian Muhammadan females to give their names.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 1724.—The following documents regarding quarantine and trade restrictions imposed in foreign countries in consequence of the existence of bubonic plague in India are published for general information :—

Decree, dated the 11th May 1897, issued by the Federal Council of Switzerland whereby certain articles of commerce from countries infected or suspected to be infected with plague are prohibited from entering Switzerland, while other articles are admitted, subject to disinfection at the frontier.

Le Conseil fédéral Suisse, en application de l'article 7, alinéa 1, de la loi fédérale du 2 juillet 1886 concernant les mesures à prendre contre les épidémies offrant un danger général, et en abrogation de l'arrêté fédéral du 29 janvier 1897 concernant l'importation et le transit de certains objets et marchandises provenant des Indes anglaises, arrête :

Art. 1^{er}. Est interdite, jusqu'à nouvel avis, l'entrée en Suisse des marchandises et objets suivants, pour autant qu'ils proviennent, directement ou indirectement, d'une circonscription contaminée par la peste :

a. Linge de corps et vêtements portés (effets à usage), literie ayant servi. Lorsque ces objets sont transportés comme bagages ou à la suite d'un changement de domicile (effets d'installation), ils sont soumis aux dispositions des articles 3 et 4.

b. Chiffons et drilles de toute espèce.

c. Sacs usés, vieux tapis, broderies ayant servi, plumes à lit ayant servi.

d. Cuirs et peaux bruts, à l'exception des peaux complètement séchées (traitées à l'arsenic).

e. Débris frais (bruts) d'animaux, vessies et boyaux, onglons, sabots, cornes brutes, crins, soies et laines brutes.

f. Cheveux.

Art. 2. Le transit des objets et marchandises mentionnés à l'article 1 est également interdit, s'ils ne sont pas emballés de telle façon qu'ils ne puissent être touchés ni manipulés en route.

Art. 3. Si les objets mentionnés à l'article 1, lettre a, provenant de circonscriptions contaminées par la peste, sont transportés comme bagages (y compris les menus bagages), ils doivent être soumis, à la station d'entrée en Suisse ou au lieu de destination, à une inspection sanitaire de la part des autorités sanitaires locales, et si celles-ci le jugent nécessaire, à une désinfection.

Art. 4. Les effets personnels expédiés par grande ou par petite vitesse, ainsi que les objets transportés par suite d'un changement de domicile (effets d'installation) ne peuvent pénétrer en Suisse (qu'ils soient à destination de la Suisse ou qu'il s'agisse d'un simple transit) qu'aux stations douanières de Chiasso-gare, de Genève (gare de Cornavin), de Vallorbes, des Verrières, du Locle, de Porrentruy, de Bâle (gare du Central et gare badoise), de Schaffhouse, de Romanshorn, de Rorschach et de Buchs.

Dès l'arrivée d'un envoi de ce genre, provenant d'une circonscription reconnue contaminée, les autorités douanières en informent, par l'intermédiaire de l'autorité communale, les autorités sanitaires locales ; celles-ci font procéder sans retard à l'inspection sanitaire de l'envoi, et, si elles le jugent nécessaire, à sa désinfection.

Art. 5. La désinfection se fera d'après les règles renfermées dans les "Instructions relatives à la désinfection en temps de choléra", du 28 juillet 1893.

Art. 6. Jusqu'à nouvel avis sont considérés comme contaminés par la peste les provinces de Bombay et du Sindh (Indes anglaises), les possessions Portugaises de Goa (Inde) et le sud-ouest de la Chine. Les dispositions ci-dessus concernant l'entrée et le transit de certains objets et marchandises (articles 1 à 4) s'appliquent donc aux provenances des ports de Bombay, Karatsch (Kurachee) et Goa (Inde), ainsi qu'à celles de Macao, de Hong-Kong, de Canton, de Swatow d'Amoy et de l'île Formose (Chine).

Mais comme les contrées voisines des régions contaminées doivent, en une certaine mesure, être considérées comme suspectes, les dispositions des articles 1 à 4, sont également applicables aux provenances de tout le reste de l'Inde, à celle du Beloutschistan, des ports du golfe Persique et de la Chine, à moins qu'il ne puisse être établi d'une manière certaine pour chaque envoi, soit par l'attestation d'un consulat, soit par celle des autorités du lieu de provenance ou du port de départ, que l'envoi provient d'une région où la peste ne règne pas, et que le port de départ n'est pas contaminé, ou tout au moins qu'il ne l'était pas au moment où le navire a pris la mer.

Art. 11. Pour tout envoi arrivé par un port européen et contenant des objets ou marchandises mentionnées à l'article 1^{er}, il doit être présenté aux autorités douanières un certificat d'origine dressé d'après les papiers du navire par les autorités compétentes du port d'arrivée.

Berne, le 11 mai 1897.

Au nom du Conseil fédéral Suisse,

Le vice-président :

RUFFY.

Le chancelier de la Confédération :

RINGIER.

Service de Santé, Hygiène Publique et voirie.

Communale.

Peste.—Mesures aux frontières de mer.

Le Ministre de l'agriculture et des travaux publics.

Vu l'arrêté royal du* 5 Avril, 1897, prescrivant des mesures sanitaires relativement à l'importation et au transit des marchandises provenant de pays ou de circonscriptions territoriales, déclarés contaminés de peste ;

Vu spécialement les Articles 5 et 6 de cet arrêté, chargeant le Ministre de l'agriculture et des travaux publics de désigner les pays ou parties de pays à l'égard desquels le régime prévu par les Articles 1^{er} à 4 du dit arrêté sera rendu applicable et de régler les mesures à prendre dans les ports à l'égard de navires considérés comme infectés, suspects ou indemnés, au point de vue de la visite médicale, de l'isolement et de la désinfection ;

Vu l'avis de la commission sanitaire de l'Escaut ;

Arrêté :

Art. 1^{er}. Les dispositions qui font l'objet des Articles 1^{er} à 4 de l'arrêté royal du* 5 Avril, 1897, susvisé, sont rendues applicables aux provenances de la présidence de Bombay, du Sind excepté de l'extrême Est de ce dernier, ainsi qu'à celles de l'île de Formose et des parties de l'Empire Chinois, situées au sud de 30° degré de latitude, contaminés par la peste.

Art. 2. Ces provenances, arrivant par voie de mer, seront soumises à la station sanitaire de l'Escaut et dans les ports d'Ostende et de Nieupoort, au régime stipulé par les chapitres II, III et IV du règlement sanitaire général annexé à la Convention sanitaire internationale de Venise, en date du 19 Mars, 1897.

Art. 5. Les marchandises et objets visés à l'Article 1^{er} de l'arrêté royal du 5 Avril, 1897, et provenant d'un des ports de l'Océan Indien, autres que ceux reconnus contaminés de peste, depuis Mascate y compris les ports du Golfe Persique, jusqu'au cap Comorin, doivent être accompagnés à l'importation et au transit, par application du 1^{er} alinéa de l'Article 3 de cet arrêté, d'un certificat d'origine visé par un agent Consulaire Belge et à défaut de pareil agent résidant au port d'expédition, d'un certificat d'origine visé par l'autorité locale de ce port.

Bruxelles, le 1^{er} Mai, 1897.

LÉON DE BRUYN.

Peste.—Mesures préventives.

Le Ministre de l'agriculture et des travaux publics.

Vu l'arrêté royal du* 5 Avril, 1897, prescrivant des mesures sanitaires relativement à l'importation et au transit des marchandises provenant de pays ou de circonscriptions territoriales déclarés contaminés de peste, spécialement en son Article 1^{er}, dernier alinéa ;

Vu l'avis de la commission sanitaire de l'Escaut, Arrêté ;

Article unique. Sont autorisés l'entrée et le transit par les frontières de terre et de mer des cuirs verts salés et en même temps arséniqués, venant de pays et de circonscriptions territoriales déclarés contaminés de peste.

Bruxelles, le 5 Mai, 1897.

Weather Review of India for the Week ending at 8 a.m. on Saturday, June 12th, 1897.

During the week under review the weather has been unsettled and stormy over the Arabian Sea. As so often happens the advance of the monsoon current over this area has been preceded by the formation of a large area of disturbed weather and of cyclonic winds. This storm was encountered by the Mail Steamer Thames in Latitude 17° N. and Longitude 62° E., when it was apparently passing west-north-westward towards the Arabian coast. Into this storm the monsoon current apparently fed, so that, though showery unsettled weather prevailed along the west coast of India, there never occurred that sudden burst of strong winds and rains which accompanies the appearance of the monsoon in ordinary years in West Ceylon and Western India. On account of this diversion of the monsoon currents unusually dry and hot weather obtained during the week over the whole of North-Western and Central India and the Deccan, while in North-East India also the general conditions were those which prevail during the hot weather. In this region strong winds from south blew across the coast, and local thunderstorms, giving moderate to heavy local rainfall, were experienced. The mean temperature was hence excessive in nearly all parts of the Indian area, the abnormal excess being most marked on the 9th and 10th, when the disturbed conditions over the Arabian Sea were at their maximum intensity. In Burma, Bengal and Madras, where, as mentioned above, the heat was tempered by frequent thundershowers, the abnormal excess of temperature did not exceed 2° on the average of the week, while over the Central Provinces, Berar, Central India, Gujarat, Sind and Rajputana, where, under ordinary conditions, monsoon rainfall ordinarily occurs in some parts of these districts, during the first ten days of June the abnormal excess of temperature averaged over 6° .

Daily Summary.—Sunday, June 6th.—Pressure had fallen briskly over the Western desert and on part of the Konkan coast, but elsewhere the changes were slight. Readings were highest in Tenasserim and lowest in Upper Sind. The distribution of pressure was irregular on the West coast, and a feeble advance of monsoon winds was taking place over the south-east of the Arabian Sea. The mean temperature was low over the Punjab and parts of Bengal, Assam and Madras, but was excessive elsewhere—more particularly in Berar and the Central Provinces, where the abnormal excess was over 8° . Heavy rain had fallen on the Malabar coast, Cochin and Calicut reporting over three inches; light to moderate rain over West Ceylon, the Konkan, Coorg, Mysore and the Deccan, and light to moderate local showers over parts of Burma, Assam, Bengal and Chota Nagpur.

Monday, June 7th.—Pressure had decreased almost everywhere. A shallow depression was advancing northward along the West coast, but pressure remained highest in Tenasserim and lowest over the Western desert. The winds were irregular both along the West coast and over Northern India, while over the Bay area the usual southerly winds drawing into south-east and east prevailed. Temperature had risen, except in Bombay, the Central Provinces and Burma. The mean temperature was still below the normal in the Punjab and parts of Madras, Bengal and Assam, and excessive in all other places. The greatest abnormal excess now lay over Lower Sind, Gujarat and Berar. Light to heavy rain had fallen in Malabar, the Konkan and the Deccan, Calicut reporting three inches. A few light showers had been received at some central stations. Light rain had fallen over parts of Bengal and Assam and moderate rain in Burma. Moulmein and Diamond Island had received over two inches.

Tuesday, June 8th.—The barometer had risen briskly in Bihar, but elsewhere the changes were slight. The general distribution of pressure was unchanged. An irregular area of low readings lay over the Arabian Sea off the Konkan coast, while pressure decreased from a high pressure area in Tenasserim to a low pressure area in Upper Sind. The winds were generally little changed. Temperature had risen fast in the Punjab, and the only regions, where the mean temperature read below the normal, were the south of the Peninsula and parts of Assam, Upper Burma and North Bengal. Moderately heavy rain had fallen in Malabar, and local showers had been received over the Konkan, the Bombay Deccan, Mysore, South Madras, Burma, Bengal and Assam.

Wednesday, June 9th.—Pressure had recovered briskly over a large part of the Peninsula, and the depression over the Arabian Sea had moved westward. Elsewhere there had been no important change in the distribution. Strong south-south-east winds were blowing at the West coast ports and light northerly winds in the Punjab. In other places the wind directions were fairly normal and the force was increasing in Burma. The mean temperature remained low in the south of the Peninsula and at one or two stations in North-East India. Elsewhere the heat was excessive, the abnormal excess being between 12° and 14° over the area represented by the stations of Akola, Khandwa and Indore. Moderately heavy rain had fallen in Malabar, the Konkan and the Deccan, and light to moderate showers in parts of Burma.

Thursday, June 10th.—Pressure had increased briskly to rapidly over Western India, an effect probably of the continued westerly movement of the Arabian Sea storm. The distribution of pressure was changing somewhat. The lowest pressures were reported from the Gangetic Plain, while gradients were increasing throughout the Indian area. Strong westerly and south-westerly winds were reported on the Arabian Sea coasts and inland over Gujarat, Rajputana and the central parts of the country. Temperature was everywhere excessive, but within the area of greatest excess the variations from the normal were less than on the 9th. Local showers had been received in Malabar, the Konkan, Lower Burma and Chota Nagpur.

Friday, June 11th.—Pressure had changed irregularly. The barometer had fallen briskly to rapidly over Northern India and slightly to briskly over Malabar, while in the intervening region the barometer had been steady or risen slightly. Readings were low over the Punjab and the Gangetic Plain, and steep gradients existed between the West coast and the Gangetic Plain. The winds were still irregular along the West coast, but elsewhere the directions were fairly normal. The mean temperature was lower than usual along the Madras coast and in Gujarat and was excessive elsewhere—most so over the region represented by the stations of Jeypore, Jhansi, Nowgong and Sutna. Thundershowers had been received over the Konkan, Deccan and Southern India, but there had been very little rain in Malabar. Burma and Assam continued to receive local showers.

Saturday, June 12th.—The barometer had risen slightly over the North Gangetic Plain and Ceylon, but had fallen elsewhere. The fall had been rapid over Western India, and as a consequence gradients had decreased considerably. In other respects conditions were little changed. The wind had shifted to west-north-west along the Bombay coasts, and the general directions were fairly normal. Temperature had changed by large amounts. The heat was considerably below the normal over Assam and Upper Burma, over Bihar and over Madras and the Bombay Deccan. Elsewhere the mean temperature remained high. Light to moderate rain had been received in Malabar and the Konkan and thundershowers in the Central Provinces and Southern India. Fairly general rain had been received over Burma, Assam, South Bengal, Bihar and Chota Nagpur.

Temperature.—The general temperature has been high over India on each day of the week, the abnormal excess for the whole country rising from 2° on the 6th to $5^{\circ}8$ on the 10th. There has, however, been, on several days of the week, a tendency to lower temperatures than usual over parts of North-East and North-West India and of the south of the Peninsula, while the area of greatest abnormal excess has generally held over the central parts of the country. On one day, the 10th, the heat was greater than usual at every station in India, (the largest abnormal variation being $+12^{\circ}8$ at Bickaneer), but usually some stations either in the north-west, north-east or south reported temperatures below the normal.

The following table gives temperature data for the week :

PROVINCE.	JUNE 1897.							Mean variation of week.

Rain.—Owing to the interruption on the telegraph lines, due to the earthquake, large parts of the country have been unable to communicate the rainfall data for the past week. From Tenasserim, Lower and Upper Burma, Assam and Central and North Bengal no information has been received.

As mentioned above, the principal feature in the rainfall returns is the delay in the establishment of the monsoon and the consequent deficiency of the rainfall along the West coast and in parts of Eastern India. In addition, the weather has been quieter and more settled than usual in most other parts of the country, and the storm rainfall has been lighter than usual, except over the Carnatic, where, on the first two days and last two days of the week, thunderstorms were numerous, and the general rainfall of the week was heavier than usual. In Chota Nagpur also rain fell during thunderstorms almost daily, and the actual average fall in this area also was heavier than the normal. With these exceptions, the weather was finer and the rainfall lighter than is ordinarily the case.

The table at the conclusion of the summary shows that no rain whatever fell in fifteen of the rainfall divisions, viz., the North-West Provinces (East, Central and West), Oudh (South), the Punjab (South-East, South, Hills, North and West), Kathiawar, Sind, Baluchistan, Rajputana (East), Central India (West), Rajputana (West) and the East Coast [North (a)]. In addition to the above, the following divisions: North Oudh, the North-West Provinces (Submontane, West and Hills), the Central Punjab and Central India (East) had an average actual fall for the week of less than one-tenth of an inch, which is of course wholly ineffective for agricultural purposes. Hence, generally over the North-West Provinces, the Punjab, Baluchistan, North Bombay, Rajputana and Central India the rainfall of the week was either nil or quite unimportant. In all the other parts of the country effective rain was received, the heaviest average falls being 9·17 inches in Malabar, 8·12 inches in Arakan and 2·70 inches in Coorg. Within the area of effective rainfall the amount received was in excess of the normal in the case of Chota Nagpur, South Bihar, Madras (South-Central, Central and South) and the East Coast (Central and South), while in all the other divisions the fall was short. In all cases the excess was small, in no instance amounting to half an inch, while, on the contrary, the abnormal deficiency amounted to 3·28 inches in the Konkan, to 3·53 inches in Coorg, to 2·22 inches in Jaipur (Ganjam) and to over one inch in East Deltaic and Central Bengal and Central India (East).

The three concluding columns shew the state of the rainfall from May 30th to June 12th, during which period, owing to the delay in the advance of the monsoon, there has been a very general deficiency in the rainfall. The only divisions reporting any excess are Chota Nagpur, South Bihar, the Central, Submontane, North and West Punjab, Madras (South-Central), Mysore, Madras (Central) and the East coast (Central and South). In all the remaining divisions the deficiency is considerable.

The following are the principal large totals recorded this week :

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Weekly Report on the state of the Season and Prospects of the Crops.

Madras.—For week ending 12th June.—Rainfall deficient in Ganjam, Vizagapatam, Godavari, South Canara, and Travancore; normal in the Deccan; elsewhere generally in excess. Water-supply for drinking purposes is generally insufficient in Ganjam; improving in the Deccan; elsewhere generally sufficient. For irrigation generally insufficient. Commencement of agricultural operations general, but limited in Ganjam. Standing crops are thriving generally, but early sowings in Vizagapatam require rain badly. Harvests are limited. Outturn generally middling. Pasture is generally sufficient in Vizagapatam and extreme south; in the Deccan scarce, but improving; elsewhere scarce in parts, but improving generally. Fodder insufficient in the Deccan, elsewhere available, but scarce. Cattle are deteriorating in the Deccan; elsewhere generally in normal condition. Prices have risen smartly in Vizagapatam; slightly in Ganjam and Godavari; elsewhere generally fairly steady. Ordinary relief workers—93,668 men, 166,450 women, 62,124 children; total 322,242 in the Deccan and Circars. Test-workers—4,511 men, 5,765 women, 2,472 children; total 12,748 in the Circars. Weavers—12,478 men, 11,254 women, 1,467 children; total 25,199 relieved at their own trade in the Deccan and Ganjam. Total relief workers 360,189. Kitchen inmates in the Deccan and Circars: (dependants)—280 men, 397 women, 13,636 children; total 14,313. (Others)—2,138 men, 4,634 women, 12,589 children; total 19,288. Otherwise gratuitously relieved—11,215 men, 30,149 women, 29,546 children; total 70,910. Total on gratuitous relief 104,513. Grand total on Government relief 464,700. Figures reported from Anantapur, Ganjam, and Godavari are incomplete. Also 1,173 fed in private kitchens under Government management in Vizagapatam. Prices by which wages are regulated are:—Ganjam 10, Bellary 11, Vizagapatam 11½, Kurnool 12, Cuddapah 12½, Anantapur 14, and Bhadrachalam 16½ seers per rupee. Loans disbursed since the commencement of distress Rs. 6,88,901.

Bombay.—For week ending 14th June.—Rain throughout the Deccan, Karnatic, Konkan, and parts of Panch Mahals, Broach, Surat, and Baroda. Preparations for next season have commenced generally; sowing operations in progress in the Konkan, Karnatic, and parts of the Deccan, Karachi, Hyderabad, and Panch Mahals. Fodder is sufficient, except in the Deccan, Shikarpur, and parts of Karachi, Kolaba, and Baroda. Condition of agricultural stock is deteriorating in Khandesh, Poona, Ahmednagar, Sholapur, and Bijapur; healthy elsewhere, except in parts of Karachi, Shikarpur, Upper Sind Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Ratnagiri, and Kanara. Prices are rising in parts of Kolaba, Poona, Sholapur, and Bijapur; falling in parts of Hyderabad, Upper Sind Frontier, Panch Mahals, Kolaba, and Sholapur; stationary in Thar and Parkar, Surat, and parts of Kolaba, Poona, and Bijapur. Prices in affected districts are:—Belgaum 10, Bijapur 9½, Sholapur 9½, Ahmednagar 9½, Poona 9, Nasik 8½, Satara 8½, Khandesh 8, and Dharwar 10½ seers per rupee. The average daily number on relief works, including dependants, was:—Bijapur 53,862, Sholapur 104,638, Ahmednagar 52,673, Poona 24,340, Nasik 21,064, Satara 8,523, Khandesh 16,780, Belgaum 8,754, and Dharwar 529. On test works—Belgaum 502, Dharwar 119, and Ratnagiri 219; total 292,003, of whom 232,238 are relief workers and 59,765 dependants. On gratuitous relief—Bijapur 10,964, including 360 in poor-houses, Sholapur 8,201, including 104 in poor-houses, Ahmednagar 6,928, including 260 in poor-houses, Poona 7,794, Nasik 775, Satara 383, Belgaum 623, Dharwar 902; total 36,570. Total number on relief 328,573.

Bengal.—For week ending 14th June.—There has been rain all over the Province during the week, and agricultural prospects are generally reported to be favourable. More rain is said to be still required in parts, but the monsoon has apparently since set in. All standing crops are doing well, and the cultivation of the autumn crops and winter rice is going on. The harvesting of cheena millet is still proceeding in Behar. The fodder-supply continues to be sufficient and the water-supply is now reported to have generally improved. Prices still show a slight tendency to rise in some districts. In the distressed districts the prices of the staple food-grain on which the famine wage is based are—Bankura (common rice) 8 to 9 seers; Nadia (common rice) $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Murshidabad (common rice) 8 seers; Khulna (common rice) 8 seers; Rajshahi (common rice) $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Shahabad (rice) 8 seers and pea $10\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Saran (barley) 11 seers; Champaran (Burma rice) $8\frac{1}{4}$ and $8\frac{1}{2}$ seers and (pea) $11\frac{1}{8}$ and $10\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Muzaffarpur (indian-corn) $9\frac{1}{2}$ seers and [rahar (Cajanus indicus)] 11 seers; Darbhanga (common rice) $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers and (indian-corn) 9 seers; Bhagalpur (common rice) $8\frac{1}{4}$ to 9 seers; Sonthal Parganas (common rice) $7\frac{1}{2}$ to 8 seers; Puri (rice) 9 to 12 seers; Hazaribagh (rice) $6\frac{1}{2}$ to 9 seers; Palamau (rice) 8 seers; and Manbhum (common rice) $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers per rupee. The numbers on relief were—Bankura 8,150, Nadia 99,257, Murshidabad 5,689, Khulna 12,933, Rajshahi 434, Pubna, no report, Patna 142, Shahabad 30,801, Saran 80,417, Champaran 196,347, Muzaffarpur 114,682, Darbhanga 241,013, Bhagalpur 3,043, Sonthal Parganas 7,534, Puri 4,074, Hazaribagh 9,372, Palamau 3,645, Manbhum 13,460; total 850,993 against 845,485 in the preceding week. This total is distributed as follows:—Relief workers—men 174,240, women 142,101, children 48,924; total 365,265. Dependants—men 1,737, women 72, children 34,630; total 36,439. In poor-houses and kitchens—men 2,081, women 2,242, children 9,563; total 13,886. Otherwise relieved—men 66,084, women 211,948, children 125,994; total 404,026. Test-workers—men 6,223, women 3,780, children 1,374; total 11,377. Private relief:—Relief works—Darbhanga Raj—Darbhanga—men 5,882, women 3,467, children 778; total 10,127. Darbhanga Raj—Muzaffarpur—men 490, women 205, children 103; total 799. Hatwa—men 770, women 1,473, children 927; total 3,170. Jamtara—men 585, women 591, children 89; total 1,265. Deoghur—men 144, women 107, children 20; total 271. Gratuitous relief:—Darbhanga Raj—Darbhanga—men 3,987, women 11,817, children 12,410; total 28,214. Darbhanga Raj—Muzaffarpur—men 84, women 301, children 272; total 657. Hatwa—men 146, women 209, children 653; total 1,008. Manjha—men 36, women 9, children 18; total 63. Koildwa—men 36, women 104, children 15; total 155. Hazaribagh—Giridih—men 167, women 192, children 88; total 447. Total on private relief 46,175.

North-Western Provinces and Oudh.—For week ending 16th June.—

Rain fell in many districts during the week; in Sitapur over two inches were recorded and in Gorakhpur and Etah over one inch fell; rain has also fallen since the close of the week. Preparations for the autumn crops continue. Irrigation is being carried on in places. Extra crops are doing well. The numbers in receipt of relief on Saturday, the 12th June, in eighteen districts officially recognised as distressed were as follows:—Agra 29,562, Etawah 4,832, Cawnpore 12,139, Fatehpur 14,995, Banda 294,793, Hamirpur 124,474, Allahabad 315,091, Jhansi 91,914, Jalaun 122,761, Mirzapur 52,120, Family domains, Maharajah of Benares, 13,951, Jaunpur 38,181, Gorakhpur 25,251, Azamgarh 22,117, Lucknow 42,127, Unao 41,003, Rae Bareilly 35,977, Sitapur 5,646, Hardoi 141,553; total 1,432,488. This total is distributed as follows among the various methods of relief prescribed by the Famine Code which are in operation:—employed on relief works—904,001; relieved as dependants—171,319; relieved in poor-houses—30,685; relieved under other provisions of the Famine Code, including 46,185, from Charitable Relief Fund, 326,483; total 1,432,488. The numbers relieved in nineteen districts which are under observation and not officially recognised as distressed were on the same date as follows:—relieved on test works—20,349; relieved in poor-houses—6,226; relieved under other provisions of the Famine Code, including 14,091 from Charitable Relief Fund, 41,430; total 68,005. The grand total in receipt of relief on the last day of the week was therefore 1,500,493. Supplies are generally sufficient. Fodder is somewhat scarce in places. Water is getting short in Banda and in parts of Hamirpur and Allahabad. The price of the staple grain on which the famine wage is based varied from $9\frac{1}{4}$ to 12 seers in the districts officially recognised as distressed. The numbers shown as relieved from the Indian Famine Charitable Relief Fund represent the operations of the fund so far only as they are carried out through official agency.

Punjab.—For week ending 14th June.—Rain averaging above two inches has fallen in Karnal; about one inch in Hissar and Rohtak; $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch in Gujranwala; $\frac{1}{2}$ in Gurgaon and $\frac{1}{2}$ in Amritsar and Sialkot. There has also been a fall at sadar station in Delhi of $\frac{1}{4}$ inches; Jullundur $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch and Lahore $\frac{1}{10}$; a general fall is also reported from the Shahpur district. Harvesting of spring crops is nearly over; ploughing and sowing of autumn crops is going on; weeding of cotton and sugarcane is in progress. Extra spring crops are being gathered in. The outturn of the spring crops is generally reported good to average on irrigated lands and below average on lands dependent on rain; it is also said to be good in regard to extra spring crops in Lahore; standing extra spring and autumn crops are generally said to be in fair condition. Stocks of food-grain have been exhausted in Hissar where requirements are being met by importations from other parts of the Punjab. Young locusts are being destroyed in Dera Ismail Khan. Cattle are still in poor condition for want of green fodder in most districts; 142 cattle died from hunger in Rohtak. Green fodder is still scarce, but dry fodder is obtainable in most districts but it is said to be sufficient only in some districts. The average number of relief workers, dependants, etc., was as follows:—relief workers—32,669 men, 29,544 women, 14,916 children. Dependants—130 men, 190 women, 11,952 children. Relieved in poor-houses—518 men, 665 women, 544 children. Otherwise relieved—3,936 men, 6,287 women, 3,488 children. Test-workers—15 men. The total number of relief workers, dependants, etc., in the Punjab was 104,854 or 5,910 more than last week; of these 76,000 against 72,000 were in Hissar only. It shows a large increase in Hissar and Rohtak and slight increase in Delhi, Umballa, and Ferozepore. The decreases are very slight in Karnal, Gujrat, and Rawal Pindi. Prices are generally high; their tendency is upwards in most districts; they are slightly falling in Ferozepore and Dera Ismail Khan; the figures are unchanged in Gurgaon, Mooltan, Lahore, and Gujranwala. Wheat is selling from $10\frac{1}{4}$ to $13\frac{1}{4}$, great millet $10\frac{1}{4}$ to 11, barley 13 to 14, gram 10 to 12, maize 7 to 16, rice $6\frac{3}{4}$ to 7, and bulrush-millet 7 to $8\frac{1}{2}$ seers per rupee. In Gurgaon the food staple bijhar (wheat and barley mixed) is selling at $12\frac{1}{4}$ seers per rupee. Prices of staple food-grain on which the famine wages are reckoned are:—Hissar—North Ghaggar, barley and gram flour $10\frac{1}{4}$; South Ghaggar, great millet flour $9\frac{1}{4}$; and Bir Ditch, barley flour 12; Rohtak, barley 13; Delhi, wheat 10; Karnal, wheat flour $9\frac{3}{4}$ and barley flour 12; Umballa, maize 11; Ferozepore, barley and gram $11\frac{1}{2}$; and Gujrat, wheat and barley flour 13 seers per rupee.

Central Provinces.—For week ending 14th June.—Weather cloudy and close with occasional storms. Shocks of earthquake felt in Narsinghpur and Saugor on the 12th. Light showers have fallen in most districts; over an inch has been registered in Jubbulpore and Sambalpur, while Nagpur received 2 inches. Preparation of land for summer sowings is almost completed and sowings have commenced in Mandla, Chanda, and Chhattisgarh. In Betul sugarcane is suffering for want of rain. Fodder and water are still scarce in parts of 7 districts. Cattle much broken down in Mandla. Prices fluctuate somewhat with a tendency to rise further in several districts. The decrease of 32,000 in number of relief workers is attributed to the prevalence of cholera and the introduction of piece work system; also to recommencement of agricultural operations, but Saugor, Narsinghpur, and Bilaspur return large numbers. The total number on gratuitous relief remains almost unchanged. There has been a fall of 23,000 in the number of persons employed on private works, the contraction being shared by Raipur and Bilaspur. The numbers on relief works were:—Saugor 40,653, Damoh 26,707, Jubbulpore 37,887, Mandla 22,047, Seoni 11,453, Narsinghpur 47,135, Hoshangabad 34,832, Nimar 202, Betul 8,656, Chhindwara 14,248, Wardha 7,076, Nagpur 12,769, Chanda 134, Bhandara 30,879, Balaghat 41,310, Raipur 69,000, Bilaspur 33,539, and Sambalpur 1,434; total 446,870. Numbers on gratuitous relief:—Saugor 19,278, Damoh 17,189, Jubbulpore 28,592, Mandla 7,805, Seoni 4,254, Narsinghpur 11,443, Hoshangabad 8,547, Nimar 523, Betul 3,562, Chhindwara 3,992, Wardha 39, Nagpur 2,601, Bhandara 10,495, Balaghat 19,550, Raipur 31,218, Bilaspur 31,047, and Sambalpur 590; total 200,725. Total number on relief 647,595. There were also 134,418 persons employed on railway and other private works. Details of relief workers:—men 129,215, women 195,981, and children 108,572. Dependants—men 2,592, women 3,955, and children 70,772 with 3,220 unclassified. Poor-houses—men 8,208, women 8,996, and children 12,141. Otherwise relieved—men 13,700, women 25,359, and children 23,879 with 27,903 unclassified. Wage prices—Chanda $10\frac{1}{2}$, Bilaspur 10, Sambalpur $9\frac{3}{4}$, Jubbulpore and Wardha 9½, Nagpur 9¼, Damoh, Seoni, Narsinghpur, and Chhindwara 9, Nimar 8¾, Saugor, Hoshangabad, Bhandara, and Raipur 8½, Betul 8, Mandla 7½, and Balaghat 7¼ seers per rupee.

Burma.—For week ending 12th June.—In Lower Burma ploughing has commenced in Hanthawady and Tharawaddy and is now in progress in eight districts. In Upper Burma reaping of early wet weather paddy has commenced in Mandalay. Nearly all districts have received good or fair rain during the week, and ploughing and sowing of the early wet weather crops are in progress everywhere. Prospects continue favourable, but more rain is required in Taungdwingyi sub-division, Magwe district, where seedlings are reported to be drying up. The price of paddy has risen considerably in Pegu, Henzada, Myoungmya, Amherst, Tavoy, and Thyetmyo and slightly in Mongwa, while it has fallen slightly in Mandalay; elsewhere stationary. The numbers on relief works were—Meiktila 5,414 and Myingyan 5,664. On gratuitous relief—Meiktila 941, Myingyan 1,563, and Yamethin 362. Total on relief 13,944. Price of rice—Meiktila 7 seers 10 chittacks and Myingyan 10 seers 4 chittacks per rupee.

Assam.—No report received.

Mysore and Coorg.—For week ending 14th June.—MYSORE.—Twenty-seven cents rain in Civil and Military station; slight rain also throughout State; good in parts. Prospects are favourable. Prices slightly risen in Kolar, Kadur, and Shimoga.

COORG.—Rainfall 5 inches 59 cents. Ploughing for rice is in progress. Prices of food-grains rising. Water and fodder for cattle are sufficient.

Berar and Hyderabad.—For week ending 14th June.—BERAR.—Weather occasionally cloudy and excessively hot. Light showers of rain have fallen in all districts. Ploughing of fields for the monsoon crop continues. Fodder and water are scarce. Prices show a tendency to rise. Relief workers—Akola 7,517, Amraoti 1,583, Basim 1,836, Buldana 2,351, Ellichpur 2,172, and Wun 6,016. Numbers on gratuitous relief—Akola 1,398, Amraoti 193, and Basim 527. Occupants of poor-houses—Akola 595 and Amraoti 863. Total number on relief 25,051. Prices—jowari—Akola 9½, Amraoti 10, Basim 10½, Buldana 9, Ellichpur 8½, and Wun 12 seers per rupee.

HYDERABAD.—Rain 40 cents. Fields under preparation for monsoon crops. Fodder, pasture, and water are scarce. The aggregate number of persons employed on relief works in Bir, Gulburga, Raichur, Lingsagar, Naldrug, and Mahbubnagar 25,407. Prices in affected districts—8½ seers per rupee in Raichur and Lingsagar, 9¼ in Naldrug and Mahbubnagar, and 9½ in Bir and Gulburga. 412 persons on gratuitous relief in Lingsagar and 142 in Naldrug and 1,822 children in Bir and 599 in Naldrug. Total number on relief 28,382. Prices—wheat 6¼, coarse rice 7½, and jowari 12 seers per current sicca rupee.

Central India.—For week ending 14th June.—Slight rain fell in Indore and in five agencies during the week. Operations for rain crops have commenced in Malwa and Bhopawar. Agricultural stock is fair in Bhopal, Baghelkhand, and one district of Gwalior; good in Malwa; indifferent in Bundelkhand and in the remaining districts of Gwalior. Pasturage is fair in Bhopal, Baghelkhand, and Malwa; failed in Bhopawar; and indifferent in Bundelkhand and Gwalior. Prices are above normal in Bundelkhand, Baghelkhand, Malwa, and Bhopawar; steady elsewhere. The number of persons employed on famine relief works were—45,063 in Gwalior, 64,562 in Bundelkhand and 68,799 in Baghelkhand. On gratuitous relief—14,292 in Gwalior, 7,550 in Bundelkhand, and 4,980 in Baghelkhand. Total number on relief 205,246. Prices—10 to 10½ in Gwalior, 9¼ to 11 in Bundelkhand, and 9 seers per rupee in Baghelkhand.

Rajputana.—For week ending 16th June.—Rainfall 21 cents in Abu; 6 in Pertabgarh and 14 in Bikanir. Agricultural operations are satisfactory in Meywar, Jhallawar, Ajmere, and Jeypore; in progress in Kotah and Karauli. Standing crops are fair in Pertabgarh; good in Meywar and Jhallawar. Outturn of harvests good in Marwar, except gram in Jhallawar; average in Ajmere and estimated at eleven annas in the rupee in Meywar. Agricultural stock fair to good, except in Bhurtpore. Pasturage or fodder generally sufficient, except in some tehsils of Jhallawar and Jeypore; failing in Dholepore and Bhurtpore. Prices are rising in Pertabgarh and Jhallawar; slightly in Marwar, Meywar, Jeypore, and Bikanir; falling in Dholepore; fluctuating in Jaisalmer; and steady elsewhere. The number of persons on relief works were—in Marwar 5,757, Tonk 1,338, Dholepore 2,132, Bikanir 5,794, and Jaisalmer 1,371. On ordinary works—in Tonk 266, Dholepore 2,247, Bhurtpore 8,721, and Bikanir 567. On gratuitous relief—in Marwar 1,314, Tonk 1,953, Chabra 62, Boondi 300, Deoli 8, Dholepore 949, Bhurtpore 369, Bikanir 3,118, and Jaisalmer 259. Total number on relief 24,724. Prices—Marwar $9\frac{1}{2}$, Tonk $11\frac{3}{4}$, Deoli 13, Dholepore $11\frac{1}{4}$, Bhurtpore $12\frac{3}{16}$, Bikanir $9\frac{1}{2}$ and $8\frac{1}{4}$, and Jaisalmer $8\frac{3}{8}$ seers per rupee.

Kashmir.—For week ending 15th June.—Weather fine. Barley reaping commenced. Rice sowings in progress. Prices continue little below normal. Price—22 seers per rupee.

JAMMU PROVINCE.—For week ending 15th June.—Slight rain. Prices stationary. Fodder scanty. Price— $9\frac{1}{2}$ seers per rupee.

Nepal.—For week ending 12th June.—Rainfall 40 cents at Katmandu in which valley weather is close and hot, though on hills surrounding it the rain is plentiful and monsoonish. Price— $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers per rupee. There was a prolonged, though not severe, shock of earthquake at Katmandu at 4-40 P.M. on Saturday.

The total numbers in receipt of relief during the preceding and present weeks are as follows:

Report of the Forest School for 1895-96.

Letter from the Inspector-General of Forests, No. 895, dated the 21st October 1896, submitting the above Report.

RESOLUTION.

1. During the twelve months ending 30th June 1896, the School continued under the Directorship of Mr. J. S. Gamble, M.A., with the exception of the period from 6th August to 27th October 1895, during which time he was absent on privilege leave and Mr. A Smythies, B.A., Deputy Director, officiated for him. The post of Deputy Director was held by Mr. Smythies, and while this officer officiated as Director, and again when he was on privilege leave, Mr A. F. Gradon, Instructor, officiated for him. On the 28th June Mr. Smythies was appointed to officiate as Conservator in Burma, and the permanent vacancy thus caused was filled by the appointment as Deputy Director of Mr. F. Gleadow, Professor of Forestry at the Poona College of Science. The other members of the School staff were Mr. C. G. Rogers, Mr. B. B. Osmaston, and Babu Upendra Nath Kanjilal. The staff was also assisted by the Assistant Agricultural Chemist, the Deputy Superintendent of the Indian Museum, the Superintendent of Forest Surveys, and the officers of the School Circle.

2. The following statement shows the number of students who have attended the School during the past four years:

	Paid.	Waive.	Total.
1892-93	81	22	103
1893-94	73	33	106
1894-95	72	34	106
1895-96	54	29	83

The number of students attending thus shows a marked decrease as compared with previous years. Of the 83 students who attended during the year, 5 of whom, however, were not present when the course was concluded at the end of the year, 16 were already in the Government Forest Service as Rangers, Foresters or Guards, 35 were stipendiary students, and 29 attended the School at their own expense, whilst the remaining 3 students were deputed from the Native States of Jodhpur and Kashmir.

3. Of the 49 students in the Senior Upper and Lower Classes, none obtained Honours, 34 obtained ordinary certificates, 29 as Rangers, and 5 as Foresters, 11 failed to pass, whilst 4 were prevented by various causes from appearing at the final examinations. These results are compared with those of the previous year as follows:

1895-96 . . .	41	8	29	5	8	3

It is observed that the report contains no comparison with the results of previous years; nor can it be ascertained, without reference to the appendices, how many of the men who failed were stipendiary and how many were private students. This information should be given, and results compared with those obtained in former years, in all future reports.

4. It is noticed that at the Entrance Examination held in March 1895 64 candidates presented themselves, of whom 31 passed. Of these, only 19 were admitted. The report does not fully explain, as it should do, the reasons which led to the exclusion of the 12 passed students and to the subsequent admission of 8 men who had originally failed to pass the entrance examination.

5. With reference to the fact reported that one stipendiary student proved himself unfit for service in the Forest Department and that he was consequently removed from the School, the Government of India consider that the powers conferred on the Director by the School rules 12 (ix) and 28 should be made full use of, and that stipendiary students whose progress or conduct is unsatisfactory should have their stipends reduced or withdrawn, and if necessary be removed from the School, rather than be allowed to remain there at Government expense, only to fail at the final examinations.

6. It is noticed that six stipendiary students failed to obtain certificates at the final examinations of March 1896. The important question of the desirability or otherwise of continuing the grant of stipends to students, who may nevertheless fail to obtain a certificate at the final examinations, which was referred to in paragraph 3 of the Government of India's Resolution on the Report for the year 1894-95, is not noticed in the present Report. Nor does the Director give any particulars regarding the practical results achieved during the year, with special reference to the educational and physical fitness of the students for their career in the Forest Service, as asked for in paragraph 4 of the same resolution. It is understood that the present report was written before the above orders were received, but these matters should in any case have been noticed. They should receive particular attention in the Report for the year 1896-97.

ORDER.—Ordered that the above Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India, and that copies be forwarded, for information, to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, the Local Governments and Administrations noted in the margin, the Department of Finance and Commerce, and the Comptroller and Auditor General; also to the Inspector-General of Forests for information and for communication to the Director of the Forest School and the Superintendent of Forest Surveys.

Ordered, further, that a copy, with copies of the Report, be forwarded to the Foreign Department for communication to the Jodhpur and Kashmir Darbars.

Government the further papers noted in the margin concerning the famine and relief operations, while your weekly and monthly telegrams bring the narrative of events down to the present time. Two sets of famine papers have already been presented to Parliament, and a third set is in the press.

2. The area of relief operations has considerably extended since January, and by the latest accounts relief of some kind was being given in parts of one hundred British districts, in four districts of the Nizam's territory, and in some other Native States. According to your monthly telegram of the 12th April, the main relief numbers were as follows :

Native States	14	145
	114	Grand total on relief 2,853,000.

The total numbers on relief had been as high as 3,216,000 during the week ending the 9th March, and they have again risen to 3,608,000 by the middle of May. Out of the earlier total, 1,654,000 were in the North-West Provinces and Oudh; afterwards the numbers on relief in those provinces fell 650,000 in consequence of the demand for labourers at the spring harvest, and in consequence of the partial improvement of the situation caused by the ingathering of the spring crops. In the Central Provinces, Bengal, Bombay, and Madras, the numbers on relief have advanced more or less steadily; and in these tracts the spring crops have not lessened the strain on the relief administration.

3. The result of the spring harvest over India is now approximately known. The rain from November to February has been unusually favourable to the spring crops. In the Punjab a good harvest has been realised or is expected over 85 per cent. of the usual wheat area; the spring grains form a much larger part of the food supply for the common people than in other provinces; the relief numbers have fallen; and any fear of famine for the greater part of the Punjab has practically passed away, though prices are still high, and some relief may continue to be needed until August next. In the North-West Provinces and Oudh a fair spring harvest has been obtained over two-thirds of the normal area devoted to that crop, with the result that prices have remained steady or have fallen, that the food supply has nowhere failed, and that the numbers receiving relief were, on the 16th April, 32 per cent. less than they were on the 5th March; though subsequent telegrams have shown that the numbers on relief had again risen to 1,316,000 by the middle of May. It appears to be uncertain how far into the autumn relief operations on a large scale may continue to be required. But it is quite clear that relief administration was begun in good time, and has been wisely and carefully conducted in those provinces. Even if relief should be required until October in the unfortunate districts of Bundelkund, there is ground for hoping that in the remainder of these provinces the people will be in good condition and good heart for returning quickly to their usual occupations, when the monsoon shall have favourably begun.

4. In Bengal the spring harvest has been satisfactory over South Behar; but the spring crops count for little in North Behar where distress has been keenest. Prices have not fallen in Bengal despite the large importations of Burma rice. There is one feature in the Bengal relief administration, which may be susceptible of explanation, and that is the large amount of gratuitous relief. According to the telegram of the 12th April, Bengal had 293,048 relief-workers and 223,784 dependents and persons on gratuitous relief of different kinds. At the end of a famine, after out-door work is stopped by rains, the numbers on gratuitous relief may be expected to increase in comparison with the relief-workers. But the proportion of people relieved gratuitously, 43 per cent. in Bengal is high for the month of April; in the North-West Provinces the corresponding proportion was 41 per cent.; in the Central Provinces 27 per cent.; and in Bombay 26 per cent. It is possible that the difficulty of devising and superintending a sufficient number of village works has led to the Bengal and North-West Provinces placing very large numbers on gratuitous relief thus early in the season. It is manifestly right to run no risks by causing weakly people to travel considerable distances to large relief works. But you and your officers are doubtless fully alive to the undesirability of giving gratuitous relief on an excessive scale early in the season.

5. In the Central Provinces the spring harvests appear to have been poor, and to have been reaped over a very reduced area only. Prices are very high, especially in some of the Satpura districts. And it appears that relief on a large scale will be required far into the autumn. In Bombay the numbers on relief have not advanced rapidly during the eight weeks ending on the 16th April; the spring harvests have been beneficial; and notwithstanding the aggravation caused by plague in the coast districts, the prospect is not so serious as was at one time feared. In Madras the numbers on relief have gone up recently, but the area of distress is limited, and good crops have been harvested in other parts of the presidency.

6. In regard to the results of the relief operations you were able to telegraph on the 12th April that the condition of the people in the affected tracts continued to be generally good in Madras, Bombay, Bengal, and Burma, and fair in the Punjab and Berar, while in all these six provinces the death-rate continued to be normal. In the North-West Provinces and Oudh the condition of the people is reported to be fair to good, though the death-rate is considerably above normal in the districts of Bundelkund and in some of the Oudh districts. Regarding the Central Provinces you report that in the wilder parts the poorer classes show signs of privation, some cases of emaciation still occur, and the mortality exceeds the normal rate. The latest complete statistics that have reached me are for the month of February, and in the undermentioned districts the death-rate of 1897 is 50 per cent. or more above the normal rate for the month, thus,—

Districts in which the death-rate of 1897 exceeds the normal death-rate by 50 per cent. or upwards.

The death-rate in some parts of the Central Provinces was very high; I observe the monthly famine statement gives the "deaths due directly or indirectly to the effects of privation" in the whole of the Central Provinces as 4,885 during the month of January, while your telegram of the 16th April reports the January death-rate in six of the districts of those provinces to have ranged between 5.3 and 6.9 per thousand, and in one sub-division, whether immigrants flock from Native States, to have reached 10.6 per thousand; but even here, in spite of exceptional difficulties, I trust that relief operations are now, and have for some time been, adequate and effective.

7. It is satisfactory to find that food supplies are nearly everywhere sufficient, local deficiencies being met by private imports. During the three months, January to the middle of April, nearly 268,000 tons of Burma rice were imported, and a large further surplus of rice (estimated at one million tons) is still available there. Your decision to trust to private trade for supplying food to the country has so far been amply justified. I approve your decision to take steps to secure supplies of food for certain parts of the Central Provinces, where transport is difficult during the rainy season.

8. The contributions to the Mansion House Fund and other public funds raised for the succour of sufferers from the present famine in India, exclusive of gifts in kind, appear to have reached a total about 142 lakhs of rupees (887,000l.) by the middle of May; and the Central Relief Committee report that the local Committees in the several provinces ask for grants aggregating 166 lakhs. Already 50 lakhs have been distributed to the provincial Committees in British India and in Native States, who are devoting the money to supplying clothing and small comforts to sufferers and to giving doles to the respectable poor. Voluntary associations and workers are helping to husband these resources, to prevent abuses, and to make the money do as much good as possible. Arrangements are being made to distribute the remaining funds at the proper season so as to enable the poorer cultivators to buy seed-corn and cattle, and thus to recover their position. The splendid liberality, shown by the United Kingdom, Canada, and other British Colonies, and also by many charitable people in foreign countries, will be greatly appreciated in India; and I am confident that these funds, which have been contributed by all classes, will be administered as a sacred trust by all committees and individuals engaged in their distribution.

9. It was not to be expected that India could pass through a severe and far reaching famine without much suffering to her people and some loss of life; but I am satisfied that, on the whole, your Excellency's Government, and the many local authorities and local bodies engaged in the contest with famine, have been unquestionably successful, and I am glad to assure you that the arduous and self-sacrificing labours of those on whom this duty has fallen are fully appreciated in this country.

I have the honour to be,

MY LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

GEORGE HAMILTON.

ORDER.—Ordered, that the above despatch be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations and to the Vice-Chairman and Honorary Secretary, Indian Famine Charitable Relief Fund, for information, and that it be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.

[True Extract.]

T. W. HOLDERNESS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
(FAMINE.)

Return of the number of persons in receipt of relief in districts affected by scarcity.

NOTE.—The figures are compiled from the Local Gazettes, and give the District details of the Provincial totals published weekly in the Crop and Summary in the Gazette of India.

Non-labouring children and other dependants of relief workers are classed as on relief works when distinguished in the local returns from gratuitously relieved in poor-houses or at their homes.

INVENTIONS and DESIGNS.

Calcutta, the 17th June 1897.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 1769 P.—APPLICATIONS in respect of the undermentioned inventions have been filed, under the provisions of the Inventions and Designs Act of 1888, in the office of the Secretary appointed under that Act, during the week ending 12th June 1897:—

No. 224 of 1897.—Allibhoi Valliji and Sons, tin despatch box manufacturers, Multan Cantonment, for a despatch box, to be termed the "Diamond Jubilee patent despatch box."

No. 225 of 1897.—Hugh Jorwerth Roberts, M.I.M.E., of Messrs. Burn & Co., Howrah, for a collapsible centre.

No. 226 of 1897.—William Henry Dacre Tyler, gentleman, of 14 Kirkstall road, Streatham hill, Thomas Hann, mechanical engineer, and William Bromley, commercial traveller, both of 18 Upper Kennington lane, all in the county of Surrey, for improvements in or connected with velocipedes and other vehicles.

No. 227 of 1897.—Paluru Sankaranarayana, M.A., retired educational officer, of 69 Swami Pillai street, Chulai, Madras, for a contrivance for hanging a lamp or other article.

No. 228 of 1897.—John Thomas, builder, of Summer hill, Sydney, in the colony of New South Wales, for improvements in cycle brakes.

No. 1770 P.—THE specification of the undermentioned invention has been filed, under the provisions of the Inventions and Designs Act of 1888, in the office of the Secretary appointed under that Act, and copies have been sent to the Governments of Fort St. George, Bombay, and Burma, and the Director of the department of land records and agriculture, North-Western Provinces and Oudh. This and other specifications are open to public inspection, from 11 A.M. to 4 P.M., at the Secretary's office (Imperial Secretariat, Government Place, West, Calcutta), on payment of a fee of one rupee, and a certified copy of any one of them will be supplied on payment of the fixed expenses of copying:—

No. 35 of 1897.—George Herbert Ellis, engineer, of 2 Lansdowne grove, Neasden, in the county of Middlesex, for a new or improved knife cleaner. (Specification filed 1 June 1897.)

No. 1771 P.—WHEREAS the inventors of the undermentioned inventions have respectively failed to pay, within the time limited in that behalf by the fourth schedule to the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888), the fees hereinafter respectively mentioned, it is hereby notified that under the provisions of section 8, sub-section (2) of the said Act, the exclusive privilege of making, selling, and using the said inventions in British India and of authorizing others so to do has ceased:—

No. 347 of 1891.—Eugen Reverdy's invention for a new or improved machine for sorting hulled grain from unhulled grain and chaff. (Specification filed 7 March 1893.)

No. 89 of 1892.—David Rowell's invention for improvements in apparatus for withering or drying tea. (Specification filed 9 March 1893.)

No. 219 of 1892.—Thomas William Worsdell, August von Borries and Richard Herbert Lapage's invention for improvements in compound engines. (Specification filed 7 March 1893.)

No. 318 of 1892.—Julius Evinof's invention for improved means for locking nuts on bolts. (Specification filed 7 March 1893.)

Fee in respect of the continuance of an exclusive privilege—

(4) (a) After the filing of the specification and before the expiration of the fourth year from the date of the filing thereof—

The sum of ₹50 for each of the said inventions.

No. 277 of 1889.—John Howard Ross and Edward Elijah Atkin's invention for improvements in over-head oil lamps. (Specification filed 7 March 1890.)

No. 304 of 1889.—Edward Jamison O'Brien's invention for improvements in machines for removing lint from cotton seed. (Specification filed 10 March 1890.)

Fee in respect of the continuance of an exclusive privilege—

(4) (d) After the expiration of the sixth year and before the expiration of the seventh year from the date of the filing of the specification—

The sum of ₹50 for each of the said inventions.

No. 25 of 1888.—Charles Ewing's invention for an improvement in the construction of the "drunken eccentric" punkah-pulling machine. (Specification filed 8 March 1889.)

Fee in respect of the continuance of an exclusive privilege—

(4) (e) After the expiration of the seventh year and before the expiration of the eighth year from the date of the filing of the specification—

The sum of ₹50 for the said invention.

NOTICES.

All communications relating to Act V (the Inventions and Designs Act) of 1888 should be addressed to the "Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture (PATENTS BRANCH), CALCUTTA."

The office of the Secretary under the Act is open for the transaction of business from 11 A.M. to 4 P.M. on all days except Sundays and gazetted holidays.

The Government of India are advised that as trade marks are not "designs" within the meaning of the Act, they cannot be registered under Part II.

The fees payable under the fourth and sixth schedules are now collected in cash, and applicants are warned that they must be responsible for any delay in cashing cheques.

Copies of the weekly notifications, and of the quarterly lists, of applications and specifications filed in the Secretary's office are now on sale to the public at one anna and eight annas a copy respectively.

Attention is requested to the rules made by the Government on the 10th October, 1895 in regard to the preparation of applications, specifications and drawings.

All applications made under the Inventions and Designs Act, V of 1888, will from this date (December 19th, 1895) lie in the visitors' room of the Patents Office for ten days from the date of the Gazette of India in which their filing may have been notified; or, if the tenth day is a holiday, till the evening of the office day next following.

At the time of delivering or sending an application for leave to file a specification, the applicant shall cause a duplicate copy of the application to be delivered or sent therewith to the Secretary.

A. T. PRINGLE,
Offg. Secy. under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

The Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, respectively.

In supercession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January, 1899, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues, as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1870:—

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Home Department.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Judicial).

RESOLUTION.

The Governor General in Council has been pleased to issue orders as follows for the release, as an act of clemency and grace, of a certain number of prisoners (criminal and civil) and the remission of a portion of the sentences of other prisoners in all the Jails throughout British India, and in the Penal Settlement of Port Blair and the Nicobars, on the day appointed for public rejoicing to celebrate the completion of the sixtieth year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, Empress of India.

2. Local Governments and Administrations have been desired on this day to release 10 per cent. of all the convicts under sentence, provided that their conduct during imprisonment has been good and that their release is not likely to give rise to a revival of blood feuds or professional crime. Special consideration has been given to the question of the release of Burmans convicted of dakaiti and similar offences during the disturbances which followed the annexation of Upper Burma. Including 35 Burmans whose release from the Andamans has been sanctioned, the release of 100 such convicts has been decided on, while the case of those confined in the Jails of Bengal has not yet been definitely settled. With a view also to extending clemency and grace to criminals whose cases would not be covered by the above concession, but who are appropriate subjects for clemency on this occasion, His Excellency in Council has directed the release of (1) all female convicts whose offences were not of a serious nature; (2) all persons under sentence of one month's imprisonment or less who have on this day worked out half their sentence; and (3) of all persons under sentence of not more than six months' imprisonment, whose offences were in any way attributable to the distress which has prevailed in the past year.

3. His Excellency in Council has also been pleased to extend a measure of grace and clemency to those who in the interests of society cannot now be released, by directing that remissions of sentences be made which shall be graduated according to the character of the sentence in each case and which may extend to a month's remission for each year of imprisonment passed in Jail.

4. The Governor General in Council has also directed the absolute release in celebration of this day of 341 male and female convicts in the Andamans, and the conditional release of 32 convicts under sentence for dakaiti, 10 female convicts (wives of the latter) being released unconditionally at the same time. The original recommendation submitted by the Superintendent of Port Blair included 43 Burmans and 40 convicts sentenced for dakaiti. The release of 35 of the former has been sanctioned, and is included in the number (341) given above, and the Superintendent has been authorized to substitute an ordinary convict for each Burman, and for each convict under sentence for dakaiti, whose release may have been declined. The total number of convicts of all classes at Port Blair who will be released in connection with the celebration of the sixtieth year of Her Majesty's reign will thus be about 400. His Excellency in Council has further sanctioned, in the case of other convicts in the Settlement, certain concessions which, while lessening the severity of the sentences of those who have by their good conduct merited consideration, will not diminish the punitive or deterrent character of the sentences of convicts who have made no progress towards reformation.

5. The Governor General in Council has been pleased to order the release of all persons confined in prison in execution of decrees of the Civil Courts whose debts do not exceed the sum of Rs. 100, provided they are poor and not fraudulent; and the payment by Government of the debt or debts for which they are detained.

6. Owing to the interruption of communication with Assam it has been impossible for the Chief Commissioner to report to the Government of India the number of releases that will be effected today in that Province, but, excluding Assam, the following is the number of prisoners who will be released this day in accordance with these orders:

				Male.	Female.	TOTAL.
From Jails in British India		17,790	1,782	19,572
From the Andamans		370	30	400
Civil prisoners		102	...	102
GRAND TOTAL				18,262	1,812	20,074

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be published for general information, and forwarded to Local Governments and Administrations, and to the Superintendent of Port Blair and the Nicobars.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be communicated to the Foreign, Military and Finance and Commerce Departments for information.

EAST INDIAN RAILWAY SYNOPSIS OF TRANSACTIONS FOR, AND TO END OF, THE YEAR 1896.

No. 326-A. R., dated Simla, the 16th June 1897,

READ the following—

Note by A. R. BECHER, Esq., Officiating Accountant General, Public Works Department, on the synopsis of transactions of the East Indian Railway for the year 1896.

In continuation of my note No. 296-R. of 28th May 1896, I beg to submit, for the information of the Government of India, a synopsis of the transactions of the East Indian Railway from the date of its purchase by the State (1st January 1880) to the close of the year 1896.

2. The Capital Expenditure of the East Indian Railway may be thus stated.

Under the Purchase Act, 42 and 43 Vict., Cap. CCVI, the Capital Stock of the Company was taken over by Government at a commuted value of £125 for every £100 of Capital Stock :—

The share capital of the Company, amounting to £26,200,000, was accordingly stated at	£ 32,750,000
Under the same Act the debentures and debenture stock were taken over by Government, and amounted to	4,450,000
TOTAL	37,200,000

The Company had at 31st December 1879 overdrawn from Government on Capital Account	26,45,269
The Cost of the land taken up for the Railway and paid for by Government had been	59,26,183 and the further outlay to close of the year 1896 from grants by Government from borrowed moneys and from debentures raised by the Company has been :—

On Construction Account	4,68,73,444
„ Stores Suspense Account	90,05,233
„ Capital Advance Account	8,63,928
	5,50,14,749
	6,35,86,201

Deduct—Assets on the 31st December 1879, received by Government on purchase of the line, and made over to the Company—

Stores in stock	76,65,340
Balance of cash and other Suspense accounts	8,22,167
	84,87,507
Realization by the sale of surplus and obsolete stores originally valued at ₹16,06,079 not taken over by the undertaking, and other miscellaneous receipts	6,30,652
	91,18,159

making the Capital outlay at close of 1896 . . . ₹ 5,44,68,042 + £37,200,000

3. During the year 1896 the gross traffic earnings were	5,40,69,142
the working expenses	1,69,19,958
and the net earnings	3,71,49,184

4. These results of working the East Indian Railway affected the finances of the Government of India in the manner and to the extent exhibited in the following paragraphs.

5. The liabilities incurred by the Government of India in connection with the purchase of the East Indian Railway are as follows :—

Sterling liabilities—	Capital. £	Interest. £
(a) Debenture stock	1,500,000	67,500
(b) Annuities, terminable in 1953	26,200,000	1,179,000 (inclusive of pay- ment for redemp- tion of Capital.
(c) Deferred annuities	6,550,000	262,000
Less —Annual payment for redemption of Capital		1,508,500 65,500
	Net sterling annual liability	1,443,000 which at 14·232d. per rupee=₹2,43,33,895.

6. The liabilities incurred by Government since the purchase of the line have been—

Debentures of old Company discharged	3,54,66,835
Debentures raised by new Company (£450,000)	82,66,415
Construction Account	4,68,73,444
Stores Suspense Account	90,05,233
Capital Advance Account	—8,63,928
	5,50,14,749
Less —Outlay met from debentures raised by Company	82,66,415 4,67,48,334
Land charges by the State	59,26,183
Add —
Capital overdrawn at time of purchase	26,45,269
Less —Credits to Government for value of stores, etc., made over to the Company	9,90,53,036 91,18,159
TOTAL	8,99,34,877

The debentures raised by the Company form a sterling liability of £450,000 bearing interest at 2½ per cent. per annum, and the difference between the above total and the rupee equivalent of the debentures (8,99,34,877—82,66,415), vis., ₹8,16,68,462, represents the rupee liabilities incurred by Government.

7. The following, therefore, seems to be a fair account of the transactions of the railway, as they affect Government, for 1896:—

	R	R
Traffic earnings	5,40,69,142
Less—Working expenses	1,69,19,958
Net earnings		3,71,49,184
Sterling liabilities in connection with the purchase, £1,443,000 at 14'232d. per rupee	2,43,33,895
Interest on debentures, £7,500	1,25,981
Interest on rupee liabilities—
Interest on outlay to 30th June 1895, including land charges, R8,13,35,890 at 4 per cent.	32,53,436
Interest on subsequent outlay at 3½ per cent., viz.:—
During the second half of 1895	13,34,022
Half outlay during 1896 (—10,01,450)—5,00,725
	8,33,297	29,165
Payment of surplus profits to the Company	12,45,733
Payment to the Company's Provident Fund	3,71,502
Total payments		2,93,59,712
Net profit to Government		77,89,472

The corresponding net profit was—

	R
in 1895	70,76,494
„ 1894	56,27,445
„ 1893	85,22,279
„ 1892	73,98,751
„ 1891	1,02,36,236

8. The Capital outlay on the undertaking may be taken as under—

	£	R
Sterling (vide paragraph 2)	37,200,000
Converted into Indian currency at the average rate of 19'561d. per rupee at time of purchase		44,72,72,180
Rupee debt	R8,99,34,877
Less—Rupee value of debentures discharged	R3,54,66,835
		5,44,68,042
TOTAL		50,17,40,222
The interest at 1 per cent. on this Capital would be		50,17,402

It follows from this, that—

- (i) the net earnings of the railway are $\frac{27,149}{50,17}$, or 7'40 per cent. on the Capital invested by the Government in it;
- (ii) the burden which Government bears in respect of it is $\frac{29,352}{50,17}$ or 5'85 per cent.;
- (iii) the apparent clear profit to Government is 1'55 per cent.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the note and accompaniment now read, be forwarded to the Consulting Engineer to the Government of India for Railways, Calcutta, and to the Department of Finance and Commerce, for information.

W. S. S. BISSET, Colonel, R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Maritime Sanitary Notice, No. 3.

The Minister of the Interior :

Seen the Law for the protection of public hygiene and health (Sections 49 and 50) and the Maritime Sanitary notices of December 29th, 1896, No. 4, and January 14th, 1897, No. 1.

Seen the International Sanitary Convention concluded at Venice on the 18th March 1897 ;

Whereas it is deemed expedient to place the proposals made at the said Conference in harmony with the Sanitary Measures intended to prevent the importation of plague into the Kingdom.

Having heard the Superior Board of Health ; hereby decrees :

Section 1.—All vessels coming from ports infected with plague or belonging to local areas containing plague-stricken places, before being admitted to free pratique in the Kingdom, must undergo a medical inspection of the persons on board and disinfection of their soiled wearing apparel or other effects. The bilge-water will be pumped out after disinfection and good drinking-water substituted for the water stored on board.

The following rules must also be observed :

1st.—Vessels provided with a Medical Officer and with a disinfecting apparatus will be admitted to free pratique, provided such Medical Officer will declare upon oath :

(b) that neither at the time of sailing, nor during the voyage, did any actual or suspected cases of plague occur on board ; and.—Vessels having on board a Medical Officer, but not provided with a disinfecting apparatus, will be admitted to free pratique, provided it is substantiated by a sworn declaration of the Medical Officer :

(a) that no wearing apparel or other effects, nor luggage, were shipped without previous disinfection ;

(b) that neither at the time of sailing, nor during the voyage, did any actual or suspected cases of the disease occur on board.

3rd.—Vessels which are not provided with a Medical Officer, nor with a disinfecting apparatus, but which were free from disease during the voyage, will be admitted to free pratique after having gone through the treatment set forth in the first paragraph of this section, as well as after having undergone all such other precautionary measures as the Sanitary Authorities may deem expedient to order, in special cases, so as to make sure of the healthy condition of the vessel.

Section 2.—Vessels on which either at the time of sailing or during the voyage, actual or suspected cases of plague have occurred, can be admitted to free pratique subsequent to the carrying out of all the measures set forth in Section 1, paragraph 1, and provided the following conditions are observed :

1st.—In the case of vessels having a Medical Officer and a disinfecting apparatus, free pratique will be granted if such Medical Officer will declare on oath that at least 12 days have elapsed since the death or complete recovery of any stricken person on board ; and that the effects and articles belonging to the persons so stricken, the persons who attended upon them, and the cabins in which the sick persons were laid up, have been disinfected.

and.—In the case of vessels which are provided with a Medical Officer, but not with a disinfecting apparatus, they will be admitted to free pratique, provided such Medical Officer will, upon oath, declare that 14 days at least have elapsed from the date of death or complete recovery of the stricken persons, and that the chemical disinfections mentioned in the preceding paragraph have been carried out.

3rd.—In the case of vessels not provided with a Medical Officer, nor with a disinfecting apparatus, but which may have had on board suspected or actual cases of plague, even before 14 days, they will not be admitted to free pratique till after they have been ordered off to a quarantine station, and kept there for such period of time as may be deemed necessary for their disinfection, and to make sure that they have been restored to a healthy condition.

Section 3.—Vessels which at the time of their arrival have on board ascertained or suspected cases of plague, or which may have had such cases since less than 12 days, will, none excepted, be ordered off to a quarantine station, where they will undergo such treatment as will in each case be prescribed by the Ministry of the Interior.

Section 4.—The importation, either direct or indirect, of the following goods from plague-stricken places is forbidden :

- (a) worn wearing apparel or other domestic effects carried as wholesale merchandise ;
- (b) rags, even if compressed by hydraulic power and carried as bale merchandise ;
- (c) Raw, fresh, or dry hides ;
- (d) Animal refuse, nails, hoofs, bristles, hair, raw wool ;
- (e) Hair.

The prohibition mentioned in this Section will be extended to goods of a similar description, although originating from other countries in all cases when their transport was effected on vessels which may have shipped susceptible articles at infected ports, excepting in cases when such goods shall have been placed in special holds apart from the goods, importation whereof is forbidden.

Section 5.—All goods specified in Section 4, originating from a healthy port belonging to a country in which there are plague-stricken districts, must be accompanied by a medical certificate and a certificate of origin issued by the competent local authorities and visaed by the Italian Consul or Consular Agent within whose jurisdiction the place of shipment is situated.

Section 6.—The medical inspection of ships must take place during the day time.

Section 7.—The Sanitary Measures set forth in the present notice will be applied at the first port of call, excepting in special cases. At the subsequent ports of call, provided nothing abnormal occurs during the voyage after the first port of call, the Sanitary Measures will be limited to a general medical inspection of all persons on board and to the disinfection of the effects intended to be landed.

For the present vessels ordered to proceed to a quarantine station will all be sent to the Asinara Station ; but should the opportunity arise, another station will be appointed.

Section 8.—Notices, dated 29th December 1896, No. 4, and 14th January 1897, No. 1, are cancelled.

The Prefects of the Maritime Provinces and the Harbour Authorities are directed to carry out the objects of the present notice.

Rome, May 8th, 1897.

The Minister,
RUDINI.

MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR.

1897.

Maritime Sanitary Notice, No. 4.

Whereas by Maritime Sanitary Notice of this date, No. 3, general provisions were adopted relating to the Sanitary Measures against the plague ;

Pursuant to the Law of the 22nd December 1888, No. 5849 (3rd Series) ;

The Minister of the Interior

Decrees

For the purpose of Section 1 of the said notice, the ports, situate on the coast between the frontier of Hindostan with Beluchistan and the Portuguese Possession of Goa, are declared infected with the plague.

Section 2nd.

The prohibition of importing goods mentioned in Section 4 of the said notice is applicable to the ports specified in the preceding Section as well as to all the States and districts included in the Presidency of Bombay.

The Prefects of the Maritime Provinces and the Harbour Authorities of the Kingdom are directed to carry out the object of the present notice.

Rome, May 8th, 1897.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Home Department.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Judicial).

RESOLUTION.

The Governor General in Council has been pleased to issue orders as follows for the release, as an act of clemency and grace, of a certain number of prisoners (criminal and civil) and the remission of a portion of the sentences of other prisoners in all the Jails throughout British India, and in the Penal Settlement of Port Blair and the Nicobars, on the day appointed for public rejoicing to celebrate the completion of the sixtieth year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, Empress of India.

2. Local Governments and Administrations have been desired on this day to release 10 per cent. of all the convicts under sentence, provided that their conduct during imprisonment has been good and that their release is not likely to give rise to a revival of blood feuds or professional crime. Special consideration has been given to the question of the release of Burmans convicted of dakaiti and similar offences during the disturbances which followed the annexation of Upper Burma. Including 35 Burmans whose release from the Andamans has been sanctioned, the release of 100 such convicts has been decided on, while the case of those confined in the Jails of Bengal has not yet been definitely settled. With a view also to extending clemency and grace to criminals whose cases would not be covered by the above concession, but who are appropriate subjects for clemency on this occasion, His Excellency in Council has directed the release of (1) all female convicts whose offences were not of a serious nature; (2) all persons under sentence of one month's imprisonment or less who have on this day worked out half their sentence; and (3) of all persons under sentence of not more than six months' imprisonment, whose offences were in any way attributable to the distress which has prevailed in the past year.

3. His Excellency in Council has also been pleased to extend a measure of grace and clemency to those who in the interests of society cannot now be released, by directing that remissions of sentences be made which shall be graduated according to the character of the sentence in each case and which may extend to a month's remission for each year of imprisonment passed in Jail.

4. The Governor General in Council has also directed the absolute release in celebration of this day of 341 male and female convicts in the Andamans, and the conditional release of 32 convicts under sentence for dakaiti, 10 female convicts (wives of the latter) being released unconditionally at the same time. The original recommendation submitted by the Superintendent of Port Blair included 43 Burmans and 40 convicts sentenced for dakaiti. The release of 35 of the former has been sanctioned, and is included in the number (341) given above, and the Superintendent has been authorized to substitute an ordinary convict for each Burman, and for each convict under sentence for dakaiti, whose release may have been declined. The total number of convicts of all classes at Port Blair who will be released in connection with the celebration of the sixtieth year of Her Majesty's reign will thus be about 400. His Excellency in Council has further sanctioned, in the case of other convicts in the Settlement, certain concessions which, while lessening the severity of the sentences of those who have by their good conduct merited consideration, will not diminish the punitive or deterrent character of the sentences of convicts who have made no progress towards reformation.

5. The Governor General in Council has been pleased to order the release of all persons confined in prison in execution of decrees of the Civil Courts whose debts do not exceed the sum of Rs. 100, provided they are poor and not fraudulent; and the payment by Government of the debt or debts for which they are detained.

6. Owing to the interruption of communication with Assam it has been impossible for the Chief Commissioner to report to the Government of India the number of releases that will be effected today in that Province, but, excluding Assam, the following is the number of prisoners who will be released this day in accordance with these orders :

	Male.	Female.	TOTAL.
From Jails in British India	17,790	1,782	19,572
From the Andamans	370	30	400
Civil prisoners	102	...	102
GRAND TOTAL	18,262	1,812	20,074

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be published for general information, and forwarded to Local Governments and Administrations, and to the Superintendent of Port Blair and the Nicobars.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be communicated to the Foreign, Military and Finance and Commerce Departments for information.

POLICE.

The 24th June, 1897.

No. 359.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that in the Notification of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 4, dated the 6th January 1891, for the words "by the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway" the words "by the Ahmedabad-Parantij Railway, by the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, by the Rajpipla State Railway" shall be substituted.

TELEGRAPH.

The 19th June, 1897.

No. 241.—Corrigendum.—In Public Works Department Notification No. 243, dated the 21st May 1896, for "2nd May 1896" read "1st May 1896."

The 25th June, 1897.

No. 245.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 7 of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 (XIII of 1885), and in supersession of the rules published with the Notification of the Government of India in the Public Works Department (Telegraphs) No. 214, dated the 10th June, 1891, as amended by subsequent notifications, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules under the said Act and to declare that they shall have effect on and from the first day of July, 1897:

SECTION I.

GENERAL.

1. Telegraph Offices in India are distinguished as follows:

(a) Government Telegraph Offices—These include the Telegraph Departmental Offices and Postal Combined Offices.

(b) Railway Telegraph Offices—These include State Railway Offices and Railway Offices not the property of the State, which are licensed for working under section 4, Act XIII of 1885. Under this head are also included Telegraph Offices on Canals.

2. Business hours.—I. Telegrams are accepted at all Government Telegraph Offices during the hours they are open for business according to their classification notified in the List of Offices published in the Telegraph Guide.

II. Telegraph Offices of the 1st class are open day and night.

III. Telegraph Offices of the 2nd class are open 14 hours daily, or from 7 A.M. to 9 P.M. (local time), except on Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday, when they are open only from 7 to 9 A.M. and from 4 to 9 P.M. These hours are subject to modification to suit local requirements.

IV. Telegraph Offices of the 3rd class are open about seven hours daily, and usually from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. (local time), except on Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday, when they are open only from 7 to 9 A.M. and 4 to 6 P.M. These hours are subject to modification to suit local requirements.

V. Railway Telegraph Offices accept telegrams during the hours for which they are open for Railway business, but always subject to the necessities of Railway traffic.

3. Telegram forms are supplied free at all Telegraph and Post Offices.

4. Translation of telegrams.—At Telegraph Offices in places other than the Presidency towns and Rangoon, every assistance possible is to be afforded to natives in the translation of their telegrams into English, and of telegrams in English addressed to them into the vernacular.

5. Complaints.—All complaints should be addressed to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta.

SECTION II.

RULES FOR INLAND TELEGRAMS.

GENERAL.

1. Inland telegrams are those which are sent to, or received from, places within Indian limits. Such telegrams are subject to the regulations laid down from time to time by the Government of India.

2. The accuracy of telegrams is not guaranteed, and the Sender and Receiver must accept all risks arising from non-delivery, errors, or delays.

3. Legibility and Forms.—To secure accuracy and rapidity of transmission, Senders of telegrams are advised to write them in a clear and unmistakable hand, and on the proper forms, which can be obtained free of charge at all Telegraph and Post Offices. Telegrams written on plain paper are, however, accepted at all Offices.

Note—Books (price 4 annas each) containing 100 forms for Inland telegrams, with counterfoils, can be purchased at the principal Government Telegraph Offices.

4. Offices where Inland telegrams are accepted.—Inland telegrams are accepted at all Telegraph Offices and Post Offices in India, except at some Branch Post Offices. They are also accepted under certain conditions at Military Field Telegraph Offices.

5. Postal Combined Offices are Postal Telegraph Offices in telegraph connection with other Telegraph Offices.

6. Postal Receiving Offices are Post Offices which are not in telegraph connection with Telegraph Offices, but which receive Inland telegrams and despatch them by post to a Telegraph Office. Such telegrams are sent Registered and postage-free by first post.

7. Inland telegrams may be also posted by the Sender to the nearest Telegraph Office, together with Telegraph or Postage stamps sufficient for their payment, and in this case a receipt for the amount will be returned post-free to the Sender. In the case of a telegram sent by post to a Telegraph Office, under the preceding or this rule, with an insufficient number of stamps, the deficiency will be recovered from the Addressee (see Rule 71).

8. Railway Offices.—All paid telegrams, except Press (see Rule 132), can be sent from any Government Telegraph Office to any Railway Telegraph Office, or vice versa, without additional charge.

9. Objectionable telegrams.—Telegraph Offices are required to refuse to transmit any telegram which may be of a decidedly objectionable or alarming character. Should the character of a telegram be open to doubt, the matter shall be referred to a Secretary to Government if the telegram be tendered at a seat of Government, or to the chief Civil or Military Officer if tendered at another place.

10. General Division.—Inland telegrams are divided into three classes:

- (a) State (or Government) telegrams (Rules 37 to 44).
- (b) Service telegrams (Rules 45 to 48).
- (c) Private telegrams.

Note.—State telegrams have no priority over Private telegrams, and take their turn with the latter according to Class (Rules 62 and 63), in the order in which tendered.

MODE OF WRITING, ETC.

11. Characters.—Inland telegrams must be written legibly in characters which have their equivalents in telegraphic signals. These characters or signals are the following:

A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0.

Note.—There are no telegraphic signals for Roman numerals, such as I, II, etc.

(c) Stops and other signs.

Full-stop (.), Comma (,), Semi-colon (;), Colon (:), Note of interrogation (?), Note of exclamation (!), Apostrophe ('), Hyphen (-), Brackets or sign of a parenthesis (), Inverted commas (" "), Bar of division (/), Underline.

(d) Special Instructions and Conventional Signs (see Rules 15 to 17).

Abbreviated form.	English meaning.
BPD .	Boat paid (Rule 83).
BPDN .	Boat paid double (Rule 83).
RP .	Reply paid (Rule 91).
RP Rs.—	Reply paid—rupees or annas (Rule 91).
TC .	Collation or repetition (Rule 101).
PC .	Telegram with Telegraphic Advice of Delivery (Rule 104).
Express .	Express (Rules 113 and 114).
XP .	Express paid (Rule 115).
XP Rs.—	Express paid—rupees or annas (Rule 115).
Post .	Post (Rule 114).
PR .	Post Registered (Rule 118).
RO .	To be delivered open (Rule 80).
MP .	To be delivered into the hands of the Addressee himself (Rule 79).
TR .	To be kept at Telegraph Office till called for (Rule 81).

12. Language, etc.—Subject to the above limitation, telegrams may be sent in English or in the vernaculars, or in any foreign language, or in Cipher if written in Arabic numerals. Fictitious words, i.e., words not recognised in any language (such as Anglerlog, Brutaster, etc.), and wrongly spelt words are inadmissible.

Note.—Groups of letters not forming words ("Letter cipher") cannot be transmitted in Private telegrams, unless they represent Trade or Commercial marks, or are among the abbreviations sanctioned by Rule 58.

13. Erasures, etc.—Every interlineation, reference, erasure, or re-written word, must be authenticated by the Sender or by his representative.

14. Parts of a telegram.—The different parts forming an Inland telegram should be written in the following order:

- (a) Special Instructions if any (Rules 15—17).
- (b) The Address (Rules 18—33).
- (c) The Office of origin.
- (d) The Sender's Name (Rule 34).
- (e) The Text.

15. Special Instructions.—The Sender should write upon the form, in the space marked Official Instructions, his Special Instructions (if any) regarding delivery at destination, prepayment of reply, advice of delivery, collation (or repetition), open delivery, or delivery only to the Addressee himself, etc.

16. In the case of a Multiple telegram, the Special Instructions which concern each Addressee should be written immediately before his name; however, if the Multiple telegram is also a collated (or repeated) one, it is sufficient if the Special Instruction for Collation precedes the first Address.

17. Special Instructions should be written in the abbreviated forms given in Rule 11 (d) and put between signs of parenthesis. They are not charged for.

Note.—For further particulars regarding the Sender's Instructions, see Rules 91, 100, 104, etc.

18. Address.—The Address includes the Addressee's name and address, and the name of the Office to which the telegram is to go. Care should be taken that the latter is written as given in the List of Telegraph Offices published in the Telegraph Guide.

19. The Address should contain all the particulars necessary to ensure the delivery of the telegram without search or enquiry.

20. In the case of large towns, the Address ought to contain the name of the street and the number of the house, or, in the absence of these particulars, to specify the profession of the Addressee or give any other useful information.

21. Even for small towns, the name of the Address ought to be, as far as possible, accompanied by additional particulars to guide the Delivering Office in case of alteration of the proper name.

22. Insufficient Address.—Telegrams, the Address of which does not satisfy the conditions laid down in the preceding rules, are nevertheless accepted and transmitted at the Sender's risk.

23. In every case the Sender has to bear the consequences of an insufficient Address which, after the telegram has been despatched, can neither be completed nor altered, except by a paid Service Advice (Rule 46).

24. Code or Abbreviated Addresses.—The Addressee's name and address may be written in a Code or abbreviated form. However, the right of an Addressee to have a telegram thus addressed, delivered to him, is subject to an arrangement made between such Addressee and the Telegraph Office which has to deliver the telegram (see Rule 26).

25. When a telegram is addressed to the care of a person, who has registered an abbreviated Address, the word or words representing the Code address should be preceded by the words "care of," or their equivalent.

26. Registered Addresses—Any firm or individual expecting to receive telegrams can register a Code or Abbreviated Address at the Government Telegraph Office from which such telegrams have to be delivered. The fee for registration of each such address is Rs. 10 per calendar year, payable in advance on the 1st January, or Rs. 50 for all time, with an additional fee of Rs. 5 for every change of the word or words selected.

27. A Code or Abbreviated Address may be registered on any date; thus, if on 1st November an address is registered, ten rupees are charged, and a second charge of ten rupees is made if the Address is renewed on 1st January following. The additional fee of five rupees is charged for every change of the word or words selected, or transfer to another Telegraph Office, but not for change of residence within the delivery limits of the registering Office, or for change of name or title of firm or person, so long as the identity is the same, and it is not a case of transfer from one firm to another: if it is a case of transfer, a fee of ten rupees is charged.

28. Code or Abbreviated Addresses are considered confidential.

29. No Code or Abbreviated Address can be accepted which has already been registered locally by another firm or individual.

30. The Government Telegraph Department accepts no responsibility in respect of the delivery of any telegram having a Code or Abbreviated Address if such Address has not been registered, or for delay in delivering such telegram. Registration is essential in all cases of persons who frequently receive telegrams addressed to them by an abbreviated name, and Telegraph Officials can decline to deliver such telegrams if, after notice has been given, the address has not been registered.

31. For Code or Abbreviated Addresses only genuine words or real names may be registered. Combinations of Christian names and surnames, combinations of parts of two names, combinations of two separate words, misspelt abbreviation of one or more words, are all inadmissible.

32. The following are examples of inadmissible Code addresses:

Granotel for Grand Hotel.

Willsmith for William Smith.

Brooksons for Brook and Sons.

Macmeth for Macdowell, Methven & Co.

33. Persons wishing to register Code or Abbreviated Addresses are invited to choose uncommon words, not their own names, to avoid all risk of telegrams being misdelivered to other persons of the same name.

34. Sender's name.—This means the actual name or designation of the Sender. Name and designation cannot both be admitted free. If the Sender should desire his own designation to be telegraphed in addition to his name, it must be paid for. A telegram cannot be sent by several persons in their separate names; it must be in the name of only one individual or firm; it may, however, be sent by a party acting jointly having a recognised collective capacity, but the designation or style of such party must be used, not their several names. The Sender's name and address may, however, be transmitted free in a Code or abbreviated form if registered under Rule 26.

35. Text.—No Private telegram or series of telegrams containing more than five hundred words can be sent at any one time by any individual or firm, and no subsequent telegram by the same individual or firm till after the lapse of three hours, unless the telegraph lines be free of all other traffic.

Note.—Regarding the length of Press telegrams, see Rule 128, VIII.

36. Signature.—The true signature and address of the Sender must always be written at the foot of the telegram. The Sender of a Private telegram can always be called upon to prove that the signature attached to it is genuine.

STATE TELEGRAMS.

37. Definition.—A State telegram is a telegram sent by an official of the British Government on British Government business.

Note.—Municipal Commissioners and the officials and servants of a Municipality or of a Guaranteed or Private Railway are not entitled to send State telegrams, nor are the officials and servants of Native States.

38. Principles to be observed.—The Government of India has laid down the following principles to be observed in the classifying, etc., of State telegrams, but their application rests with the Sender, not with the Telegraph Official.

(1) When it is not necessary that a reply (by post or wire) should be despatched within office hours of the same day, the message should be classed Deferred. (2) When it is considered essential that the reply should be sent the same day, the message should be classed Ordinary. (3) Messages should only be classed Urgent—(a) in cases of real emergency; (b) in cases where the despatching Officer knows that the line is blocked, and considers his message sufficiently important to take precedence of ordinary traffic. (4) Telegrams should, except when extreme precision is important, be expressed in as few words as are consistent with clearly conveying the intended meaning; and mere auxiliary or connective words, which can obviously be filled in by the receiver, should be omitted.

39. Cipher language.—The text of State telegrams written in Cipher language may be formed either of groups or series of figures, or of groups or series of letters, having a secret meaning; but a combination in the same telegram of figures and of letters, having a secret meaning, is not admitted.

40. Collation.—State telegrams, when they are written in figure or letter cipher, are always repeated in their entirety (Rule 103) by the receiving Office in the same manner as is done with "collated" telegrams (Rule 100). When partially written in cipher, the cipher portions only are repeated.

41. Payment, etc.—State telegrams must be marked State by the Sender, and, as a rule, paid for in cash or stamps prior to despatch. The charges are the same for State as for Private telegrams. The rule regarding pre-payment (Rule 64) will be relaxed in case of great emergency; but whenever an Urgent or Ordinary State telegram is tendered for transmission under this permission, the Sender must take the necessary steps to ascertain the charges on it, and pay them into the Telegraph Office within 24 hours. The rule cannot be relaxed in case of Deferred State telegrams.

42. At Railway Offices.—State telegrams are not accepted at Railway Offices at places where there is also a Government Office, except in cases of emergency, or when the Sender's Office or residence is much closer to a Railway Office than to a Government Office.

43. Abbreviated titles.—In Inland State telegrams abbreviations of the titles of Government Officials are used. A list of the abbreviations sanctioned is published in the Telegraph Guide.

44. Clear Line telegrams.—On emergent occasions of great importance, the public functionaries named below have power to "clear the line" within Indian limits, i.e., to suspend the receipt and despatch of all telegrams until the one for which the line is cleared is passed on:

- (1) The Governor-General of India.
- (2) The Governors of Madras and Bombay.
- (3) Commander-in-Chief in India.
- (4) Lieutenant Generals Commanding the Forces, Punjab, Bengal, Madras, and Bombay.
- (5) Lieutenant-Governors of Bengal, Burma, and the Punjab, Lieutenant-Governor of North-Western Provinces and Chief Commissioner of Oudh.
- (6) Secretaries to the Government of India.
- (7) Secretaries to the Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and Burma.
- (8) Chief Commissioners of the Central Provinces and Assam.
- (9) Agents to the Governor-General, Rajputana, Central India, and Baluchistan.
- (10) Commissioners of Sind and Peshawar.
- (11) The Residents at Hyderabad (Deccan) and Mysore.
- (12) The Maharaja of Patiala (from the Patiala Office only).
- (13) Director-General of Telegraphs.
- (14) An officer commanding a force in the field: Provided that, if such officer shall not hold the rank of a General Officer, the power shall be limited to the case of messages for despatch to the head-quarters of the Local Government or Administration within the jurisdiction of which the force is operating.

The telegrams so sent are, however, to be paid for as other State (Urgent) telegrams. The words Clear Line should be written before the Text.

SERVICE TELEGRAMS.

45. Service telegrams are divided into Service telegrams properly so called, and Service Advices. The former classification includes—

- (a) those on the service of the Government Telegraph and Postal Departments, which are sent free to and from any Telegraph Office;

- (b) those sent free on the service of certain foreign Governments, regarding which the Government of India prescribes special instructions in each case.*

Paid Service Advices are Service telegrams exchanged between Telegraph Offices under Rules 46 and 47.

PAID SERVICE ADVICES.

46. The Sender and Receiver of any telegram already transmitted or in course of transmission may, within an interval of seventy-two hours (not including Sundays) following the handing in or delivery of such telegram, as the case may be, cause enquiry to be made or instructions to be given respecting it by telegraph. They can also, in order to make or obtain corrections, cause a telegram, which they have sent or received, to be repeated entirely or in part, by the Office at destination, or by the Office of origin or any intermediate Office. In all such cases they have to deposit the following amounts:

- (a) The cost of the telegram making the request.
- (b) The cost of a telegram for the reply, if a reply by telegraph is wanted.

47. Rectifying, completing, or cancelling telegrams, and all other communications relating to a telegram already despatched or in course of transmission, when they are addressed to a Telegraph Office, must be exchanged exclusively between the Offices under the form of paid Service Advices at the cost of the Sender or the Receiver making the demand.

48. The charges for Service Advices necessitated through errors of service are refunded under Rules 142 (g) and 144.

COUNTING OF WORDS.

49. Chargeable words.—All that the Sender writes in his telegram to be transmitted is included in calculating the charge, with the exception of the Special Instructions referred to in Rule 15, the Address (as defined in Rule 18), the name of the Telegraph Office of origin, and the Sender's name or designation, all of which are transmitted free. No other words can be transmitted, unless paid for as part of the Text, and Telegraph Officials are authorised to omit from the Address any words not essential for the correct delivery of the telegram.

50. Stops, etc.—With the exceptions provided for in Rules 54, 57, and 120, signs of punctuation, apostrophes, and hyphens are neither charged for nor signalled.

51. Preamble.—Words, numbers, and signs added by Telegraph Officials for official purposes are not charged for. The day, hour, and minute (Madras time) at which a telegram is booked, when tendered for despatch, are added by the Telegraph Office and transmitted free. Senders may date or time their telegrams if they desire, but in such case their dates or times will be charged for (see Rule 49).

52. Combinations or alterations of words contrary to the usage of the language are not admitted. However, the names of towns and countries, patronymics (family names) of one and the same person, the names of places, squares, boulevards, streets, etc., the names of vessels, integral and fractional numbers written in words, and compound words admitted as such in English or French, and which can, if a question arises, be justified by reference to a dictionary, may be respectively written as single words, without either apostrophe or hyphen.

The words halfpenny, twopence, threepence, etc., up to clevenpence may be written as single words.

53. The following are examples of combinations of words admissible and inadmissible as single words:

(a) Examples of combinations admissible as single words:

Cowhide.	Rapeseed.
Gingellyseed.	Sheepskin.

(b) Examples of combinations inadmissible as single words:

Tapestypatterns.	Wheatcargo.
Counteroffer.	Beerboxes.
Bapkaction.	Dischargingday.
Wireanswer.	Steamercargo.
Innerharbour.	Coastsailing.
Boursecredit.	Hullsteamer.
Sailinsurance.	Allright.
Steamcoals.	Allright.
Tuesdaymorning.

54. The following are each counted as one word only:

(a) Every word of fifteen letters or less which fulfils the requirements of Rules 12, 52, 53. Words containing more than fifteen letters are charged for as two words up to thirty letters, and so on by multiples of fifteen plus one word for any excess.

(b) Each isolated character, letter, or figure, including the initials of persons and of such abbreviations as B.S.C. or R.A., which are treated as isolated letters, however written by the Sender.

(c) Each underline.

(d) The two signs constituting a parenthesis.

(e) Inverted commas, the two signs placed at the commencement and end of one and the same passage.

55. Use of Apostrophes and Hyphens.

Words separated by an apostrophe and words joined by a hyphen are counted as so many separate words. The apostrophes or hyphens are not charged for or signalled.

56. Figures, Letter cypher, Commercial marks, etc.—Numbers written in figures are counted as one word for each five figures which they contain, plus one word for any excess. The same Rule applies to the calculation of groups of letters in State telegrams as well as to groups of figures and letters used either as Commercial marks or in Semaphoric telegrams.

Note I.—When Commercial marks form part of the text of a telegram, the Sender should certify them to be such at the foot of the form.

Note II.—To avoid error, Senders of telegrams are invited to write numbers in words rather than in figures.

57. Signs, etc., used with figures or letters.—Decimal points, commas, dashes, and bars of division are each counted as a figure or a letter respectively in the group in which they occur. This also applies to letters added to figures to form Ordinal numbers.

58. Abbreviations.—Common titles, which in their full form are expressed by a single word, such as Captain, Reverend, and Esquire, may be written in their usual abbreviated forms, such as Capt., Rev., and Esq., each of which counts as one word. Similarly common abbreviations of single words, such as Rs. (for Rupees), lbs. (for pounds), are admissible and count each as one word. F.O.B., C.F.I., A.M., and P.M., when written as separate letters, are each counted as three and two words respectively; but these specified abbreviations when written for, cf., am, pm, are accepted each as one word. The abbreviations B/L, C/O, and % are also counted each as one word. No other abbreviations of compound words or expressions, except those specified in this rule, are accepted as one word.

CHARGES.

60. Classes.—There are three classes of telegrams—Urgent, Ordinary, and Deferred. These classes apply equally to State and Private telegrams. The corresponding charges between any two Offices in India or Burma are as follows:

Urgent. Ordinary. Deferred.

Rs. a. Rs. a. Rs. a.

First 8 words or groups of
5 figures	2 0	1 0	0 8
Each additional word or group of 5 figures	0 4	0 2	0 1

No charge for the address and Sender's name (see Rules 18, 34, and 49).

PRECEDENCE.

61. Urgent telegrams receive instant transmission and have precedence over Ordinary telegrams and the right of special delivery at destination. In cases of life and death, or of extraordinary emergency, an Urgent telegram can be sent from any Office at any time.

62. Ordinary telegrams are transmitted in their turn after Urgent telegrams, and are delivered by messengers between day-break and 9 P.M. (local time).

63. Deferred telegrams are not transmitted till the wires are clear of Urgent and Ordinary telegrams, but they are delivered by messengers between day-break and 9 P.M. (local time).

PAYMENT OF CHARGES.

64. Charges how paid.—With the exceptions provided for in Rules 41, 70, and 126, all charges on telegrams must be prepaid as follows:

1. If handed in—

- At Government Telegraph Departmental Offices, in cash or telegraph stamps.
- At Field Telegraph Offices, in cash, or in Telegraph or Postage stamps.
- At Postal Combined Offices, in cash, or in Telegraph or Postage stamps, at the option of the Sender.
- At Postal Receiving Offices, in cash, or in Telegraph or Postage stamps, at the option of the Sender.

* The telegraph is not able to reproduce such expressions as 30^a, 15×6, etc., Senders of telegrams must, therefore, replace them by the full signification, thus: 30 raised to the power of a, 15 multiplied by 6, etc.

11. If sent by post to any Telegraph Office from a place where there is no Telegraph Office, in Telegraph or Postage stamps.

65. Telegraph stamps are double-headed.—The upper half is returned on the Receipt (whereby the Sender receives a guarantee that his telegram has not been suppressed for the sake of the stamps), and the lower half is affixed to the telegram as a voucher to Government that it has been prepaid. The following are the Telegraph stamps in use: one anna, two annas, four annas, eight annas, one rupee, Rs. 2½, Rs. 5, Rs. 10, Rs. 25, Rs. 50. They can be purchased at all Treasuries and Government Telegraph Departmental Offices.

66. Affixing stamps, etc.—Telegraph stamps must be affixed on the spaces left blank for the purpose on the telegram form—the upper half on the Receipt, the lower half on the telegram, —and the Sender should see that the stamps are defaced with the Office-stamp which bears the name of the Office and the date. When Telegraph stamps are used only in part payment of the cost of a telegram at a Government Office, as, for instance, in the case of a telegram paid for partly by a Reply-Pass (Rule 93), or at a Post Office in the case of a telegram paid for partly in Postage stamps, the entire stamps must be affixed lengthways on the telegram and no portion on the Receipt. In the case of Railway Telegraph Offices, if telegraph stamps are used either in part or in whole payment of the cost of a telegram, the entire stamp must be affixed to the telegram and no portion to the receipt.

67. Damaged stamps.—Telegraph stamps which have been cut in two before being sent into a Telegraph Office, or which are in any way defaced, discoloured, or damaged are not accepted.

68. The value of damaged Telegraph stamps will ordinarily be refunded on application to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, if such application be accompanied by a statement of the cause of damage, and if no doubt exists that the damaged stamps are genuine and that the damage was not intentional.

69. Receipts are given for telegrams at all Telegraph and Post Offices, but the upper halves of Telegraph stamps are not returned upon the receipts at Railway Offices in any case, or at other Offices in the cases named in the latter part of Rule 66. When Postage stamps are used no portions of the stamps appear on the receipt.

70. Telegrams from ships.—Telegrams arriving by mail steamers and other vessels, for onward transmission by telegraph, may be transmitted without prepayment; but no such telegram, whether prepaid or not, will be transmitted until the name of the vessel from which it is received is known at the Telegraph Office.

71. Delivery of telegrams with excess charges.—In every case where charges have to be collected on arrival (see Rules 7, 70, and 126), the telegram is delivered to the Addressee only upon payment of the amount due.

72. Undercharges made in error, and charges and expenses not recovered from the Addressee in consequence of his refusal to pay them, or the impossibility of finding him, must be made good by the Sender.

73. Overcharges made in error are returned to those entitled to them. No refund, however, is made of the value of the stamps in excess affixed by the Sender, unless he applies for it to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, and sends with his application the Receipt granted for the telegram (see Rules 142 (h) and 144).

INTERRUPTION OF TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATION: TRANSMISSION IN DUPLICATE.

74. When, in the course of transmission of a telegram, an interruption takes place in the regular telegraph communications, the Office beyond which the interruption has taken place at once sends the telegram by post (registered) or by some more rapid means, such as, for instance, by an alternative telegraph Route.

CANCELLATION.

76. If the Sender of an Inland telegram wishes to cancel it before transmission has begun, he can do so; but the charges upon it, if the stamps have been obliterated, can only be refunded on application being made to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, within one month of date of booking and payment of a fee of four annas. If the telegram is in course of transmission, or has already been despatched, it can be cancelled only by a paid Service Advice (Rule 46) addressed to the Terminal Office. In this case no refund is admissible. If, in addition, the Sender wishes to be informed by telegraph in what manner his request has been acted upon, he must deposit the cost of the return telegram; otherwise he is informed by post.

DELIVERY AT DESTINATION.

77. According to Address and Order.—Telegrams are, according to their addresses, either delivered at the residences of the Addressees, or kept at the Telegraph Office till called for. They are, in all cases, delivered at, or sent to, their destinations in order of receipt and priority.

78. Free Delivery Limits.—Telegrams are delivered free of charge within five miles of a Telegraph Office. Beyond this free delivery limit telegrams are sent by post without charge, or by such other means as the Sender may arrange and pay for (Rules 113 to 118). For telegrams to be delivered by boat (see Rule 83).

79. Persons to whom telegrams may be delivered.—A telegram taken to the Addressee's place of residence may be delivered either to the Addressee, or to any adult member of his family, or to any of his employes, lodgers or guests, or to the porter of the hotel or house, unless the Addressee has named in writing a special person, or the Sender has requested by writing on the form, in the space marked Official Instructions, the Special Instruction (MI)—see Rule 11(d),—that the telegram may be delivered only into the hands of the Addressee himself. In this case the Office at destination writes the request in full upon the envelope and gives the necessary instructions to the messenger.

80. Open Delivery.—The Sender may also request that the telegram may be delivered open by writing on the form in the space marked Official Instructions, the Special Instruction (RO)—see Rule 11(d). This request is reproduced on the copy handed to the Addressee, which is delivered without an envelope, simply folded with the Address written on the back.

81. Telegrams to be kept till called for.—When the telegram bears the Special Instruction to be kept at the Telegraph Office till called for (TR), it is delivered only to the Addressee himself or to a person duly appointed by him.

82. Delivery on ships.—Telegrams addressed to passengers of a vessel arriving at a port are delivered, if possible, before disembarkation.

83. Delivery by boat.—When an Inland telegram has to be delivered on board a ship which cannot be reached without a boat (i.e., when the ship is not alongside a wharf, pier or jetty) or at a place which cannot be reached without a boat, the Sender must prepay boat-hire, otherwise the telegram will be handed to the Post Office, by the terminal Telegraph Office, for delivery at the Sender's risk. The indication Boat-hire paid (BPD), or Boat-hire paid double (BPDN)—if the Sender wishes the telegram sent on board at night—should be entered on the form, in the space marked Official Instructions. Boat-hire prepaid, but not expended, will be refunded (see Rules 142 (f) and 144).

A list of fixed express charges for boat-hire for certain places in India is published in the Telegraph Guide.

84. Reply given to messenger.—Save in the case of delivery by the ordinary post beyond the free delivery limit, the messenger who delivers a telegram may be entrusted with the Reply, provided he be not detained for this purpose more than five minutes. The fact of the Reply having been given to the messenger, and the amount paid to him, should be mentioned on the receipt given for the original telegram.

85. Re-addressing.—Should the Addressee of a telegram have left the place to which it is addressed, it will, if returned unopened with definite instructions as to the new Address, be re-transmitted without extra charge. Similarly, it will be re-transmitted immediately on receipt to any new destination, if the Addressee has left written instructions at the Telegraph Office, or if his new Address is known.

Note.—Inland telegrams are also re-transmitted to Ceylon, if the Addressee has left for that country, but in that case the full charge for the telegram from India to Ceylon is collected from the Addressee.

86. Undelivered telegrams.—When a telegram cannot be delivered, the Office at destination sends a Service telegram to that effect and the Sender is informed.

87. When in consequence of an inexact or insufficient Address or of the Addressee's absence or refusal, Bearing charges have not been paid at destination, the amount of these charges is mentioned in the Service telegram and the Sender is bound to make them good.

88. If the messenger finds no one at the Address given, who will consent to receive a telegram for the Addressee, a notice is left at the house, and the telegram is brought back to the Office to be delivered to the Addressee, when he claims it.

89. Unclaimed telegrams.—Telegrams unclaimed or not delivered are not kept after six weeks by the Office of destination.

90. Directions about delivery.—All directions, which persons leave at Telegraph Offices, regarding the delivery or re-transmission of their telegrams, should be renewed at intervals of at most six months.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

91. The Sender of a Private telegram, or of a State telegram addressed to a person other than a British Government Official, can prepay a reply, but the payment must be not less than eight annas or more than two rupees, and must not contain any fraction of an anna. The Sender of a Reply-paid telegram should write the Special Instruction (RP) followed by the amount paid, thus : RP Rs.—on the form, in the space marked Official Instruction [see Rule 11(d)]. These words are not charged for.

92. At destination the Telegraph Office delivers to the Addressee an Order or Pass, which entitles him to send free of charge from any Telegraph or Receiving Office in India, and within the value of the amount prepaid, a telegram to any destination in India. The telegram, if sent, must be accompanied by the Pass.

Note.—A Pass issued for a Reply to an Inland telegram cannot be used to frank a Foreign telegram or vice versa. Two or more Inland Passes may be used to frank one Inland telegram, but one Pass may not be used to frank two or more telegrams. A Pass cannot be used to frank a telegram on which Advice of Delivery (Rule 104) or cost of a Reply is prepaid; nor can Passes be used in payment of Express or other Delivery charges, which must always be paid in cash or stamps.

93. When the charge for a telegram paid for by a Pass exceeds the value of the Pass, the difference must be paid in cash or stamps (Rule 66). If, on the other hand, the value of the Pass exceeds that of the Reply, no refund of the difference will, under any circumstances, be given.

94. The Pass is only available for thirty days (date of issue included) after which it lapses. When the Addressee does not use the Pass, its value will be refunded (see Rules 142 (d) and 144).

95. If the Addressee refuses the telegram or the Pass, the Office of destination at once sends a telegram to that effect and the Sender is informed. This telegram takes the place of the Reply paid for.

96. Should it be impossible, from causes other than refusal (Rule 95), to effect delivery of a Reply-paid telegram, the Terminal Office sends a telegram to that effect to the Sender, and the amount deposited will be refunded on application (see Rules 142 (e) and 144).

97. When a telegram to which a Reply is prepaid is addressed to a place where there is no Telegraph Office, the telegram and Pass are forwarded to destination from the nearest Telegraph Office by ordinary post free of charge.

98. It is not compulsory on the Addressee to send a reply. The duty of the Terminal Office consists simply in the delivery of the Pass for the amount prepaid, and the Addressee is at liberty to do what he pleases with it.

99. The Sender of a State telegram addressed to a Government Official cannot prepay a reply. In the case of a State telegram addressed to other than a Government Official, any sum deposited by the Sender under Rule 91 must be intended for no other purpose than to cover the cost of a return telegram.

(B) Collated (or Repeated) Telegrams.

100. Collation consists in the entire telegram being repeated back immediately on its receipt by each Office concerned in its transmission.

101. The Sender of any telegram can require it to be collated to insure correctness. In this case he must write the Instruction (TC), see Rule 11 (d), in the space marked Official Instructions. This Instruction is not charged for.

102. The charge for collation is equal to one-fourth the charge for the telegram. In calculating this charge, fractions of an anna are disregarded.

103. State telegrams written in figure or letter cipher are invariably collated free of charge (see Rule 40).

(C) Advice of Delivery.

104. The Sender of a telegram can require that a notice of the date and time at which his telegram is delivered to the Addressee shall be notified to him as soon as possible after its delivery. He should write on the form in the space marked Official Instructions the abbreviation (PC)—see Rule 11 (d). When the telegram is forwarded to its final destination by post, this notice mentions the date and time of its delivery to the Postal Service. This Advice of Delivery may be addressed to him at any place he may name.

105. The charge for an Advice of Delivery by telegraph is one rupee.

106. A Telegraphic Advice of Delivery ranks for transmission as an Ordinary Private telegram.

107. In the case of non-delivery, provided for in Rule 86, the Advice of Delivery is preceded by the Service Advice required by that Rule. The Advice of Delivery is sent later on, either after delivery of the telegram, if that has become possible, or after the lapse of 24 hours, if delivery has not been effected, and in the latter case it again intimates the cause of non-delivery.

108. An Advice of Delivery, when it reaches the Office of origin of the telegram, is notified to the Sender.

(D) Multiple Telegrams.

109. Addressed to one Telegraph Office.

Except as provided for in Rule 119, a telegram addressed, with or without transmission by post, to several persons in one locality, or to the same person at several places of residence in one locality, is charged for as a single telegram; but a copying fee of four annas per 100 words, plus four annas for the excess, is charged for each destination after the first.

110. Addressed to more than one Telegraph Office.—A telegram addressed to several persons, or to the same person, in localities where delivery is to be effected by different Offices, is charged for as so many separate telegrams.

111. If the Sender wishes each copy of the telegram to bear only the Address of the person to whom it is to be delivered, he should write in the space marked Official Instructions the words—Addresses. If, on the other hand, he desires that each Addressee shall be made aware to what other persons the telegram has been addressed, he should write the words Communicate all Addresses. In the absence of such Special Instructions, it will be assumed that he wishes only one Address to appear on each copy. In either case these Instructions are not charged for.

112. Replies cannot be prepaid on Multiple telegrams.

(E) Telegrams for places where there are no Telegraph Offices.

113. Post or Express.—Telegrams addressed to places where there are no Telegraph Offices may be delivered at destination according to the request of the Sender either by Post or by Express.

114. The Address of telegrams to be conveyed beyond the telegraph lines should be written as follows:

- (a) John Doe, Esq., Sherghotty, Post Gya.
- (b) John Doe, Esq., Nynan, Express Hooghly Point.

The name of the terminal Telegraph Office is always entered last, as in the examples above.

115. Express charges must be prepaid by the Sender. If the charges are notified in the Telegraph Guide, the telegram bears before the Address the Instruction Express Paid (XP) only. If not, the Sender must pay such sum as he thinks sufficient, and the telegram must bear the Special Instruction Express Rs.—, (XP—Rs.). If the sum deposited is found to be insufficient at the Terminal Office, the telegram is posted.

116. Postage.—No charge is made for postage on a telegram addressed to a place in India where there is no Telegraph Office, or to a place out of India to which Indian Inland Postal rates apply; but on a telegram to be posted to a place beyond the limits of the Indian Inland Postal Tariff, five annas must be paid as an additional charge to cover postage and registration.

117. Inland telegrams posted from Negapatam, etc., for places in Ceylon.—Inland telegrams can be telegraphed to Negapatam, from which place they are despatched by post to Point Calimere, whence a daily mail boat goes to Ceylon.

Example—

Address:—

J. Young, Oriental Hotel, Colombo, Post Negapatam.

From W. Collins.

Text—Start by first steamer.

The charge for the above telegram is the usual Inland rate according to Class (Deferred, Ordinary, or Urgent, at Sender's choice), and nothing extra is charged for postage.

Note.—Telegrams for places in Ceylon can also be addressed to, and posted from, Tuticorin, Pondicherry, Madras, and Bombay, to be despatched respectively by the steamers of the British India Steam Navigation Co. (from Tuticorin), of the Messageries Maritimes (from Pondicherry), and of the P. and O. Steam Navigation Co. (from Madras and Bombay). In the case of Tuticorin there is no extra charge for postage; in the case of Pondicherry, Madras, and Bombay, there is an extra charge of five annas for postage and registration.

118. Inland telegrams posted from Indian Ports.—Under Rule 116, Inland telegrams can be telegraphed to any Indian ports to be posted to places beyond Indian limits.

Example—

Address:—

Mrs. Johnson, 20, Cambridge Terrace, Hyde Park, London, Post Registered Bombay.

From W. Johnson.

Text—Afraid my letter missed mail. Am quite well.

The charge for the above telegram is the usual Inland rate, according to the Class (Deferred, Ordinary, or Urgent, at Sender's choice), plus five annas for postage, registration, etc.

Note.—At the request, and for the convenience, of the Sender, to avoid delays in despatch or delivery, these telegrams may be sent by post unregistered, but the full fee of five annas is payable in all cases.

Telegrams to be forwarded by post registered are received at the General Post Office, Bombay, up to within three hours of the time of sailing of the Homeward Mail.

119. Telegrams as in the preceding Rule may also be Multiple (see Rule 109), but in such case the Sender must pay the copying fee for each additional Address, and also an additional postage and registration fee (five annas) for each. But such telegrams cannot be addressed partly to persons beyond the sea, and partly to persons at the port itself. If the Sender wants the telegram also delivered to a person at the port itself, he must send it as a separate telegram.

120. Employment of post.—In case of telegrams for destinations over five miles distant from the terminal Telegraph Office, that Office has the right to post such telegrams—

(a) in the absence of directions in the telegram as to the means of delivery to be employed, or

(b) when there is an unpaid claim against the Addressee for delivery charges on a previous telegram, which he has refused to pay.

Telegrams for destinations over five miles distant from the terminal Telegraph Office must be posted by that Office—

(a) when such has been the request expressly made by the Sender (Rule 113) or the Addressee (Rule 85), or

(b) when the Office has no more rapid means of delivery at disposal.

(F) Semaphoric Telegrams.

121. Semaphoric telegrams are telegrams exchanged with ships by means of semaphores established on shore.

122. Semaphore Stations.—The following are the Government Telegraph Offices, which are Semaphore stations:

Achipur.	Elephant Point.
Amherst.	False Point Light-house.
Budge-Budge.	Hooghly Point.
Diamond Harbour.	Mud Point.
Diamond Island.	Saugor Island.

123. Language.—Semaphoric telegrams must be written in English or in the signals of the Universal Commercial Code. In the latter case they are considered as Cipher telegrams.

124. Address.—When a semaphoric telegram is for a ship at sea, the Address must contain, in addition to the ordinary direction, the name or official number of the vessel for which it is intended and its nationality.

125. Preamble.—The word Semaphoric should be written in the space marked Official Instructions on a telegram to be so signalled to a ship.

126. Charges, etc.—The charge for Semaphoric telegrams is the usual charge, plus a fixed fee of eight annas. In case of Semaphoric telegrams addressed to ships, the charges must be paid by the Sender; in case of such telegrams received from ships, the charges must be paid by the Addressee before delivery.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

127. Rates.—The following are the rates charged for Press telegrams :

	First 32 words or groups of five figures.	Every four additional words or groups of five figures.	REMARKS.
	Ri. a.	Ri. a.
Urgent . .	2 0	0 4	Between any two Government Tele- graph Offices in India and Burma.
Ordinary . .	1 0	0 2
Deferred . .	0 8	0 1
No charge for the Address and Sender's name.

128. Conditions.—A Press telegram to be accepted at Press rates must fulfil the following conditions :

I.—It must be addressed to a newspaper, the name of which has been registered by the Director-General of Telegraphs. A list of such registered newspapers is published in the Telegraph Guide. Applications for the registration of newspapers should be made on forms to be obtained at Government Telegraph Department Offices.

II.—It must be addressed to the newspaper in accordance with its registered title, and to the town at which the newspaper is registered as being printed and published.

III.—It must, except as provided hereafter in Condition V, contain only intelligence which is clearly intended for publication in the strict sense of the term, and must not contain commercial news of any kind.

IV.—It must be written in plain English so as to be intelligible to the transmitting Offices, and must contain nothing of concealed meaning either in Code language or Cipher.

V.—It may also be a telegram sent from or to the newspaper by its registered title (but not in the name of the editor, publisher, manager, or any other person), to or from its correspondents or employes on the subject of a telegram published or to be published, or to an Official of the Government Telegraph Department on matters of Press business.

VI.—If a Press telegram be addressed to the editor, publisher, manager, or any other person connected with the newspaper by name or designation, it is chargeable at the full Inland rates (see Condition II).

VII.—Whenever demanded, a copy of every newspaper in which a Press telegram is published must be furnished to the Telegraph Office from which that Press telegram was delivered.

VIII.—A single Press telegram must not exceed 256 words (8 units of charge). Long news messages must be broken up into separate telegrams, all of which must be numbered and each of which, except the last, must contain the words More to follow. These words and the numbers should be written by the Sender in the space left in the telegram for Official Instructions, and they will not be charged for.

Example.—A long news message of 1,000 words would require at least four telegrams numbered, in the space set apart for Official Instructions, 1, 2, 3, and 4, and Nos. 1, 2, and 3 would also bear the words More to follow in the Official Instructions.

129. Stops.—In Press telegrams, where the sense so often depends upon the punctuation, especially in the case of long messages, full-stops will be signalled free of charge, but this privilege will not be extended to other signs of punctuation.

130. The Press telegram rates apply only to telegrams which satisfy all the conditions of Rule 128, and any subsequent claim made by the Government Telegraph Department for the difference between Press and full Inland rates must be satisfied immediately on demand.

131. Bearing Press telegrams.—Press telegrams may be accepted Bearing from correspondents, provided that any newspaper, which may desire the facility, obtains previous special sanction from the Director-General of Telegraphs.

132. Railway Office.—Except in the case of such Railway Administrations as may be willing to accept Press messages for transmission within the limits of their respective Railways when the wires are not occupied by telegrams on the business of the Railways, the Press Telegram Rules do not apply to Railway Telegraph Offices. Press messages cannot be transferred from one telegraph system to another (see Rule 8).

133. Delivery.—Press telegrams of all classes, Urgent, Ordinary, or Deferred, are sent out for delivery as soon as received, by day or by night.

RECORDS.

134. Period of preservation.—The originals and copies of telegrams are kept for three days only in Government Telegraph Offices, after which time they are sent to the Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, where they are preserved for four months from the month following that in which the telegram was deposited, and then destroyed.

135. Secrecy.—The originals or copies of telegrams can only be communicated to the Sender or to the Addressee after proof of identity, or to the authorised representative of either of them.

136. Copies.—The Sender or the Addressee of a telegram, or the authorised representative of either, or any or all of them have a right to be furnished with a certified copy of the original telegram or of the copy delivered at destination, on application to the Telegraph Office within three days, or to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, within the period of preservation (see Rule 134). This right lapses after the expiration of the time fixed for preserving the records.

137. A fixed charge of four annas is made for every copy delivered in conformity with Rule 136, if the telegram does not exceed 100 words. Over 100 words, this charge is increased by four annas for each 100, or fraction of 100, words.

138. Copies cannot be supplied unless the Senders, the Addressees, or their authorised representatives furnish the necessary information to enable the telegrams, to which their requests refer, to be found.

139. Extended preservation.—On the ground of pending or contemplated judicial proceedings, application may be made by an interested party, to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, for the preservation of specified telegrams exchanged between other persons. Such application must be made within the period of preservation, and such telegrams will then be preserved for a period of four months beyond the ordinary date for destruction under Rule 134 : at the expiration of this further period, they will, in default of a renewed application, be destroyed. It must be understood that the duty of the Telegraph Department in the matter is confined to making the search and preserving the telegrams, if found. No information as to the result of the search will be furnished, and any telegrams answering the description given, which may be found, will be produced only on the order of a competent Court of law or other competent Authority.

140. Fees for searching for telegrams.—Should the particulars furnished be insufficient to enable the Check Office at once to trace the telegrams applied for under either Rule 136 or Rule 139, the cost of searching for them must be deposited by the applicant. A fee of one rupee is charged for searching through the telegrams of any Telegraph Office for one day : thus, if it be required to examine the telegrams of two Telegraph Offices over a period of five days, the searching fee will be ten rupees.

REFUNDS.

141. State telegrams.—No refunds will, under any circumstances, be made for a State telegram of any class, except in the case of overcharge provided for in Rule 145.

142. Private telegrams.—Refunds of the following charges on Private telegrams are made, on application, to those who originally paid them :

- (a) The full cost of every telegram which, through the fault of the Telegraph service, has failed to reach its destination.
- (b) The full cost of every Urgent or Ordinary telegram which has been subjected to serious delay through the fault of the Telegraph service.

- (c) The full cost of every Collated telegram (Rule 101) which, owing to errors made in transmission, has manifestly failed to accomplish its object, unless the errors have been rectified by paid Service Advices under Rule 46.

Note.—No refund is granted for errors made in the transmission of uncollated telegrams.

- (d) The full amount of every sum deposited in advance with the object of obtaining a reply (Rule 91) when the Addressee has not made use of the Pass (Rule 94). This refund may be made to the holder of the Pass.
- (e) The full amount of the sum deposited for a reply to a telegram which, from causes other than refusal, has not been delivered (Rule 96). The Sender should forward with his application for refund—see Rule 144—the receipt granted for the original telegram, and the report of non-delivery received by him.
- (f) Express charges and Boat-hire prepaid, but not expended.
- (g) The full cost of all paid Service Advices sent under Rules 46 and 47, if the repetition shows that the word or words repeated were transmitted incorrectly at first.

When the word or words of which the repetition is requested are written in a doubtful manner by the Sender, the Office of origin adds to the repetition a note "writing doubtful." In this case no refund is made.

- (h) The value of excess stamps affixed by the Sender (Rule 73).
- (i) The value of the stamps affixed to a telegram cancelled before transmission, less fee of four annas (Rule 76).

143. No refund is made for the telegram which has given occasion to a request for correction, nor are any refunds made for rectifying or completing telegrams exchanged direct between the Sender and Addressee (see Rule 47).

144. Applications for refunds, as also all complaints respecting telegrams, should be addressed to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta. Such claims for refund must be made within one month from the date of the telegram ; but this period is extended to two months in the case of a Collated telegram (Rule 101), or of a telegram on which the cost of a Reply (Rule 91) or an Advice of Delivery (Rule 104) has been prepaid.

145. State and Private.—When no doubt exists as to an overcharge having been made on an Inland State or Private telegram by the mistake of an official at any Telegraph Office, the overcharge is to be at once refunded by such Office (Rule 73).

SECTION III.

RULES FOR FOREIGN TELEGRAMS

FOUNDED ON THE INTERNATIONAL TELEGRAPH CONVENTION.

Note.—The Articles and Regulations quoted in the margin denote the corresponding Rules in the International Telegraph Convention. Points not specifically provided for in these Rules are dealt with in the manner prescribed in the Convention.

GENERAL.

1. Foreign Telegrams are those which are sent to, or received from, places beyond Indian limits. Such telegrams are subject to the regulations laid down by the International Telegraph Convention, to which the Government of India is a party. None of the parties to the Convention accept any responsibility on account of Foreign telegrams. (For tariffs and rates, see Rules 80 to 82).

2. Legibility and Forms.—To secure accuracy and rapidity of transmission, Senders of telegrams are advised to write them in a clear and unmistakable hand, and on the proper forms, which can be obtained free of charge at all Telegraph Offices. Telegrams written on plain paper are, however, accepted at all Offices.

Note.—Books (price 4 annas each) containing 100 forms for Foreign telegrams, with counterfoils, can be purchased at the principal Government Telegraph Offices.

3. Offices where Foreign telegrams are accepted.—Telegrams for Ceylon are accepted at all Telegraph Offices in India, also at a few Postal Receiving Offices. Telegrams for other countries are accepted at all Offices of the Government Telegraph Department, also at a certain number of Postal Combined Offices and Railway Telegraph Offices.

Note I.—Foreign telegrams are only accepted at Field Telegraph Offices when fully prepaid either in postage or telegraph stamps, and then at the Sender's risk.

Note II.—Foreign telegrams, except for Ceylon, cannot be accepted at any Railway Telegraph Office at places where there is also a Government Telegraph Office.

4. Objectionable telegrams.—The parties to the Convention reserve to themselves the right of stopping the transmission of every Private telegram which may appear dangerous to the security of the State, or contrary to the laws of the country, to public order, or to decency. The Terminal or any Intermediate Office may exercise this control on condition of immediately advising the Office of origin.

5. Telegraph Offices in India are required to refuse to transmit any telegram which appears to be of the above character. Should the character of a telegram be open to doubt, the matter will be referred to a Secretary to Government, if the telegram be tendered at a seat of Government, or to the Chief Civil or Military Officer if tendered at another place.

6. Each of the Contracting Governments reserves to itself the right to suspend the service

[of International telegraphy for an indefinite period, if it deem necessary, either generally, or only upon certain lines and for certain classes of correspondence.

7. General Division.—Telegrams are divided into three classes : Art. 5 and Reg. XXXIII, 1.

- (a) State (or Government) telegrams (Rule 49).
- (b) Service telegrams (Rule 59).
- (c) Private telegrams.

In transmission, State telegrams take precedence of other telegrams, and Service telegrams take precedence of Private telegrams.

WRITING AND ACCEPTANCE OF PRIVATE TELEGRAMS.

8. Private telegrams may be written in Plain language or in Secret language unless addressed to a country in which the use of Secret language in telegrams is prohibited, or partly in one and partly in the other. Secret language is subdivided into Code and Cipher language.

9. Plain language is that which offers an intelligible sense in one or several of the languages authorised for International telegraphic correspondence. Reg. VII, 1.

Note.—The following are the languages authorised for Foreign telegrams in Plain language, subject to the conditions of Rule 17 :

Arabic.	Italian.
Armenian.	Latin.
Bohemian.	Malay.
Bulgarian.	Norwegian.
Croatian.	Persian.
Danish.	Polish.
Dutch.	Portuguese.
English.	Roumanian.
Flemish.	Russian.
French.	Ruthenian.
German.	Servian.
Greek.	Siamese.
Hebrew.	Slavonic.
Hungarian.	Spanish.
Illyrian.	Swedish.
	Turkish.

Telegrams from India to Ceylon and vice versa may be in the Vernacular languages of India or Ceylon or in any of the above languages. These Vernaculars are inadmissible in Foreign telegrams, except in the case of Ceylon.

10. By "telegrams in Plain language" is understood those which are written entirely in Plain language. The presence of Commercial marks does not, however, alter the character of a telegram in Plain language.

11. Code language is that which is composed of words each having an intrinsic sense, but which do not form intelligible phrases in one or more of the languages authorised for telegraphic correspondence in Plain language. Reg. VIII, 1.

- VIII, 2. 12. Words in Code language must not contain more than ten characters according to the Morse alphabet (Rules 17 and 18); they must be taken from one or more of the following languages: German, English, Spanish, French, Dutch, Italian, Portuguese, and Latin.

Note.—In Indo-Ceylon telegrams, the use of Vernacular words is admissible as Code.

- Reg. VIII, 3. 13. Proper Names may only appear in telegrams written wholly or partly in Code language so long as they are used with their meaning in Plain language. Proper Names, however, which appear in the Official Vocabulary (or list of words published by the International Telegraph Office at Berne) may be admitted with a Code meaning.

- Reg. VIII, 4. 14. Production of Code Book.—The Telegraph Office at which a telegram in Code language is presented for transmission may demand of the Sender the production of his Code in order to ascertain whether the above Rules 11 to 13 have been strictly observed.

Note.—Senders of telegrams are warned against the use of Vocabularies or Code Books containing proper names or words not recognised in the eight languages named in Rule 12. Among such books are certain editions of Linde's Latin Combination Code; Verini's Code; the Nompareil Code; the A B C Code; and the Exchange Telegraph Code, which, amid admissible words, contain combinations of letters which, though they have the semblance of words, are not recognised words of the eight languages.

15. Cipher language is that which is formed of groups or of series of figures having a secret meaning.

16. Cipher language must, in Private telegrams, be composed exclusively of Arabic figures. The employment of letters or groups of letters having a secret meaning is prohibited. Letters employed as Commercial marks, and the letters representing the signals of the Universal Commercial Code and employed in Semaphoric telegrams, are not considered as letters having a secret meaning.

17. Characters.—The telegram to be transmitted must be legibly written in characters which have their equivalents in the official table of Morse telegraph signals, and which are in use in the country where the telegram is presented.

- Reg. X, 2. 18. The following are the characters in use in India:

A, B, C, D, E, É, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0.

Note.—There are no telegraphic signals for Roman numerals, such as I, II, etc.

(c) Signs of punctuation, etc.

Full-stop (.), Comma (,), Semicolon (;), Colon (:), Note of interrogation (?), Note of exclamation (!), Apostrophe ('), Hyphen (-), Brackets or signs of a parenthesis (), Inverted commas (" "), Bar of division (/), Underline.

Note.—With the exceptions given in Rules 69, 77, and Reg. XIX 182, the above stops and other signs are not counted or transmitted in Foreign telegrams.

(d) Special Instructions and Conventional Signs.

French.	Abbreviated form.	English meaning.
Réponse payée	RP.	Reply paid (Rule 121).
Réponse payée à mots	RP ^m .	Reply paid à words (Rule 121).
Collationnement	TC.	Collation or repetition (Rule 129).
Télégramme avec accusé de réception télégraphique.	PC.	Telegram with Telegraphic Advice of Delivery (Rule 134).
Télégramme avec accusé de réception postal.	PCP.	Telegram with Postal Advice of Delivery (Rule 134).
Télégramme à faire suivre	FS.	Telegram to follow Addressee (Rule 138).
Expres	Expres	Express (Rule 152).
Expres payé	XP.	Express paid (Rule 153).
Expres payé à francs	XP ^{fr} .	Express paid à francs (Rule 153).
Expres payé télégraphe	XPT.	Express paid, Telegraph (Rules 156 and 157).
Expres payé lettre	XPP.	Express paid, Post (Rules 156 and 157).
Poste	Poste	Post (Rule 152).
Poste recommandée	PR.	Post Registered (Rule 163).
Remettre ouvert	RO.	To be delivered open (Rule 110).
Remettre en mains propres	MP.	To be delivered into the hands of the Addressee himself (Rule 109).
Télégraphe restant	TR.	To be kept at Telegraph Office till called for (Rules 102 and 117).
Poste restante	PG.	To be kept at Post Office till called for (Rules 102 and 117).
Poste restante recommandée	PGR.	To be Registered and kept at Post Office till called for (Rule 106).
Communiquer toutes adresses		Communicate all Addressee (Rule 150).

19. Erasures, etc.—Every interlineation, Reg. X. reference, erasure, or re-written word must be authenticated by the Sender or by his authorised representative.

20. Parts of a telegram.—The different Reg. X parts forming a Foreign telegram should be written in the following order:

- Special instructions (Rules 21—23).
- The Address (Rules 24—44).
- The Sender's Name (Rules 45 and 57).
- The Text (Rules 46 and 57).

21. Special Instructions.—The Sender should Reg. X write upon the form, immediately before the Address, his Special Instructions, if any, regarding delivery at destination, prepayment of reply, advice of delivery, collation (or repetition), or regarding the telegram being one "to follow," to be delivered open or only to the Addressee himself, etc.

22. In the case of a Multiple telegram, the Reg. X Special Instructions which concern each Addressee should be written immediately before his name; however, if the Multiple telegram is also a Collated (or repeated) one, it is sufficient if the Special Instruction for Collation (Rule 129) precedes the first Address.

23. Special Instructions may be written in Reg. X the abbreviated forms allowed in Rule 18 (d). In this case they must be put between signs of parenthesis, which are neither charged for nor signalled, and so written they are counted each as one word only [Rule 69 (7)]. When they are written in full, they should be in French.

Note.—For further particulars regarding the Sender's Instructions, see Rules 109, 110, 120, 129 and 133.

XIII, 1. 24. Address.—Every Address must contain at least two words, the first designating the Receiver, the second indicating the name of the Telegraph Office of destination. The latter should be spelt as in the Official List of Offices (Nomenclature des bureaux télégraphiques—see Rule 69).

XIII, 2. 25. The Address should contain all the particulars necessary to ensure the delivery of the telegram. These particulars, with the exception of names of persons, should be written in French, or in the language of the country to which the telegram is addressed.

XIII, 3. 26. The Address of Private telegrams should be such that delivery can be effected without search or enquiry.

XIII, 4. 27. In the case of large towns, the Address ought to contain the name of the street and the number of the house, or, in the absence of these particulars, to specify the profession of the Addressee or give any other useful information.

XIII, 5. 28. Even for small towns, the name of the Addressee ought to be, as far as possible, accompanied by additional particulars to guide the Delivering Office in case of alteration of the proper name.

XIII, 6. 29. The name of the country or of the territorial sub-division of destination is essential whenever there is room for doubt as to the direction in which the telegram is to go, especially in cases where there are two or more Offices of the same name.

XIII, 7. 30. The last word in the Address should, as a rule, be the name of the Telegraph Office of destination. This name can be followed only by that of the country or of the territorial sub-division, or by both of these. In the latter case the name of the territorial sub-division should follow immediately after that of the Telegraph Office of destination.

XIII, 7. 31. When the name of the Office of destination has not yet been published in the official Nomenclature, the name of the country of destination is compulsory.

32. Telegraph Offices in neighbourhood of London.—In telegrams addressed to the following Telegraph Offices, all of which are in the neighbourhood of London, it is not necessary to add the word London in the Address:

Acton, Anerley,
Balham,
Bickh Heath,
Catford,
Chingford, Chiswick,
Ealing,
Edmonton,
Fitchley,
Hamstead,

Hanwell, Hendon, Hornsey,
Lewisham, Leyton,
Leytonstone,
Mortlake,
Southgate,
Tooting,
Walthamstow,
Whotatone.

Telegrams for places in London itself, the names of which do not appear in the official Nomenclature (Rule 24), cannot be accepted unless addressed London as the name of the Terminal Office. For instance, a telegram for Paddington in London must be addressed to London as the Terminal Office, otherwise it will be missent to Paddington in Australia, an Office of the same name given in the official Nomenclature.

33. Insufficient Address.—Telegrams, the Reg X III, 8. Address of which does not satisfy the conditions laid down in the preceding rules, are nevertheless accepted and transmitted at the Sender's risk.

34. In every case the Sender has to bear the Reg. XIII, 10. consequences of an insufficient Address.

35. Code or Abbreviated Addresses.—The Reg. XIII, 9. Address may be written in Code or in an Abbreviated form. But the right of an Addressee to have a telegram thus addressed delivered to him is subject to an arrangement made between such Addressee and the Telegraph Office which has to deliver the telegram (see Rule 40).

Note.—Senders of Foreign telegrams to England under Code or Abbreviated Addresses are warned that unless such Addresses are registered, not only with the Indo-European and Eastern Telegraph Companies, but also with the British Post Office, there is a risk of non-delivery, especially in the event of interruptions on one Route requiring telegrams to be diverted to another. Registration at the Eastern or Indo-European Companies' Offices is not recognised by the British Post Office. Telegrams should not be sent via Turkey to Code or Abbreviated Addresses in England unless such Addresses have been registered by the British Post Office. Claims for refunds on telegrams are rejected by the authorities in England when Addresses have not been duly registered.

36. Registered Addresses.—Any firm or individual expecting to receive telegrams can register a Code or Abbreviated Address at the Government Telegraph Office from which such telegrams have to be delivered. The fee for registration of each such Address is Rs. 10 per calendar year, payable in advance on the 1st January, or Rs. 50 for all time, with an additional fee of Rs. 5 for every change of the word or words selected.

37. A Code or Abbreviated Address may be registered on any date; thus, if on 1st November an Address is registered, ten rupees are charged, and a second charge of ten rupees is made if the Address is renewed on 1st January following. The additional fee of five rupees is charged for every change of the word or words selected, or transfer to another Telegraph Office, but not for change of residence within the delivery limits of the registering Office, or for change of name or title of firm or person, so long as the identity is the same, and it is not a case of transfer from one firm to another: if it is a case of transfer, a fee of ten rupees is charged.

38. Code or Abbreviated Addresses are considered confidential.

39. No Code or Abbreviated Address can be accepted which has already been registered locally by another firm or individual.

40. The Government Telegraph Department accepts no responsibility in respect of the delivery of any telegram having a Code or Abbreviated Address, if such Address has not been registered, or for delay in delivering such telegram. Registration is essential in all cases of persons who frequently receive telegrams addressed to them by an abbreviated name, and Telegraph Officials can decline to deliver such telegrams if, after notice has been given, the Address has not been registered.

41. For Code or Abbreviated Addresses only genuine words of the eight languages specified in Rule 12, or real names may be registered. Combinations of Christian names and surnames, combinations of parts of two names, combinations of two separate words, mis-spelt abbreviations of one or more words are all inadmissible (see Rule 67).

42. The following are examples of inadmissible compounds:

Granotel for Grand Hotel.

Willsmith for William Smith.

Brooksons for Brook and Sons.

Macmeth for Macdowell, Methven & Co.

Fitzpatric for Fitzpatrick.

43. Persons wishing to register Code or Abbreviated Addresses are invited to choose uncommon words, not their own names, to avoid all risk of telegrams being mis-delivered to other persons of the same name.

XIII, 9. 44. When a telegram is addressed to the care of a person who has registered an Abbreviated Address, the word or words representing the Code Address should be preceded by the words "care of," "chez," or their equivalent.

XV, 1. 45. The Sender's name may be in an abbreviated form or be omitted.

XIV. 46. Text.—The text of a telegram may be omitted.

47. Signature.—Every telegram must be authenticated by the signature of the Sender, which is not charged for or transmitted.

IV, 2. 48. The Sender of a Private telegram is bound to prove his identity if requested to do so by the Telegraph Department.

STATE TELEGRAMS.

49. Definition.—State (or Government) telegrams are generally defined in the Convention to be those which emanate from the Chief of the State, Ministers, Commanders-in-Chief of Land or Sea Forces, and Diplomatic or Consular Agents of the Contracting Governments; also the replies to such telegrams.

50. From British Officials.—The only British Government Officials in India who are allowed to send Foreign State telegrams are those who have been specially authorised to do so by the Government of India. A complete list of these Officials will be published in the Telegraph Guide. Foreign telegrams classed State, tendered by Officials not named in that list, will be treated as Private telegrams. State telegrams to Ceylon will, however, be accepted from all British Government Officials.

VI, 2. 51. Replies to State telegrams.—The right to send a reply as a State telegram is established by the production of the original State telegram.

VI, 3. 52. From Consular Agents.—Telegrams from Consular Agents engaged in Commerce are only considered as State telegrams when they are addressed to State Officials and are connected with the business of the State.

53. Language.—The text of State telegrams may, under all circumstances, be written in Plain language or in Secret language (Code or Cipher). These languages may be employed in combination in one and the same telegram, with the exception mentioned in Rule 56.

54. Plain language.—The provisions of Reg. XVI, 5. Rules 9 and 10 are applicable to State telegrams written in Plain language, but see Rule 72 for telegrams partly in Plain language and partly in Secret language.

55. Code language.—The text of State telegrams in Code language may be formed of words having a maximum of ten characters, and taken from one or more of the following languages: German, English, Spanish, French, Dutch, Italian, Portuguese or Latin.

56. Cipher language.—The text of State telegrams written in Cipher language may be formed either of groups or series of figures, or of groups or series of letters, having a secret meaning; but a combination in the same telegram, of figures and of letters having a secret meaning, is not admitted.

57. Sender's name and text.—State telegrams without Sender's name or text are accepted.

58. State telegrams, when they are written in Secret language (Code or Figure or Letter Cipher), must be repeated in their entirety by the Receiving Office in the same manner as is done with Collated telegrams (Rules 130 and 131).

SERVICE TELEGRAMS.

59. Service telegrams are those which emanate from the Telegraph Administrations of the Contracting States, and which relate either to the service of the International Telegraphs or to objects of public interest agreed upon between the said Administrations. Service telegrams are divided into Service telegrams properly so called, and Service Advices. All Service telegrams are transmitted free, except in the cases specified in Rules 60 and 61.

PAID SERVICE ADVICES.

60. The Sender and Receiver of any telegram already transmitted or in course of transmission may, within an interval of 72 hours (not including Sundays) following the handing in or delivery of such telegram, as the case may be, cause enquiry to be made, or instructions to be given respecting it, by telegraph.

They may also, in order to make or obtain corrections, cause a telegram which they have sent or received, to be repeated, entirely or in part, by the Office of destination or by the Office of origin or any intermediate Office. In all such cases they have to deposit the following amounts:

(a) the cost of the telegram making the request;

ag. 61. Rectifying, completing, or cancelling telegrams, and all other communications relating to a telegram already despatched or in course of transmission, when they are addressed to a Telegraph Office, must be exchanged exclusively between the Offices under the form of Paid Service Advices at the cost of the Sender or the Receiver making the demand.

ag. 62. The charges for the above-mentioned Service Advices are refunded when the Advice is necessitated by errors of the telegraph service [see Rule 190 (f) (j)]. Applications for such refunds should be addressed to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, and should be supported by receipts granted.

ag. 63. When the words of which the repetition is requested are written in a doubtful manner, the Office of origin adds to the repetition a note: "Writing doubtful." In this case no refund can be made.

COUNTING OF WORDS.

IX, 1. 64. What is counted.—All that the Sender writes upon the form, to be transmitted to his correspondent, is charged for and consequently included in the number of words. However, signs of punctuation, apostrophes, and hyphens are neither charged for nor signalled. (For exception, see Rule 182.)

IX, 2. 65. Preamble.—The name of the Office of origin, the date, and time of booking, the instructions as to the Route, and the words, numbers, or signs, which constitute the preambles and are added by the Telegraph Office for official purposes, are not charged for; such of these particulars as reach the Office of destination appear on the Addressee's copy.

IX, 3. 66. The Sender may insert particulars referred to in Rule 65 wholly or in part in the text of his telegram, but in that case they will be charged for.

IX, 4. 67. Combinations or alterations of words contrary to the usage of the language are not admitted. However, the names of towns and countries, patronymics (family names) of one and the same person, the names of places, squares, boulevards, streets, etc., the names of vessels, integral and fractional numbers written in words, and compound words admitted as such in English or French, and which can, if a question arises, be justified by reference to a dictionary, may be respectively written as single words without either apostrophe or hyphen (see Rule 75).

IX, 5. 68. Counting by Office of Origin decisive.—The counting of words by the Office of origin is decisive. When, however, a telegram contains combinations or alterations of words contrary to the usage of the language of the country of destination, the Office of destination is empowered to recover from the Addressee the amount of the under-charge. In this case the telegram is not delivered to the Addressee until he has paid the additional charge. If the Addressee should decline to pay the additional sum demanded, a Service Advice is sent to the Office of origin, explaining the cause of non-delivery and mentioning the amount of the under-charge due. Should the Sender, duly notified of the reason for non-delivery, agree to pay the under-charge, a Service Advice is sent to the Office of destination, which then delivers the telegram.

Note.—In applying this Rule in India the language of the country is considered to be English. The rule applies also to the Vernaculars in case of telegrams from Ceylon (Rules 9 and 12).

69. In all languages the following are each Reg. XX, counted as one word only:

1. In the Address:

(a) The name of the Telegraph Office of destination when written as given in the first column of the Nomenclature des bureaux télégraphiques (Rule 24) even when the name is followed by that of the country or of the territorial subdivision in which the Office is situated.

(b) The names of countries or of territorial subdivisions if they are written as given in the said Nomenclature.

2. Each word in Code language which fulfils all the requirements of Rules 12 and 55.

3. Each isolated character, letter, or figure.

4. Each underline.

5. The two signs constituting a parenthesis.

6. Inverted commas, i.e., the two signs placed at the commencement and end of one and the same passage.

7. Special Instructions written in the abridged form authorised in Rule 18 (d).

70. Plain language.—In telegrams written Reg. XX, 3. entirely in Plain language, each single word and each combination of words authorised in Rule 67 is counted respectively for as many words as the number of times it contains 15 characters according to the Morse alphabet, plus one word for the excess, if any.

71. Code language.—In Code language the Reg. XX, 4. maximum length of a word is fixed at ten characters.

72. Mixed telegrams.—Words in Plain Reg. XX, 4. language inserted in the text of a mixed telegram, i.e., composed of words in Plain language and words in Code language are each counted as one word up to ten characters, any excess being counted as a word by indivisible series of ten characters.

Note.—This Rule applies also to Proper Names used without secret meaning in the text of telegrams in Code language.

73. If the mixed telegram contains in addition Reg. XX, 4. Cipher language, the passages in Cipher are counted according to the stipulations of Rule 76.

74. If the mixed telegram is composed only of Reg. XX, 4. Plain language and of Cipher language, the passages in Plain language are counted according to the stipulations of Rule 70, and the passages in Cipher language according to those of Rule 76.

75. Use of apostrophes and hyphens.—Reg. XX, 5. Words separated by an apostrophe or joined by a hyphen are counted as so many separate words. The apostrophes or hyphens are not charged for or signalled (Rule 64).

- XX, 6. 76. Figures, letter Cipher, and Commercial marks.—Numbers written in figures are counted as one word for each five figures which they contain, plus one word for any excess. The same Rule applies to the calculation of groups of letters in State telegrams as well as to groups of figures and letters used either as Commercial marks or in Semaphoric telegrams (see Rule 168).

Note.—When Commercial marks form part of the text of a telegram the Sender should certify them to be such at the foot of the form.

- XX, 6. 77. Signs used with figures.—Decimal points, commas, dashes, and bars of division are each counted as a figure or a letter in the group in which they occur. This also applies to letters added to groups of figures to form ordinal numbers.

- XX, 7. 78. Inadmissible groups or words.—When the Office of origin discovers, after the transmission of a telegram, the presence in such telegram of unauthorised groups of letters, or of words not belonging to any of the admitted languages (see Rules 9, 12, 55, and 67), or when the Office of destination notifies to the Office of origin the existence of such groups or words, the latter Office, for the calculation of the short charge to be recovered from the Sender, counts the groups or words above-mentioned in conformity with Rule 76, that is, at five characters to the word.

79. Examples of counting.—The following examples show how the rules for counting words are to be interpreted :

† The telegraph is not able to reproduce such expressions as 30^a, 15×6, etc. Senders of telegrams must, therefore, replace them by the full signification, thus : 30 raised to the power of a, 15 multiplied by 6, etc.

Note.—The abbreviations fob, cf, cif, B/L, C/o, and % are also counted each as one word.

80. Changes in Tariffs.—The franc is the monetary unit employed in Foreign Tariffs, and as all accounts with Foreign Administrations have to be settled in gold, the charges in India are subject to alteration in accordance with changes in the rate of exchange. The Tariffs for telegrams are made up of the shares of the different Administrations concerned, which may alter them from time to time. The Tariffs vary also according to the Route employed (Rules 91 to 93).

81. Charge by the word.—The charge for a telegram is by the word pure and simple, and the minimum charge is for a telegram of two words (Rules 24, 45, and 46).

Note.—Tables showing the rates per word to Foreign countries will be published in the Telegraph Guide.

82. Tariff areas.—For Tariff purposes India is divided into two areas, namely, India Proper and Burma. When in the course of transmission a Foreign telegram has to traverse both of these areas, the charge per word is always two annas higher than when it has to traverse only one.

83. Frontier Offices.—The Frontier Offices, or Offices which directly exchange telegrams with Foreign Administrations, are as follow :

- (a) Bombay, Karachi, and Madras in the Indian area, which exchange telegrams with the Eastern Telegraph Company, the Indo-European Telegraph Department, and the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Company, respectively. Madras is also ordinarily the Frontier Office for Ceylon.
- (b) Moulmein in the Burma area, which exchanges telegrams with the Siamese Administration.
- (c) Bhamo in the Burma area, which exchanges telegrams with the Chinese Administration.

All Foreign telegrams originating in India or Burma have to pass through one or other of these Frontier Offices.

84. The charges for telegrams must be prepaid, with the exception of the additional charges on telegrams to follow (Rule 144), Express charges (Rule 154), Semaphoric telegrams received from ships (Rule 171), and extra charges for alterations or illegal combinations of words discovered by the Office of destination (Rule 68), all of which are recovered from the Addressee.

85. Receipts.—The Sender of a telegram can claim a receipt showing the amount paid.

86. In every case where charges have to be collected on arrival, the telegram is delivered to the Addressee only upon payment of the amount due.

87. State telegrams.—The Rule about prepayment is relaxed in case of telegrams of great emergency from British Government Officials, who have been duly authorised (Rule 50) to send Foreign State telegrams. Whenever a telegram is sent without prepayment under this Rule, the Sender must take the necessary steps to ascertain the charges on it, and pay them into the Telegraph Office within twenty-four hours.

Reg. XXVIII, 5.
Reg. XXIII.
Reg. XLII, 1.

Reg. XXIV.

Reg.
XXX, a.

Reg.
XXX, 4.

88. Cash or stamps.—At Offices authorised to accept Foreign telegrams, the charges must be paid in cash or stamps. (For particulars—see Rules for Inland telegrams.)

Note.—In all cases in which postage stamps are used for payment of Foreign telegrams, sufficient additional stamps must be affixed to cover the postal discount of $\frac{1}{4}$ anna in the rupee.

89. Under-charges made in error, and charges and expenses not recovered from the Addressee in consequence of his refusal to pay them, or the impossibility of finding him, must be made good by the Sender.

90. Over-charges made in error are returned to those entitled to them. No refund, however, is made of the value of the stamps in excess affixed by the Sender, unless he applies for it to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, and sends with his application the Receipt granted for the telegram.

ROUTE.

91. The different Routes to be given to telegrams are indicated by concise directions in the Tariff Tables published in the Telegraph Guide. The Sender, who wishes to prescribe the Route, should write the corresponding direction on the telegram. The Sender may specify the actual Route to be followed or mark the telegram Best Route or Cheapest Route. Indications as to Route are transmitted free (Rule 65).

92. When the Sender has prescribed the Route to be followed, the Telegraph Offices concerned are bound to carry out his wishes, unless the Route named be interrupted, or transmission by it seems likely to involve serious delay, in which cases the Sender cannot raise any objection to the employment of another Route.

93. If, on the contrary, the Sender specifies no Route, the telegram is sent by the best working route for which sufficient charges have been received. Where the charges are the same the Offices where Routes diverge will decide by which to forward the telegram.

94. When the Sender requests that his telegram be transmitted by telegraph to a particular Office which he specifies, and thence by post to destination, the Offices must carry out his instructions.

INTERRUPTION OF TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATION. TRANSMISSION IN DUPLICATE.

95. When, in the course of transmission of a telegram, an interruption takes place in the regular telegraph communications, the Office beyond which the interruption has taken place at once sends the telegram by post (registered) or by some more rapid means, such as for instance by an alternative telegraph Route.

96. As soon as communication is re-established, the telegram is transmitted afresh by telegraph, unless its receipt has been previously acknowledged, or unless, on account of an exceptional accumulation of traffic, this retransmission would be clearly injurious to the total traffic.

97. Telegrams cannot be diverted to a more expensive Route until the Sender has paid the additional cost.

STOPPAGE OF TRANSMISSION. CONTROL.

98. Before transmission.—The Sender of a telegram, on proving his identity, can stop its transmission, if in time.

99. When he withdraws or stops it before transmission has begun, the charges are returned, less a fee of four annas.

100. If the stamps have already been defaced, the refund can be made only by the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, to whom the Receipt should be sent with an application.

101. After transmission.—If the telegram has been transmitted by the original Office, the Sender's only means of requesting its cancellation is by a paid Service Advice, forwarded in accordance with Rule 60. So far as is practicable, this Service Advice is transmitted in succession to the different Offices to which the original telegram was transmitted, until it overtakes the latter. If the Sender has also paid for a reply by telegraph, the Office which cancels the telegram advises the Office of origin of the fact. If no reply has been paid for, the cancelling Office communicates the information to the Office of origin by an unpaid letter. The Office of origin returns to the Sender the charges for his first telegram, for the cancelling Service Advice, and for the telegraphic reply, in respect of the distance not traversed, after deducting the postal charges, if any.

DELIVERY AT DESTINATION.

102. According to address.—Telegrams are delivered, according to their addresses, either at residence or Poste restante or Télégraphe restant (see also Rules 106 and 117).

103. Order.—Telegrams are, in all cases, delivered at or sent to their destinations in the order of their receipt and priority.

104. Free delivery limits.—Telegrams addressed to places of residence within the delivery limits of the Telegraph Office are at once taken to their addresses.

Note.—In India telegrams are delivered free of charge within five miles of a Telegraph Office. Beyond that limit, the post is employed without charge, unless a special means of delivery has been paid for by the Sender.

105. Reply given to messenger.—In India the telegraph messenger who delivers a telegram may be entrusted with the Reply, provided he be not detained for this purpose more than five minutes. The fact of the reply having been given to the messenger and the amount paid to him should be mentioned on the receipt given for the telegram.

106. Delivery by post.—Telegrams which have to be deposited Poste restante are remitted immediately to the Post Office by the Terminal Telegraph Office. If telegrams bear the instruction Poste they are posted as prepaid letters, without charge to Sender or Addressee. If they bear the instruction Poste recommandée or (P R) they are posted as registered letters (see Rules 163 and 164).

Note.—In India all Foreign telegrams which have to be posted to destination are posted as registered letters.

107. Delivery on ships.—Telegrams addressed to passengers of a vessel arriving at a port are delivered, if possible, before disembarkation.

108. When a telegram in India has to be delivered on board a ship, which cannot be reached without a boat (i.e., when not alongside a wharf, pier or jetty), the cost of boat hire must be paid by the Addressee (Rule 154).

Note.—On telegrams to Ceylon addressed to persons on board ships in Ceylon ports, the Sender must prepay twelve annas for boat hire. He should write the abbreviation XP (which is counted and charged as one word) before the Address to indicate that boat hire has been prepaid (see Rule 158).

109. Persons to whom telegrams are delivered.—A telegram taken to the Addressee's place of residence may be delivered either to the Addressee, or to any adult member of his family, or to any of his employes, lodgers or guests, or to the porter of the hotel or house, unless the Addressee has named in writing a special person, or the Sender has requested, by writing before the Address, the instructions Remettre en mains propres or (MP) [Rule 18 (d)] that the telegram be delivered only into the hands of the Addressee himself. In this case the Delivery Office writes the request upon the envelope and gives the necessary instructions to the messenger.

110. Open delivery.—The Sender may also request that the telegram be delivered open, by writing before the Address, the instructions [Rule 18 (d)] Remettre ouvert or (RO). This request is reproduced on the copy handed to the Addressee, which is delivered in India without an envelope, simply folded with the address written on the back.

111. Telegrams to Offices not included in the International System.—Telegrams arriving in India and addressed to places served by Postal Combined, or Railway Telegraph, Offices not authorised to accept Foreign telegrams (Rule 3) are posted to destination as registered letters from the nearest Office so authorised. (This restriction does not apply to telegrams from Ceylon.)

112. Undelivered telegrams.—When a telegram cannot be delivered, the Office of destination, after a brief delay, sends a Service Advice to the Office of origin, stating the cause of non-delivery and repeating the Address exactly as received. If necessary this Advice is completed by stating the reason for refusal (see Rule 68) or by indicating the charges to be claimed from the Sender (see Rules 141 and 153).

113. The Office of origin verifies the correctness of the Address, and, if it has been erroneously transmitted, rectifies it immediately by a Service Advice.

114. If the Address has not been mutilated, the Office of origin communicates, if practicable, the Advice to the Sender. The latter can only complete, rectify or confirm the Address by a paid telegram in the form of a paid Service Advice (Rule 60).

115. If it becomes possible to deliver a telegram after transmitting Advice of non-delivery without having received one of the rectifying Advices referred to in Rules 113 and 114, the terminal Office sends a second Service Advice to the Office of origin. This information is communicated to the Sender if he has received notice of non-delivery.

116. If the messenger finds no person who will consent to receive the telegram for the Addressee, a notice is left at the residence indicated and the telegram is taken back to the Telegraph Office to be delivered to the Addressee, or any person authorised by him to take delivery of it, upon application from either.

117. Poste restante. Télégraphe restant.—When a telegram is addressed Poste restante or Télégraphe restant, it is delivered only to the Addressee or a person duly appointed by him.

118. Any telegram which cannot be delivered by the end of six weeks is subject to the provisions of Rule 174, not kept by the office of destination.

119. Directions about delivery.—All directions, which persons leave at Telegraph Offices regarding the delivery or re-transmission of their telegrams, should be renewed at intervals of at most six months.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

120. The Sender of a telegram can prepay the reply which he requests his correspondent to forward; but the prepayment cannot exceed the cost of a telegram of 30 words to the same destination by the same Route, unless it be to obtain, in conformity with the terms of Rule 60, the repetition of a telegram previously transmitted.

121. When the Sender prepays a reply, he should write on the form, before the Address, the Special Instruction Réponse payée or (RP), adding the number of words to be prepaid for the reply, and pay the corresponding amount, within the limits authorised by the last foregoing rule. If he does not state the number of words, the amount to be collected is the charge for a telegram of ten words by the same Route.

Note.—A reply of less than two words cannot be prepaid (see Rules 24, 45, and 16).

122. At the place of destination the Delivery Office remits to the Addressee an Order or Pass, which entitles him to send, free of charge, and within the limits of the amount prepaid, a telegram to any destination whatever from any Telegraph Office of the Administration granting the Pass.

Note.—A Pass issued for a Reply to an Inland telegram cannot be used to frank a Foreign telegram and vice versa. Two or more Foreign Passes may be used to frank one Foreign telegram, but one Pass may not be used to frank more than one telegram.

123. When the charge for a telegram, paid for by a Pass, exceeds the value of the Pass, the difference must be paid in cash or stamps. If, on the other hand, the value of the Pass exceeds that of the Reply, the difference is refunded by the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, to the Sender of the original telegram if he apply for it. This refund is only made on the authority of the Administration which delivered the original telegram.

Note.—In the case when the telegram with deposit for reply originated in India, the refund of the unused portion is made by the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta.

LI, 3. 124. The Pass may be used in payment for a telegram only during a period of six weeks from the date of issue.

LI, 4. 125. When the Addressee does not use the Pass, the money deposited for the Reply can be refunded to the Sender under the conditions of Rule 190 (g).

Note.—In case of a Pass delivered in India, the Addressee should, before the expiration of three months from the date of issue, send the Pass to the Check Office as above, accompanied by a claim for refund in favour of the Sender.

LI, 5 and 126. If the Addressee refuses the telegram or only the Pass for the reply, the Delivery Office immediately informs the Sender by a paid Service Advice which is transmitted as a Private telegram paid for by the Pass.

LI, 7. 127. When a Reply-paid telegram cannot be delivered immediately on arrival from any cause other than refusal, a Non-delivery Report is sent as a Service Advice as prescribed by Rule 112.

LI, 8. 128. If there is no rectification and if the endeavours made to find the Addressee remain fruitless, the Pass remains attached to the telegram during the period of retention fixed by Rule 118. At the end of this period the amount of the Pass may be refunded to the Sender under the conditions given in Rule 190 (g).

(B) Collated (or Repeated) Telegrams.

III, 1. 129. The Sender of a telegram can require it to be collated (or repeated). In this case he should write before the Address the Special Instruction for collation, viz., (TC), which is charged for as one word [Rule 69 (7)].

III, 2. 130. State telegrams written in Secret language are invariably collated free of charge.

III, 3. 131. Collation consists in the entire telegram being repeated back immediately on its receipt by each Office concerned in its transmission.

III, 4. 132. The charge for collation is equal to one-fourth of that of a telegram of the same length by the same Route.

Note.—In calculating the charge for collation fractions of an anna are disregarded.

(C) Advice of Delivery.

LIV, 1. 133. The Sender of a telegram can require that a notice of the date and time at which his telegram is delivered to the Addressee shall be notified to him as soon as possible after its delivery. When the telegram is forwarded to its final destination by post this notice mentions the date and time of its being posted,

134. The notice is sent by telegraph if the Reg. LIV, 2. Sender writes before the Address the Special Instruction Accusé de réception or (PC), which are charged for as in Rule 69 (7), and pays a charge equal to that of a telegram of ten words for the same destination by the same Route. It is sent by post if the Sender writes before the Address the Special Instruction Accusé de réception postal or (PCP) and pays a charge of five annas for postage.

135. In the case of non-delivery provided for Reg. LV, 3 in Rule 112, the Advice of Delivery is preceded by the Service Advice required by that Rule. The Advice of Delivery is sent later on, either after delivery of the telegram, if that has become possible, or after the lapse of 24 hours if delivery has not been effected, and in the latter case it intimates the cause of non-delivery.

136. A Postal Advice of Delivery contains Reg. LV, 4 the same information as a Telegraphic Advice of Delivery. It is sent under a prepaid registered cover by the officer in charge of the Delivery Office to the officer in charge of the office of origin.

137. The Advice of Delivery, telegraphic or Reg. LV, 5 postal, when it reaches the Office of origin of the telegram, is notified to the Sender.

138. The Sender can require, by writing Reg. LVI, 1. before the Address the Special Instruction Faire suivre or (FS), that the Office of destination shall cause his telegram to follow the Addressee.

139. The Sender of a telegram Faire suivre Reg. LVI, 2. cannot in any case prepay either a Reply or an Advice of Delivery for such telegram.

140. When a telegram bears the Special Reg. LVI, 3. Instruction Faire suivre or (FS) without further instructions, the Office of destination writes after the Address transmitted, the new Address, if any, supplied at the residence of the Addressee, and sends the telegram forward to its new destination. The same course is followed until the telegram is delivered or no new address is furnished.

141. If delivery cannot be effected, and if no Reg. LVI, 4. new Address is furnished, the telegram is kept in deposit and its non-delivery reported as in Rule 112. The Service Advice of Non-delivery must show the amount of the charges to be claimed from the Sender.

142. If the Special Instruction Faire suivre or Reg. LVI, 5. (FS) is accompanied by successive Addresses, the telegram is transmitted to each of the destinations mentioned until the last, if necessary. In case of non-delivery the last Office treats it in accordance with the provisions of Rule 141.

143. The original contents of a telegram Faire Reg. LVI, 6. suivre are transmitted in full to the successive Offices of destination, and reproduced in the copy delivered to the Addressee.

144. The charge to be collected from the Reg. LVI, 7. Sender for a telegram Faire suivre is simply the charge up to the first destination, all the Addressees being counted in the number of words charged for. The supplementary charges are collected from the Addressee.

9, 11, 145. Telegrams re-addressed in India.—The rules for telegrams "to follow" do not apply to telegrams received for delivery in India. Should, however, the Addressee of a Foreign telegram received in India have left the place to which it is addressed, it will, if returned unopened with definite instructions as to the new Address, be re-transmitted within Indian limits. It will also (subject to the conditions laid down in Rules 104 and 111) be transmitted immediately to any new Address, without being sent out for delivery at the first Address, if the Addressee has left written instructions at the Office, or if his new Address is known. The charge for such re-addressing is the ordinary rate for Inland telegrams (i.e., one rupee for the first eight words, and two annas for each additional word; Address and Sender's name free), and it must be paid by the Addressee before the telegram is delivered.

146. Telegrams re-addressed to Ceylon.—Foreign telegrams arriving in India can also be re-addressed to Ceylon, if the Addressee has left for that country. In such case the re-addressing charge recovered from the Addressee is the usual charge between India and Ceylon.

Note.—No Foreign telegram arriving in India can be re-addressed to any Foreign country, except Ceylon.

(E) Multiple Telegrams.

1. 147. A Multiple telegram may be addressed, either to several persons in the same locality or in different localities served by the same Telegraph Office, or to the same person at several Addresses in the same locality, with or without re-forwarding by post or express, if the Special Instruction x Adresses or (TMx), [Rule 18 (d)], which enters into the number of words charged for, be written before the Address (Rule 22).

2. 148. If the Address of a Multiple telegram contains any Supplementary Instructions, it is written in accordance with Rule 22.

3. 149. A Multiple telegram is charged for as a single telegram; but a copying fee of five annas per telegram not exceeding one hundred words is charged for each Address after the first. Above one hundred words, an additional fee of five annas is charged for every additional, or fraction of, hundred words. In calculating this fee the total number of words in the text, Sender's Name and Address are counted, the charge for each copy being reckoned separately.

150. In the first case specified in Rule 147 each copy of the telegram delivered will bear its own particular Address only, unless the Sender has requested the contrary. The latter request must be included in the number of words charged for and entered before the Address as follows:—Communiquer toutes adresses.

(F) Telegrams for places where there are no International Telegraph Offices.

151. Post or Express.—Telegrams addressed to places where there are no International Telegraph Offices may be delivered at destination, according to the request of the Sender, either by Post or by Express (Rules 157 and 158), but delivery by Express cannot be demanded, except for those States which have organised a system of transport more rapid than the post and have notified to the other States the arrangements provided for such service (Rule 159).

152. The Address of telegrams to be conveyed beyond the telegraph lines should be written as follows.—Poste (or Express) M. Muller, Johannisthal, Berlin, the names of the Terminal Telegraph Office being entered last (see Rule 30). Reg. LIX, 2.

153. When a telegram which bears the instruction Express and has involved expense is not delivered, the Office of destination enters in the Advice of non-delivery referred to in Rule 112 the amount to be recovered from the Sender on this account. Reg. LIX, 3.

154. Charges for transport beyond the delivery limits of Telegraph Offices by quicker means than the post, in States where such service is organised, are, as a rule, collected from the Addressee. (For exceptions—see Rules 155, 156, and 158.) Reg. LX, 1.

155. When the Sender desires to prepay the cost of transport, and if he can himself fix the amount to be collected under this head by the Telegraph Office of origin, the telegram must bear the Special Instruction (charged for) Express payé francs—or (XP francs)—). If the sum deposited is found to be insufficient, the difference is claimed from the Addressee, but, if it exceeds the actual cost, the difference is not refunded. Reg. LX, 2.

156. A Sender who does not know the amount of the transport charges can relieve the Addressee from the payment of any charge whatever, either by paying the charge of a telegram of five words to the same destination by the same route, or by paying a fee of five annas for postage, and by depositing in addition, by way of security, a sum to be fixed by the Office of origin with a view to subsequent settlement. The telegram bears the instruction Express payé télégraphe or (XPT) or else, Express payé lettre, or (XPP). This instruction is written before the Address and is charged for. Reg. LX, 3.

157. The Telegraph Office which receives for delivery a telegram with the instruction Express payé télégraphe or (XPT) notifies to the Office of origin by a paid Service Advice the charge to be collected for transport. This information is given by prepaid and registered letter in cases where the Special Instruction is Express payé lettre or (XPP). On receipt of this information the Office of origin settles with the Sender. Reg. LX, 4.

158. When the Administration of destination has previously fixed and notified the charge for transport, payment by the Sender is obligatory. In this case the telegram must bear before the Address the instruction Express payé or (XP), which is included in the number of words charged for (Rule 23), and there is no necessity for the Office of destination to report to the Office of origin the actual cost of delivery. Reg. LX, 5.

159. All fixed Express transport charges notified by other Administrations are shown in the Tariff Tables published in the Telegraph Guide.

Reg. LXI, 1. 160. Employment of post.—The Terminal Telegraph Office is entitled to employ the post—

(a) in the absence of directions in the telegram as to the means of portage to be employed ;

(b) when the means indicated differ from the mode adopted and notified by the Terminal Administration (Rules 158 and 159), or

(c) when it is a question of transport by Express to be paid for by an Addressee who has previously refused to pay such charges.

Reg. LXI, 2. 161. The employment of the post is obligatory upon the Terminal Telegraph Office—

(a) when a request to this effect has been expressly made by the Sender (Rule 151), or

Reg. LXI, 3. 162. Telegrams of every kind, which have to be sent to their destination by post, are handed to the Post Office by the Terminal Telegraph Office without any charge being made to the Sender or Addressee, except in the cases provided for under Rules 163 and 164.

Reg. LXI, 4. 163. Post registered.—Telegrams to be posted as registered letters are subject to a fee of five annas. The Special Instruction Poste recommandée or (PR) charged respectively as two and one word (Rule 23) must be written before the Address (Rule 21).

Notes I.—All Foreign telegrams, which have to be posted to destination in India, are sent by post registered (Rule 106).

Notes II.—Foreign telegrams delivered by His Highness the Nizam's State are delivered in duplicate. The first copy is posted unregistered by the Terminal Telegraph Office, and then that Office telegraphs the second copy, marked Duplicate, to Hyderabad (Deccan), where it is posted registered through the British Post Office.

Reg. LXI, 5. 164. Telegrams to be sent by post to a country other than that of their telegraphic destination are subject to a fee of five annas.

Reg. LXI, 6. 165. Telegrams too late to be posted registered.—When a telegram, to be forwarded as a registered letter, cannot immediately be registered, it is, in order to take advantage of a postal departure, first posted as an ordinary letter, a duplicate being sent as a registered letter as soon as possible.

Note.—This applies to all Foreign telegrams posted in India. The second copy will always be marked Duplicate.

(G) Semaphoric Telegrams.

Reg. LXII, 1. 166. Semaphoric telegrams are telegrams exchanged with ships at sea by means of Semaphores established on the coasts of any of the Contracting States.

167. Semaphore stations.—The following Telegraph Offices in India are Semaphore stations :

Achipur.	Elephant Point.
Amherst.	False Point Light-house.
Budge-Budge.	Hooghly Point.
Diamond Harbour.	Mud Point.
Diamond Island.	Saugor Island.

168. Language.—Semaphoric telegrams must be written, either in the language of the country in which the Semaphore station which has to signal them is situated, or in signals of the Universal Commercial Code. In the latter case they are considered as Cipher telegrams. Reg. LX

169. Address.—When they are for ships at sea, the Address must contain, in addition to the ordinary direction, the name or official number of the vessel for which they are intended, and its nationality. Reg. LX

170 Preamble.—In every Semaphoric telegram the word Sémaphorique is signalled free in the Preamble. Reg. LX

171. The charge for telegrams exchanged with ships at sea by means of Semaphores is fixed at ten annas per telegram. This charge is added to the cost of its transmission by the electric telegraph, calculated according to the ordinary rules. The total is collected from the Sender, for telegrams addressed to ships at sea, and from the Addressee, for telegrams signalled from ships at sea (Rule 84). Reg. LX

172. Transmission.—Telegrams from a ship at sea are transmitted to their destination in signals of the Universal Commercial Code when the sending ship requests it. Reg. LXIII, 1

173. When such request has not been made, they are translated into ordinary language by the Official of the Semaphore station and transmitted to destination. Reg. LXIII, 2

174. Non-delivery.—In case the ship to which a Semaphoric telegram is addressed does not arrive within the term of twenty-eight days, the Semaphore station forwards a Service Advice to the Sender on the morning of the 29th day. The Sender has the power, on paying the ordinary cost of a telegram of ten words to the Semaphore station, to request that the Semaphore continue to present his telegram for another period of thirty days, and so on. If this request is not made, the telegram is destroyed on the thirtieth day, excluding the day of deposit. Reg. LXIII, 3

(H) Combination of Special Telegrams.

175. In applying Rules 120 to 174, the facilities given to the public for prepaid replies, collated telegrams, advice of delivery, telegrams "to follow," multiple telegrams, and telegrams to places where there are no International Telegraph Offices, can be combined, the instructions in Rules 21 to 23 being duly observed. Reg. L

Exception.—The Sender of a telegram "to follow" cannot in any case prepay a Reply or an "Advice of Delivery" (Rule 139).

FOREIGN PRESS TELEGRAMS AT REDUCED RATES.

See Reg. LXXIX.

176. United Kingdom.—Telegrams in plain English containing news or intelligence for publication in newspapers are transmitted via Teheran or via Suez from the United Kingdom to India and Burma, and from Government Telegraph Offices in India and Burma to the United Kingdom, at reduced rates subject to the following conditions:—

I.—The newspapers, their correspondents or agents, are required to address their telegrams to a registered newspaper, and such newspaper is prohibited from selling, distributing or communicating such telegrams to clubs, exchanges or news-rooms, or disposing of them for any purpose whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, other than for publication in registered newspapers.

II.—Telegrams at the reduced rate shall not be allowed to interfere with the transmission of telegrams at full rates, and in order to insure this, the transmission of such News telegrams may be deferred or suspended, or interrupted until any State or Private telegram, or any Press telegram at full rates, which may be on hand, shall have been transmitted and completed. On the lines of the Indian Telegraph Department such telegrams will take precedence with Ordinary Inland telegrams.

III.—No telegrams shall be transmitted at the reduced rate, except for publication in a newspaper, and they must be written in plain English so as to be intelligible to the transmitting offices. Telegrams containing news or information not for publication, or containing Code words or words of concealed meaning, or groups of figures or ciphers, shall be paid for at the full tariff rates.

IV.—The news transmitted in such telegrams at the reduced rate must be duly published in the newspapers to which they may be addressed, or satisfactory reasons be given for non-publication, in the absence of which full tariff rates will be chargeable.

V.—All Press telegrams at the reduced rate must be prepaid, except under special arrangements made by an authorised newspaper for a specially nominated correspondent.

VI.—The reduced rate for Press telegrams applies only when all the above conditions have been satisfied, and any subsequent claim made for the difference between the reduced and full rates must be satisfied immediately on demand.

177. Cannot be Multiple.—A Press telegram sent as above at reduced rates cannot be Multiple; in other words it must be addressed to only one newspaper.

* 178. How marked, etc.—Press telegrams must be marked Press by the Senders, and the benefit of Press rates must be claimed by them at the time the telegrams are tendered for despatch.

179. Other places.—On exactly the same conditions Press telegrams can be sent to or from—

(a) Aden via Bombay;

(b) Penang and Singapore via Madras;

(c) Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand via Madras;

(d) Souakim via Aden or via Suez;

(e) France via Suez; (Telegrams to French newspapers must be in French);

(f) Siam via Moulmein;

(g) Hongkong and Shanghai via Madras.

180. Except as provided in the four last foregoing rules, Press telegrams to and from the above-named places at reduced rates come under the general rules for Private Foreign telegrams.

181. Press telegrams for Ceylon are accepted at reduced rates under the same general rules and conditions as Inland Press telegrams (see Rules for Inland telegrams). In other respects Press telegrams for Ceylon come under the general rules for Private Foreign telegrams.

182. Stops.—In Press telegrams, where the sense so often depends upon the punctuation, especially in the case of long messages, full stops will be signalled free of charge, but this privilege will not be extended to any other signs of punctuation (Rule 64).

RECORDS.

183. Time kept.—The originals and copies Reg. of telegrams are kept for three days only in Gov. LXVIII, 1. ernment Telegraph Offices, after which time they are sent to the Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, where they are preserved for twelve months from the month following that in which the telegram was deposited and then destroyed.

184. Secrecy.—The originals or copies of Reg. telegrams can only be communicated to the LXIX, 1. Sender or to the Addressee, after proof of identity, or to the authorised representative of either of them.

185. Copies.—The Sender or the Addressee of Reg. a telegram, or the authorised representative of LXIX, 2. either, has a right to be furnished with a certified copy of such telegram or of the copy delivered at destination, if the latter has been preserved by the delivery Administration. This right lapses after the expiration of the time fixed for preserving the records.

186. A fixed charge of four annas is made for Reg. every copy delivered in conformity with Rule LXIX, 3. 185, if the telegram does not exceed 100 words. Over 100 words, this charge is increased by four annas for each 100, or fraction of 100, words.

187. Telegraph Administrations are not Reg. obliged to produce or give copies of the LXIX, 4. telegrams above-mentioned, unless the Senders, the Addressees, or their authorised representatives, furnish the necessary information to enable the telegrams, to which their requests refer, to be found.

188. Preservation.—On the ground of pending or contemplated judicial proceedings, application may be made by an interested party to the Government Telegraph Check Office for the preservation of specified telegrams exchanged between other persons. Such application must be made within twelve months of the dates of the telegrams, and such telegrams will then be preserved for a period of four months beyond the ordinary date fixed for destruction under Rule 183, at the expiration of this further period they will, in default of a renewed application, be destroyed. It must be understood that the duty of the Telegraph Department in the matter is confined to making the search and preserving the telegrams, if found. No information as to the result of the search will be furnished, and any telegrams answering the description given, which may be found, will only be produced on the order of a competent Court of law or other competent authority.

189. Fees for searching for telegrams.—

Should the particulars furnished be insufficient to enable the Check Office at once to trace the telegrams applied for under either Rule 185 or 188, the cost of searching for them must be deposited by the applicant. A fee of one rupee is charged for searching through the telegrams of any Telegraph Office for one day: thus, if it be required to examine the telegrams of two Telegraph Offices over a period of five days, the searching fee will be ten rupees.

Note.—Applications for the originals or for copies of telegrams may be addressed to the Telegraph Office within three days of the date of deposit or receipt of such telegrams, or to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta, within twelve months (Rule 183).

REFUNDS.

X. 1. 190. Refunds of the following charges are made, on application, to those who have paid them:

- (a) The full cost of every telegram which, through the fault of the telegraph service, has failed to reach its destination.
- (b) The full cost of every telegram of which the Sender has requested cancellation owing to an interruption of the specified route.
- (c) The full cost of every telegram which, through the fault of the telegraph service, has either suffered a greater delay than it would have if sent by post, or which has not been delivered within 144 hours.
- (d) The full cost of every collated telegram which, owing to errors made in transmission, has manifestly failed to accomplish its object, unless the errors have been rectified by paid Service Advices under Rule 60.

Note.—No refund is given for errors made in the transmission of uncollated telegrams.

- (e) The charges pertaining to any special service which has not been performed.
- (f) The full cost of every paid Service Advice sent under Rule 60 necessitated by an error of the telegraph service.

Note.—Except in the cases provided for in clause (j) below.

- (g) The full amount of every sum deposited in advance with the object of obtaining a reply, when the Addressee has not made use of the Pass, and when before the expiration of three months from the date of issue this Pass is in the possession of, or has been returned to, the Telegraph Administration which granted it.

- (h) The charges in respect of the telegraph section not traversed when, owing to an interruption of the telegraph route, the telegram in question has been forwarded to its destination by post or by some other means of transit. The charges incurred in replacing the original telegraphic route by any other means of transport are, however, deducted from the amount to be refunded.
- (i) The cost of every word omitted in the transmission of a telegram, unless the error has been rectified by means of a paid Service Advice under Rule 60.
- (j) The sums deposited on account of paid Service Advices (Rule 60) and for their respective replies, if the repetition does not agree with the first transmission, but under the condition that in any case where certain words have been correctly and others incorrectly reproduced in the original telegram, the charge for the words which, in the request for repetition and in the reply, refer exclusively to the words correctly transmitted the first time, will not be refunded.

- (k) The excess, if any, in the value of a Pass for a telegraphic reply, over the actual cost of the telegram paid for by means of the Pass.

- (l) The cost of every telegram stopped under Regs. LXX, 17, and LXXIII, 1.

191. In the case of a partial refund of the cost of a Multiple telegram, the quotient obtained by dividing the total charge collected by the number of copies determines the cost of each copy, the telegram counting, for this purpose, as one copy.

192. In the cases provided for in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (h), and (i) of Rule 190, the refund applies only to the charges of the actual telegrams lost, cancelled, delayed or mutilated, including the supplementary charges not expended, but not to telegrams which may have been either necessitated or rendered useless by such non-delivery, delay or mutilation.

193. When the errors due to the telegraph service have been rectified by means of paid Service Advices under Rules 60 and 61, the refund applies only to the cost of these paid Service Advices. No refund is due for the telegrams to which the Service Advices refer.

194. No refund is made on account of rectifying telegrams which, instead of being exchanged between Telegraph Offices in the form of paid Service Advices, are exchanged direct between the Sender and Addressee.

195. Rules 190 to 194 are not applicable to telegrams traversing the lines of non-adhering Administrations which refuse to accept the obligation of Refunds.

196. Every claim for refund should be made, under penalty of rejection, within six months of the date of the telegram.

197. Every claim should be made by the Sender to the Telegraph Administration under which the telegram originated and should be accompanied by documentary evidence, namely:—in case of non-delivery or of delay, by a written statement from the Terminal Office or from the Addressee; and in case of alteration or omission, by the copy of the telegram delivered to the Addressee. In case of telegrams sent from India, the claim should be accompanied by the Receipt (Rule 85). The claim can, however, be presented by the Addressee to the Administration of destination, which decides whether it must deal with it, or whether it must be forwarded to the Sending Administration.

Note.—In India all claims for refunds should be addressed to the Superintendent, Check Office, Government Telegraph Department, Calcutta.

198. When a claim is admitted to be well-founded by the Administrations concerned, the refund is made to the applicant by the Telegraph Administration under which the telegram originated.

199. If the Sender does not reside in the country where he deposited his telegram for transmission, he can have his claim forwarded to the original Telegraph Administration through the medium of another Administration. In this case the latter is deputed to make the refund, if need be.

200. No claim is admitted when a telegram is in question, which, not being in accordance with the conditions prescribed for observance by the public with regard to composition, language, legible writing, address, instructions for transport beyond the telegraph lines, etc., has been accepted for transmission at the Sender's risk.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Weather Review of India for the Week ending at 8 a.m. on Saturday, June 19th, 1897.

The pressure conditions during the week under review have been fairly regular and normal. Readings have been steadily high in Malabar, Ceylon and Tenasserim and steadily low over the Punjab, while a small cyclonic storm has formed over the head of the Bay and thence travelled north westward to the Gangetic Plain. These conditions and changes are all such as ordinarily occur at this season, and the only region, where there has been any marked irregularity, has been the West Coast, where the winds have been variable, and, though strong in force, have frequently blown from abnormal directions. These variable winds have been accompanied with heavy rainfall. The small storm in the Bay was the next most important feature in the meteorology of the week. It first appeared on the morning of the 15th, the centre lying about 100 miles to the south-east of Saugor Island. On the 16th the centre lay a little to the north-east of False Point, on the 17th to the north of Cuttack, on the 18th to the south of Ranchi and on the 19th between Sutna and Allahabad. Moderate rain fell within the storm area and accompanied it on its course north-westward. In Upper India the winds were at first variable, but subsequently drew into south-east, but any rainfall was light and scattered. The mean temperature of India was nearly normal during the week. It was somewhat higher than usual at the commencement of the week, but fell to below the normal as the rainfall area extended.

Daily Summary.—Sunday, June 13th.—Pressure was falling briskly to rapidly over North Bombay, Central India, Rajputana and the Southern Punjab, but elsewhere the changes were slight. Readings were lowest over the Western desert and highest in the extreme south, the pressure differences being greater than usual. The winds varied considerably in direction along the West Coast, but blew from about the normal quarters elsewhere. The force was high in many parts of the country. On the Burma Coast an abnormal easterly wind was reported. The mean temperature was high, except in the north-east. Rain had fallen on the West Coast districts, in parts of Burma and of South Bengal, and scattered showers had been received at some central and north-western stations. Along the West Coast the amounts were large.

Monday, June 14th.—Pressure had risen in the north-west and west of India and fallen in the east. The general distribution was similar to that reported on the 13th, and gradients continued steep, though less so than on the preceding day. The winds were still irregular at the West Coast stations and fairly normal in direction elsewhere. The mean temperature was low over parts of North-East and of Upper India, the abnormal deficiency exceeding 8° in the west of the North-West Provinces. The hottest area was the Western desert, but in the Madras Coast districts there was also considerable excess compared with the normal. Rain had been more extensive and heavy in Upper India, but otherwise there was little change in the general distribution.

Tuesday, June 15th.—The barometer had risen in North-West India and fallen elsewhere. A shallow depression had appeared over the head of the Bay, and gradients had become slighter, but these were the only important changes. The winds were now westerly along the West Coast, and, except for the cyclonic circulation around the shallow storm in the Bay, the winds were fairly normal. The mean temperature was low over Bengal, the Gangetic Plain and the Punjab and generally higher than usual elsewhere. The greatest deficiency—between 8° and 14° —was shown over the Eastern Punjab. Moderate rain had fallen over the West Coast districts, south of Ratnagiri, and light to moderate scattered falls over the remainder of India, except the extreme north-west.

Wednesday, June 16th.—Pressure had decreased, except over Burma and the Western desert. The fall was greatest and brisk to rapid over South and South-West Bengal, Orissa and Ganjam. The storm in the north of the Bay had intensified to some extent and the centre lay a little to the north-east of False Point. Normal monsoon winds prevailed, except within the storm area, where the directions were cyclonic. The mean temperature was low over West and South-West Bengal, the east and centre of the Peninsula, the Punjab and Rajputana. The abnormal deficiency exceeded 10° over the south of the Punjab. Heavy rain had fallen over parts of the West Coast, moderate rain over Burma and around the head of the Bay, and scattered showers over the central parts of India and of the Peninsula.

Thursday, June 17th.—Pressure had changed rather irregularly, but at many stations briskly. The most important alteration was a brisk to rapid fall over South-West Bengal, Orissa and the neighbouring parts of Madras and of the Central Provinces, due to the development and movement of the storm. The centre of the storm lay a little to the north of Cuttack, where the barometer read $0.25''$ below the normal. There was no important change in the winds, except that due to the change in the position of the storm, but on parts of the West Coast the directions were again becoming variable. The general distribution of temperature relatively to the normal was the same as on the 16th, the largest deficiency being reported from the Punjab. Heavy rain had fallen along the West Coast and in Mysore, moderate rain within the storm area and showers in parts of Upper India, the Central Provinces and the Deccan.

Friday, June 18th.—Pressure had recovered briskly over Lower Bengal, the east of the Peninsula and the west of the Bay, but elsewhere the changes had been slight. The storm in the north-east had filled up to some extent and the centre had moved north-westward to the neighbourhood of Ranchi. The winds were variable along the West Coast, cyclonic around the storm and about normal elsewhere. The temperature distribution was little changed; there was an abnormal depression of temperature of between 5° and 7° over West and South-West Bengal and over the east of the Punjab and the west of the North-West Provinces. Rain had fallen along the West Coast—heavily in the south—and over the whole of North-East India, while showers had occurred over the central parts of the country and at a few places in the north-west.

Saturday, June 19th.—Pressure had recovered briskly in West and South-West Bengal, decreased briskly in the Gangetic Plain and over the Punjab and Sind and generally changed slightly elsewhere. The storm which had apparently intensified slightly had continued to move north-westward and lay between Sutna and Allahabad, where the barometer read $0.20''$ below the normal. The winds were more regular again along the West Coast, while they were abnormally easterly in South Bengal. There was a well marked cyclonic circulation around the storm, and the force of the wind was high over a large part of the country. The mean temperature was low over the Gangetic Plain and South Madras and generally excessive elsewhere. The largest variations were $+7^{\circ}.5$ at Hoshangabad and $-10^{\circ}.7$ at Sutna. There was little or no rain over the Deccan, North Bombay, Rajputana and the Punjab, but elsewhere there had been fairly general rain, the falls having been moderately heavy over the West Coast and within the storm area.

Temperature.—The general temperature of India for the whole week exhibits very little departure from the normal, and on each day the variations for the whole country are on no occasion large, but within the different provinces the changes have been large.

The following table gives temperature data for the week :

PROVINCE.	JUNE 1897.							Mean variation of week.
	13th	14th	15th	16th	17th	18th	19th

Mean for whole of India	+2'8	+1'0	-0'5	-0'3	-1'0	-0'6	0	+0'2

From the above it will be seen that, while the mean temperature of the Punjab was 4°·7 above the normal on the 13th, it was as much as 8°·0 below on the 15th, and in Sind and Rajputana 8°·6 above on the 13th and 2°·1 below on the 16th. These large changes were due to the occurrence of rainfall over Upper India. The final column of figures shows that the mean temperature of the week was below the normal average over Northern India, about normal over the Peninsula and above the normal elsewhere.

The following are the highest maximum temperatures recorded on each day :

June 13th	126°·0 at Jacobabad.
„ 14th	120°·0 „ „
„ 15th	114°·7 „ Hyderabad.
„ 16th	113°·7 „ „
„ 17th	113°·2 „ „
„ 18th	114°·2 „ Jacobabad.
„ 19th	118°·0 „ „

Rain.—The rainfall table shows that, with the exception of Kathiawar, Sind, Baluchistan and West Rajputana and the doubtful exception of the East Coast [North (a)], rain has been received in all parts of the country. The principal causes to which the rainfall was attributable were the monsoon winds which blew across the West Coast and thence into the Central Provinces; and, secondly, the cyclonic storm which formed over the head of the Bay and passed thence north-westward through Orissa, Chota Nagpur to the Gangetic Plain. As a consequence the rainfall table shows that the regions, which were affected by these two causes, had generally more rain than usual, while those regions, which lay outside these influences, had less than the normal. There were, however, some exceptions. Thus—Tenasserim received during the week 14½ inches instead of 10½ inches, and the centre and south of the Peninsula reported heavier rain than the normal, due apparently to frequent thunderstorms. The average actual rainfall for the week varied from 21 inches in Malabar, 18 inches in Coorg, 14 inches in Tenasserim and 10 inches in Arakan and the Konkan, to less than 1 inch in the Brahmaputra Valley, North Bengal, most of the Punjab divisions, Khandesh, Berar, the Central Provinces (West), the North Bombay divisions, Rajputana and the south-east of the Peninsula. The second column of the table shows that ordinarily the heaviest rainfall during the week is received in Arakan, so that the heavy falls in the extreme south, in Tenasserim and the south of the Peninsula are apparently indicative that the monsoon is at present strongest in the south of the Indian region. The third column shows that more rain than usual was received in thirty-one and less than usual in twenty-four of the rainfall divisions. The region, over which the rain was short of the average, included the following divisions:—Central Burma and Arakan, the Assam divisions, the East, Central, North, Hill and North Bihar divisions of Bengal, the Central and North Punjab, Khandesh, Berar; the Central Provinces (West), the North Bombay divisions, Rajputana and Central India and the East Coast divisions, except the north. In the case of most of these divisions the defect was small, but in Arakan and the Assam and Bengal divisions the deficiency varies from 1 inch to 5 inches. In all other divisions the rainfall is heavier than usual, the abnormal excess being as much as 12 inches in the case of Malabar and Coorg and considerable in Tenasserim, Orissa and the Konkan.

The three concluding columns of the table exhibit the state of the rainfall from the 30th of May to date, a period of three weeks. The principal features in the seasonal distribution of rain relatively to the normal are the deficiency in North-East India, in part of the Central Provinces, Khandesh, North Bombay, Rajputana and Central India and in part of the Madras Presidency, and the general excess elsewhere. The deficiency is considerable in the first named area, including parts of Burma, Assam and Bengal, large in the second area, including Central India, Rajputana, Berar and Khandesh, and moderate and irregular in the third area. In South-West and West Bengal, the Gangetic Plain and the Punjab, as well as over the west and south-west of the Peninsula, the rainfall of the season has been generally excessive. In some parts of Upper India the rainfall has been more than double the usual amount.

The following are the principal large totals recorded this week :

Burma	Moulmein	14'45 inches.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Weekly Report on the state of the Season and Prospects of the Crops.

Madras.—For week ending 19th June.—Rainfall much in excess on West Coast; above average in Ganjam, Kurnool, Bellary, and Anantapur; elsewhere generally normal or slightly deficient. Water-supply for drinking is improving, but is insufficient in parts in affected tracts; elsewhere it is generally sufficient; for irrigation it is generally insufficient. Agricultural operations have begun; general standing crops are thriving generally, but early sowings in Vizagapatam require more rain badly. Harvests give a limited outturn; generally middling. Pasture is sufficient in Vizagapatam and south only; elsewhere it is improving in parts; fodder is insufficient in the Deccan; elsewhere is generally available, but is scarce. Condition of cattle in the Deccan is bad; deaths from starvation reported from Anantapur and Cuddapah; elsewhere condition generally normal. Prices are steady in the Deccan and West Coast; elsewhere they are still rising. The numbers on relief are:—Workers—105,636 men, 187,030 women, 71,851 children; total 364,517 in the Deccan and Circars. Test-workers—1,067 men, 1,297 women, 402 children; total 2,766 in Vizagapatam and Godavari. Weavers—13,183 men, 11,704 women, 1,656 children; total 26,543 relieved at their own trade in the Deccan and Ganjam. Total relief-workers—393,826. Kitchen inmates in the Deccan and Circars: (dependants)—286 men, 462 women, 14,629 children; total 15,377. (Others)—2,513 men, 4,953 women, 13,016 children; total 20,482. Otherwise gratuitously relieved—11,714 men, 31,182 women, 31,037 children, 87 unspecified; total 74,020. Total on gratuitous relief 109,879. Grand total on Government relief 503,705. Figures reported from Anantapur incomplete. There were also 9,335 employed on zemindari works in Ganjam, and 1,201 fed in private kitchens under Government management in Vizagapatam. Prices by which wages are regulated are:—Ganjam 10, Bellary and Vizagapatam $11\frac{1}{2}$, Kurnool 11, Cuddapah and Godavari $22\frac{1}{2}$, Anantapur 14 seers per rupee. Loans disbursed since the commencement of distress Rs. 702,496.

Bombay.—For week ending 21st June.—Rain throughout the Deccan, Karnatic, and Konkan; slight in Gujarat, Hyderabad, Thar and Parkar, and Wadhwan; more wanted in Khandesh, Nasik, and Sholapur. Sowing operations are in progress in Konkan, Karnatic, Deccan, and parts of Gujarat, Karachi, Thar and Parkar. Fodder is sufficient, except in the Deccan and parts of Karachi and Kolaba. Condition of agricultural stock is deteriorating in Khandesh, Ahmednagar, Sholapur, and Bijapur; healthy elsewhere, except in parts of Karachi, Shikarpur, Upper Sind Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Ratnagiri, and Kanara. Prices are rising in parts of Kolaba and Bijapur; falling in parts of Bijapur; stationary in Hyderabad and parts of Kolaba and Bijapur. Prices in affected districts are:—Belgaum and Bijapur $9\frac{1}{2}$, Sholapur $9\frac{1}{10}$, Ahmednagar 9, Poona $8\frac{3}{4}$, Nasik $8\frac{1}{4}$, Satara $8\frac{3}{4}$, Khandesh $7\frac{3}{4}$, and Dharwar $10\frac{3}{8}$ seers per rupee. The average daily number on relief works, including dependants, were:—Bijapur 56,263, Sholapur 102,890, Ahmednagar 33,204, Poona 21,567, Nasik 17,611, Satara 8,438, Khandesh 12,864, Belgaum 7,361, and Dharwar 208. On test works—Belgaum 414 and Dharwar 35; total 260,855, of whom 205,507 are relief-workers and 55,348 dependants. On gratuitous relief—Bijapur 11,797, including 305 in poor-houses, Sholapur 8,316, including 110 in poor-houses, Ahmednagar 7,386, including 278 in poor-houses, Poona 9,656, Nasik 980, Satara 438, Belgaum 660, Dharwar 833; total 40,066. Total number on relief 300,921.

Bengal.—For week ending 21st June.—Ordinary monsoon weather prevailed, and there was rain in all parts of the Province during the week. The weather is still unsettled. The general agricultural prospects are quite satisfactory. All standing crops are doing well, and the cultivation of winter rice and autumn crops are in full progress. The harvesting of cheena millet is still going on in Bihar. In Mymensingh some damage is said to have been caused to paddy by sand upheaved by the recent earthquake. Prices still show a tendency to rise slightly in some districts. In the distressed districts the prices of the staple food-grain on which the famine wage is based are:—Nadia, common rice $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Murshidabad, common rice 8 seers; Khulna, common rice 8 seers; Rajshahi, common rice $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Shahabad, rice 8 seers and peas $10\frac{1}{2}$ seers; Saran, barley 11 seers; Champaran, Burma rice $8\frac{1}{4}$ seers and peas $10\frac{1}{4}$ seers; Muzaffarpur, indian-corn $9\frac{1}{2}$ seers and rahar (Cajanus indicus) 11 seers; Darbhanga, common rice $7\frac{1}{2}$ seers and indian-corn 9 seers; Bhagalpur, common rice .8 to $8\frac{1}{4}$ seers; Sonthal Parganas, rice $7\frac{1}{2}$ to 8 seers; Puri, rice 9 to 12 seers; Hazaribagh, rice $6\frac{1}{2}$ to 8 seers; Palamau, rice 8 seers; Manbhum, common rice $7\frac{1}{2}$ to 8 seers per rupee. Numbers on relief on Saturday, 19th June, were:—Bankura 10,104, Nadia 109,222, Murshidabad 4,687, Khulna 12,915, Rajshahi 497, Pabna 1,131, Patna 157, Shahabad 28,958, Saran 72,627, Champaran 183,512, Muzaffarpur 130,174, Darbhanga 242,261, Bhagalpur 3,792, Sonthal Parganas 7,527, Puri 4,831, Hazaribagh 8,513, Palamau 4,781, Manbhum 16,229, Singhbhum 274; total 842,084 against 830,993 in the preceding week. This total is distributed as follows:—Relief workers—men 172,956, women 143,148, children 42,070; total 358,174. Dependants—men 2,145, women 196, children 37,442; total 39,783. In poor-houses and kitchens—men 2,039, women 2,253, children 11,328; total 15,620. Otherwise relieved—men 68,404, women 221,125, children 126,515; total 416,044. Test-workers—men 7,270, women 3,761, children 1,432; total 12,463. Private relief:—Relief works—Darbhanga Raj—Darbhanga—men 5,412, women 2,690, children 737; total 8,839. Darbhanga Raj—Muzaffarpur—men 525, women 190, children 47; total 762. Hatwa—men 586, women 1,321, children 654; total 2,561. Jamtara—men 526, women 503, children 89; total 1,128. Deoghur—men 500, women 497, children 127; total 1,124. Gratuitous relief—Darbhanga Raj—Darbhanga—men 3,181, women 8,286, children 7,681; total 19,148. Darbhanga Raj—Muzaffarpur—men 69, women 249, children 256; total 574. Hatwa—men 159, women 228, children 682; total 1,069. Manjha in Saran—men 26, women 11, children 16; total 53. Puri—men 57, women 132, children 140; total 329. Hazaribagh—Giridih—men 167, women 192, children 88; total 447. Total on private relief 36,034.

North-Western Provinces and Oudh.—For week ending 23rd June.—

Good rain has fallen throughout the Provinces; few districts recording less than 1 inch; in parts of Bulandshahr, Mainpuri, Saharanpur, Agra, Banda, Allahabad, Almora, Hardoi, Unao, Kheri, and Partabgarh over 3 inches fell. Standing crops have been benefited. Autumn ploughings and sowings are in progress. The numbers in receipt of relief on Saturday, the 19th June, in eighteen districts officially recognised as distressed were as follows:—Agra 29,791, Etawah 4,476, Cawnpore 10,424, Fatehpur 13,681, Banda 277,717, Hamirpur 66,623, Allahabad 307,322, Jhansi 67,847, Jalaun 121,034, Mirzapur 44,620, Family domains, Maharaja of Benares, 14,677, Jaunpur 35,438, Gorakhpur 30,484, Azamgarh 16,271, Lucknow 57,154, Unao 37,990, Rae Bareilly 31,780, Sitapur 4,916, Hardoi 128,452; total 1,300,697. This total is distributed as follows among the various methods of relief prescribed by the Famine Code which are in operation:—employed on relief works 769,812. Relieved as dependants 175,848. Relieved in poor-houses 28,418. Relieved under other provisions of the Famine Code, including 49,371 from Charitable Relief Fund, 326,619. The numbers relieved in nineteen districts under observation and not officially recognised as distressed were on the same date as follows:—relieved on testworks 17,449; relieved in poor-houses 7,581; relieved under other provisions of the Famine Code, including 13,317 from Charitable Relief Fund, 41,958; total 66,988. The grand total in receipt of relief on the last day of the week was therefore 1,367,685. Supplies are generally sufficient. Fodder is somewhat scarce in a few places. Prices are fluctuating. The price of the staple grain on which the famine wage is based varied from $8\frac{7}{8}$ to 12 seers in the districts officially recognised as distressed. The numbers shown as relieved from the Indian Famine Charitable Relief Fund represent the operations of the fund so far only as they are carried out through official agency.

Punjab.—For week ending 21st June.—Rain averaging about one inch has fallen in Rohtak, $\frac{1}{2}$ in Hissar, $\frac{1}{2}$ in Gujranwala and Rawal Pindi, $\frac{3}{4}$ in Mooltan and Dera Ismail Khan, and $\frac{1}{4}$ in Gurgaon and Sialkot. There has also been a fall of over $\frac{1}{10}$ inch at Lahore and Amritsar sadar station; a general fall is also reported from Shahpur. Harvesting of spring crops is nearly over; ploughings and sowings for autumn crops are going on; harvesting of extra spring crops has commenced; weeding of sugarcane and cotton is in progress. Rain is much needed. The outturn of extra spring crops is said to be good in Lahore. Standing extra spring and autumn crops are generally in fair condition; they have been benefited by recent rain in Hissar. Hail fell in parts of Shahpur and Dera Ismail Khan and caused slight damage. Locusts have also appeared in parts of Rawal Pindi, but did very little damage to the standing crops; young locusts are being destroyed in Dera Ismail Khan. Cattle are generally in poor condition; 186 cattle died from hunger in Rohtak; their condition is said to be good to fair in Gurgaon, Lahore, Amritsar, and Peshawar. Green grass is very scarce everywhere, it is unprocurable in some places; new straw is generally obtainable in all districts, though it is dear. The average number of relief workers, dependants, etc., was as follows:—relief workers—31,818 men, 28,742 women, 12,959 children. Dependants—135 men, 215 women, 9,036 children. Relieved in poor-houses—524 men, 638 women, 444 children. Otherwise relieved—4,063 men, 5,901 women, 3,359 children. Test-workers—61 men, the total number of relief workers, etc., is 97,895 against 104,854 last week. The decrease is in Rohtak and Gujrat districts. The works have been closed in Gujrat since 19th instant. Prices are generally high; they are still rising in Delhi and falling in Rawal Pindi and Dera Ismail Khan; the figures are mostly unchanged in other districts. Wheat is selling from 10 to $13\frac{1}{2}$, great millet 10, barley $13\frac{1}{2}$, gram $10\frac{1}{4}$ to $11\frac{1}{2}$, bulrush-millet 7 to $8\frac{1}{8}$, and maize 7 to 16 seers per rupee. Prices of staple food-grains on which famine wage is reckoned are:—Rohtak, barley $12\frac{1}{2}$; Delhi, wheat 10; and Gujrat, wheat and barley flour 13 seers; Hissar, Bir Ditch, barley flour $10\frac{1}{2}$; North Ghaggar, barley and gram flour $9\frac{7}{8}$; South Ghaggar, jowar flour $9\frac{3}{8}$; Karnal, wheat flour 10 and barley flour 12; Umballa, maize 11; Ferozepore, barley and gram $11\frac{3}{4}$ seers per rupee.

Central Provinces.—For week ending 21st June.—Weather cloudy with high winds. Monsoon conditions established. Heavy rain in most districts—Saugor received 7 inches, Bilaspur and Sambalpur 6, Jabalpur 4, Hoshangabad $3\frac{1}{2}$, Betul 3, Mandla and Narsinghpur 2. More rain is needed in Wardha and Bhandara, also in Nagpur for sowing of jowar (Sorghum vulgare). Sowing of rice continues in the Chhattisgar country and the Waingunga valley. Cotton sowings have commenced in Wardha and Nagpur; elsewhere summer sowing is in progress. Inferior rice germinating in Sambalpur; in Bhandara sugarcane has suffered from the great heat. Fodder is still insufficient in parts of nine districts and the water-supply is scarce in portions of three districts. Prices have risen in the Nerbudda division and to a marked extent in Seoni; there is an upward movement also in Jabalpur, Nagpur, and Sambalpur; in Betul price of wheat has risen to 6 seers per rupee. The contraction of 38,000 in the number of relief workers is assigned to prevalence of cholera, introduction of piece-work system, also to return of people to their fields. The total number on gratuitous relief has fallen by 20,000, the decrease occurring mainly in the number of dependants. The number of persons employed on private works has fallen from 134,000 to 113,000, to which decline seven districts have contributed. Numbers on relief works—Saugor 34,602, Damoh 26,707, Jabalpur 38,082, Mandla 21,710, Seoni 8,845, Narsinghpur 43,821, Hoshangabad 32,175, Nimar 138, Betul 4,748, Chhindwara 10,914, Wardha 2,847, Nagpur 13,213, Chanda 101, Bhandara 27,333, Balaghat 43,801, Raipur 60,988, Bilaspur 31,983, and Sambalpur 907; total 402,915. Numbers on gratuitous relief—Saugor 18,438, Damoh 17,189, Jabalpur 29,357, Mandla 8,282, Seoni 3,699, Narsinghpur 11,228, Hoshangabad 6,183, Nimar 581, Betul 3,463, Chhindwara 4,354, Wardha 22, Nagpur 2,815, Bhandara 10,299, Balaghat 17,770, Raipur 26,576, Bilaspur 18,013, and Sambalpur 1,901; total 180,170. Total number on relief 583,085. There were also 112,915 persons employed on railway and other private works. Details of relief workers—men 116,841, women 182,776, and children 93,621, with 9,677, unclassified. Dependants—men 2,299, women 3,229, and children 61,382, with 1,191, unclassed. Poor-houses—men 7,966, women 9,190, and children 11,930. Otherwise relieved—men 14,618, women 19,204, and children 18,523, with 30,548, unclassified. Wage prices—Chanda 10½, Wardha 9½, Nagpur 9½, Narsinghpur, Chhindwara, Bilaspur, and Sambalpur 9, Raipur 8½, Saugor, Jabalpur, Nimar, and Bhandara 8½, Hoshangabad and Betul 8, Damoh and Seoni 7½, Mandla 7½, and Balaghat 7 seers per rupee.

Burma.—For week ending 19th June.—In Lower Burma ploughing has commenced in Akyab, Sandoway, Prome, and Bassein, and is now in progress in thirteen districts. Transplanting has commenced in parts of Amherst, Upper Burma, Thayetmyo, and Minbu. Each received more than one inch of rain during the week, but only small amounts fell in the other districts of the dry zone. General prospects continue favourable, but more rain is still required in Taungdwingyi and Magwe. The price of paddy has risen considerably in Akyab and slightly in Myaungmya and Thayetmyo, while it has fallen slightly in Thongwa and Mandalay; elsewhere stationary. The numbers on relief works were—Meiktila 5,902. On gratuitous relief—Meiktila 1,089. Total number on relief 6,991. Price of rice—Meiktila 7 seers 10 chittacks per rupee. Myingyan and Yamethin reports not received.
